

Feeding the 5000

After these things Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A great multitude followed Jesus, because they saw His miracles of healing. Jesus went to sit on a hill with His disciples. It was nearly time for the Passover festival.

Jesus noticed a great crowd approaching, and He said to Philip, Where can we buy bread for all these people? And this He said to test him: for He himself knew what He would do. Philip said, Two hundred silver coins of bread are not sufficient for every one of them to take a little.

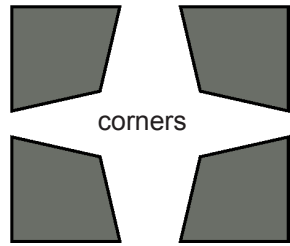

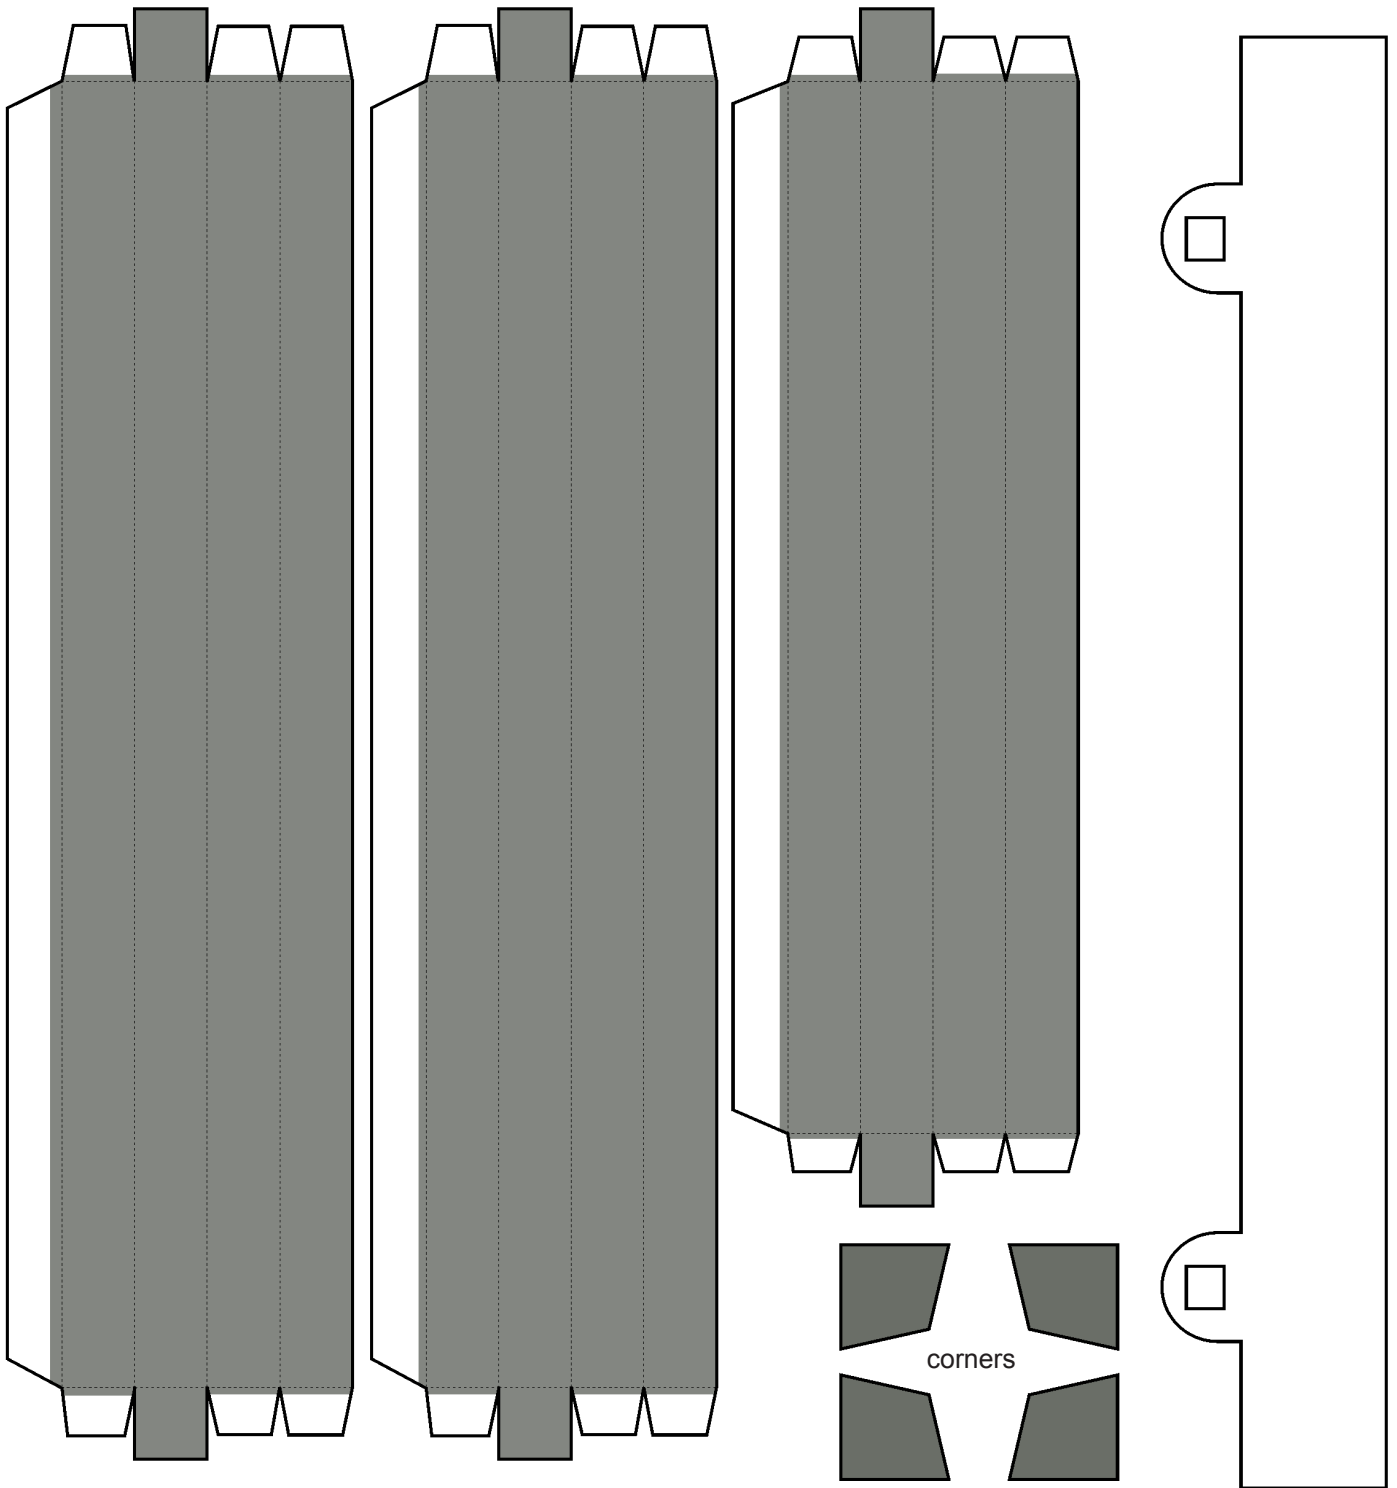

One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Him, There is a boy here who has five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what will this do for so many? And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

And Jesus took the loaves; and after He had given thanks, He distributed it to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were sitting; He also did that with the fish, and everyone ate all they wanted. After they had eaten, Jesus said to His disciples, gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above what the people had eaten.

John Chapter 6, verses 1 to 13; also found in Matthew 14:19; Mark 6:35; Luke 9:12

All scriptures are paraphrased from the American King James Version.

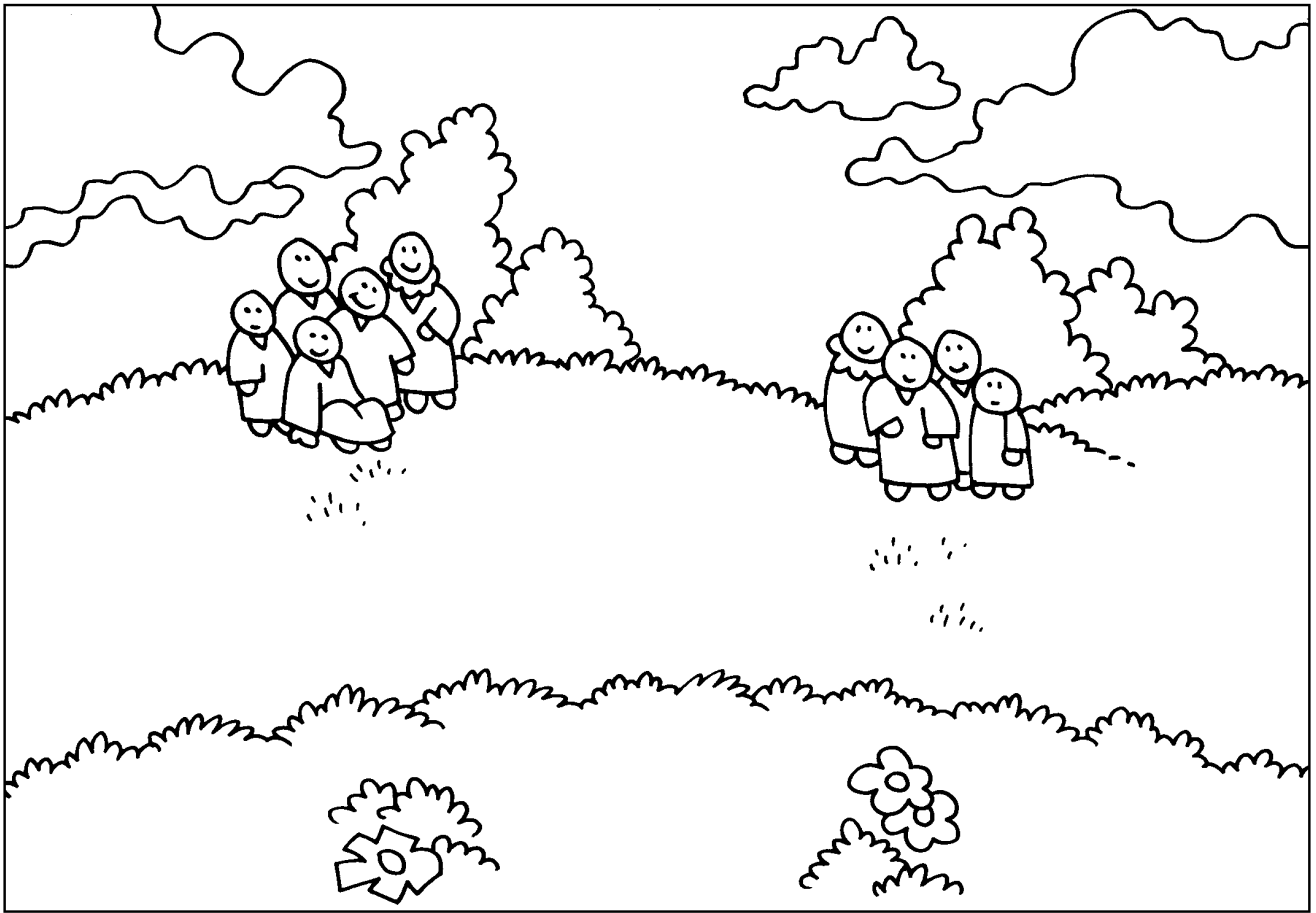

corners

parts for the frame

part to glue on
the back after attaching a string (see photo
instruction)

Feeding the 5000

After these things Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A great multitude followed Jesus, because they saw His miracles of healing. Jesus went to sit on a hill with His disciples. It was nearly time for the Passover festival.

Jesus noticed a great crowd approaching, and He said to Philip, Where can we buy bread for all these people? And this He said to test him: for He himself knew what He would do. Philip said, Two hundred silver coins of bread are not sufficient for every one of them to take a little.

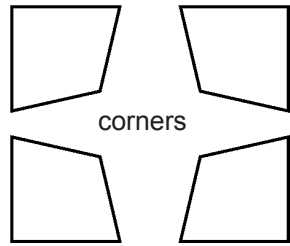

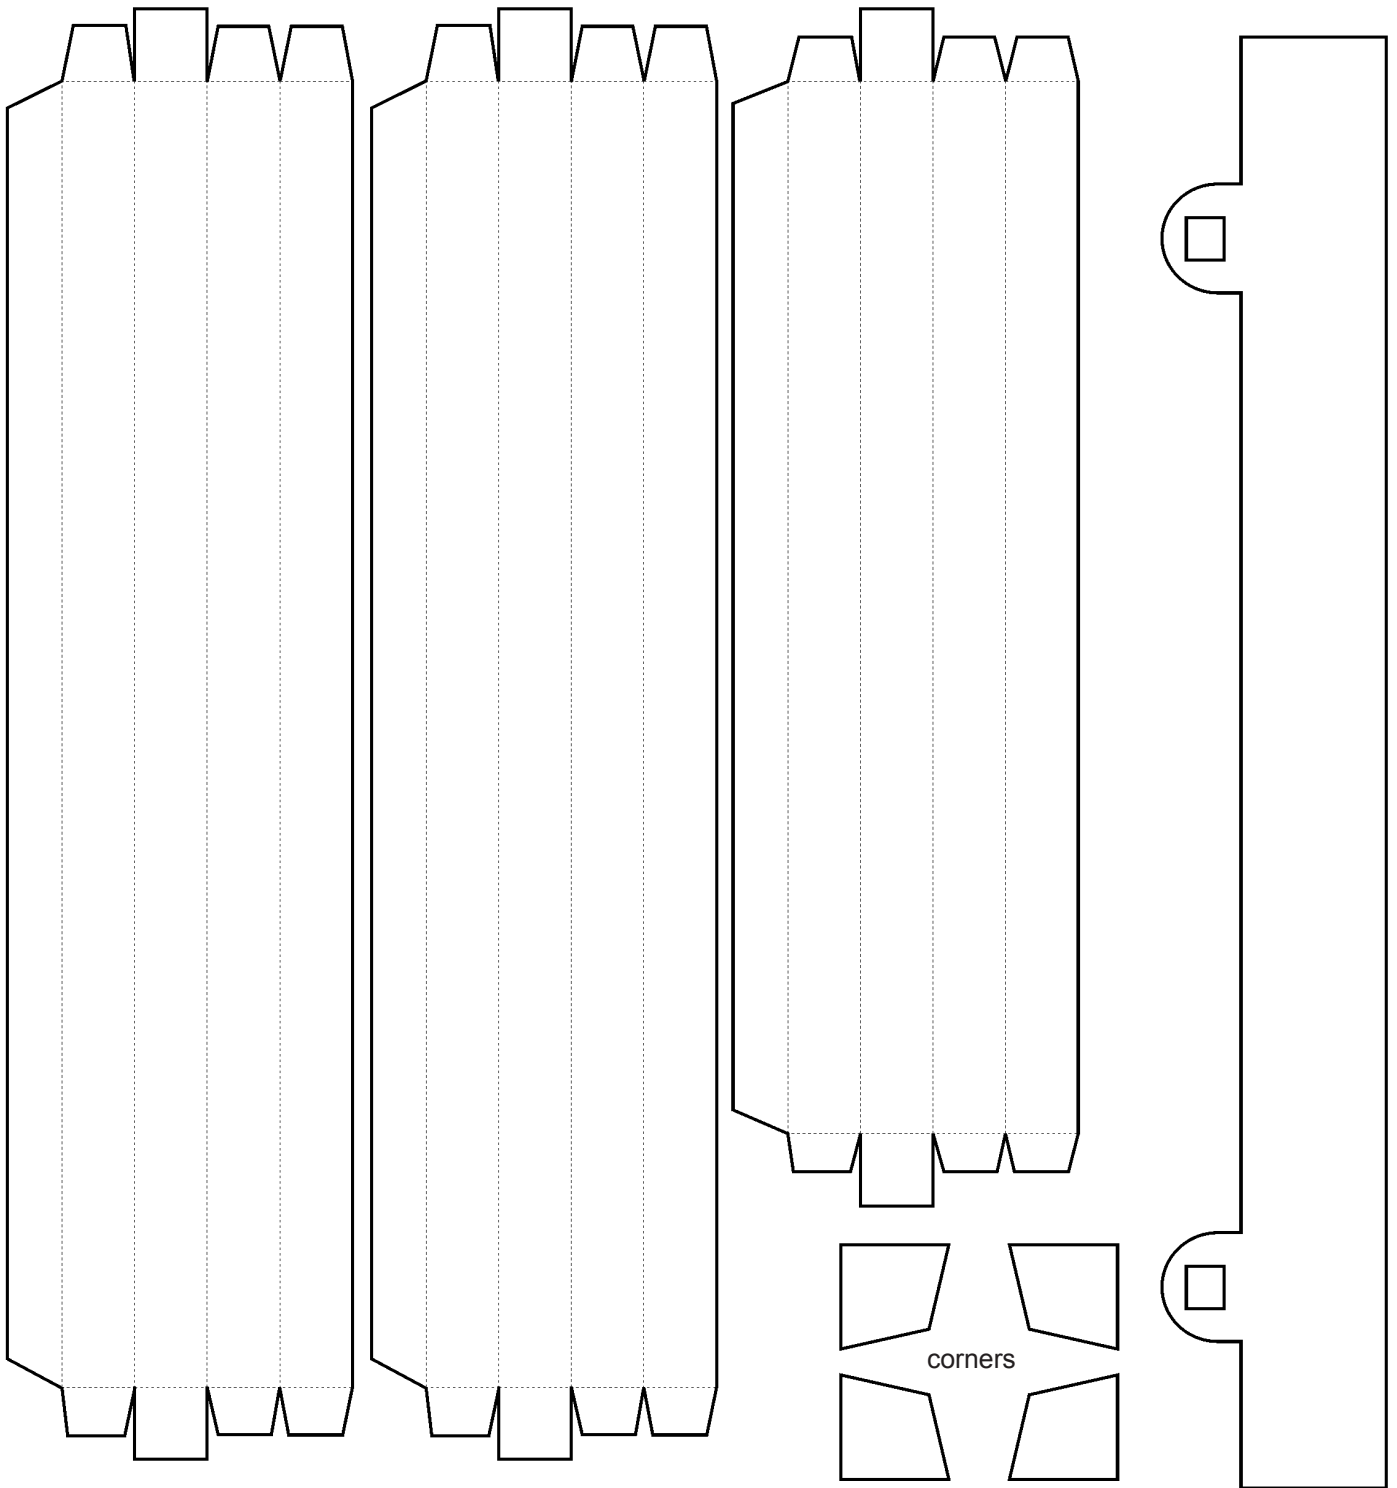

One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Him, There is a boy here who has five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what will this do for so many? And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

And Jesus took the loaves; and after He had given thanks, He distributed it to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were sitting; He also did that with the fish, and everyone ate all they wanted. After they had eaten, Jesus said to His disciples, gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above what the people had eaten.

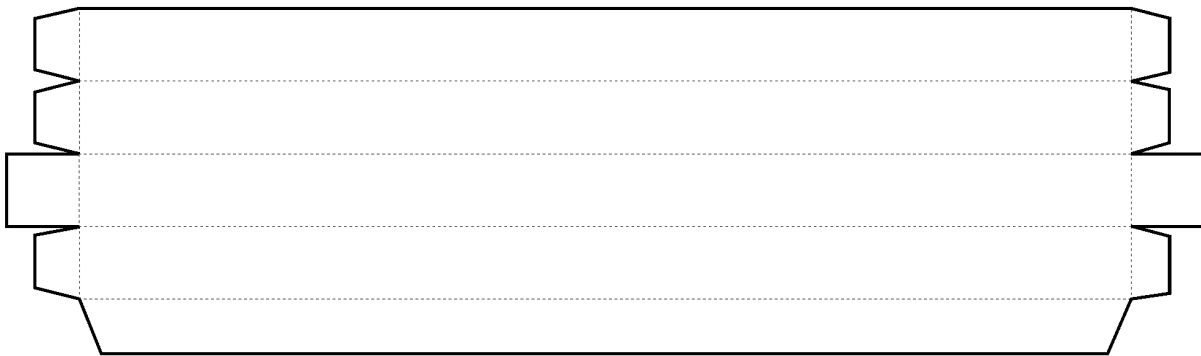

John Chapter 6, verses 1 to 13; also found in Matthew 14:19; Mark 6:35; Luke 9:12

All scriptures are paraphrased from the American King James Version.

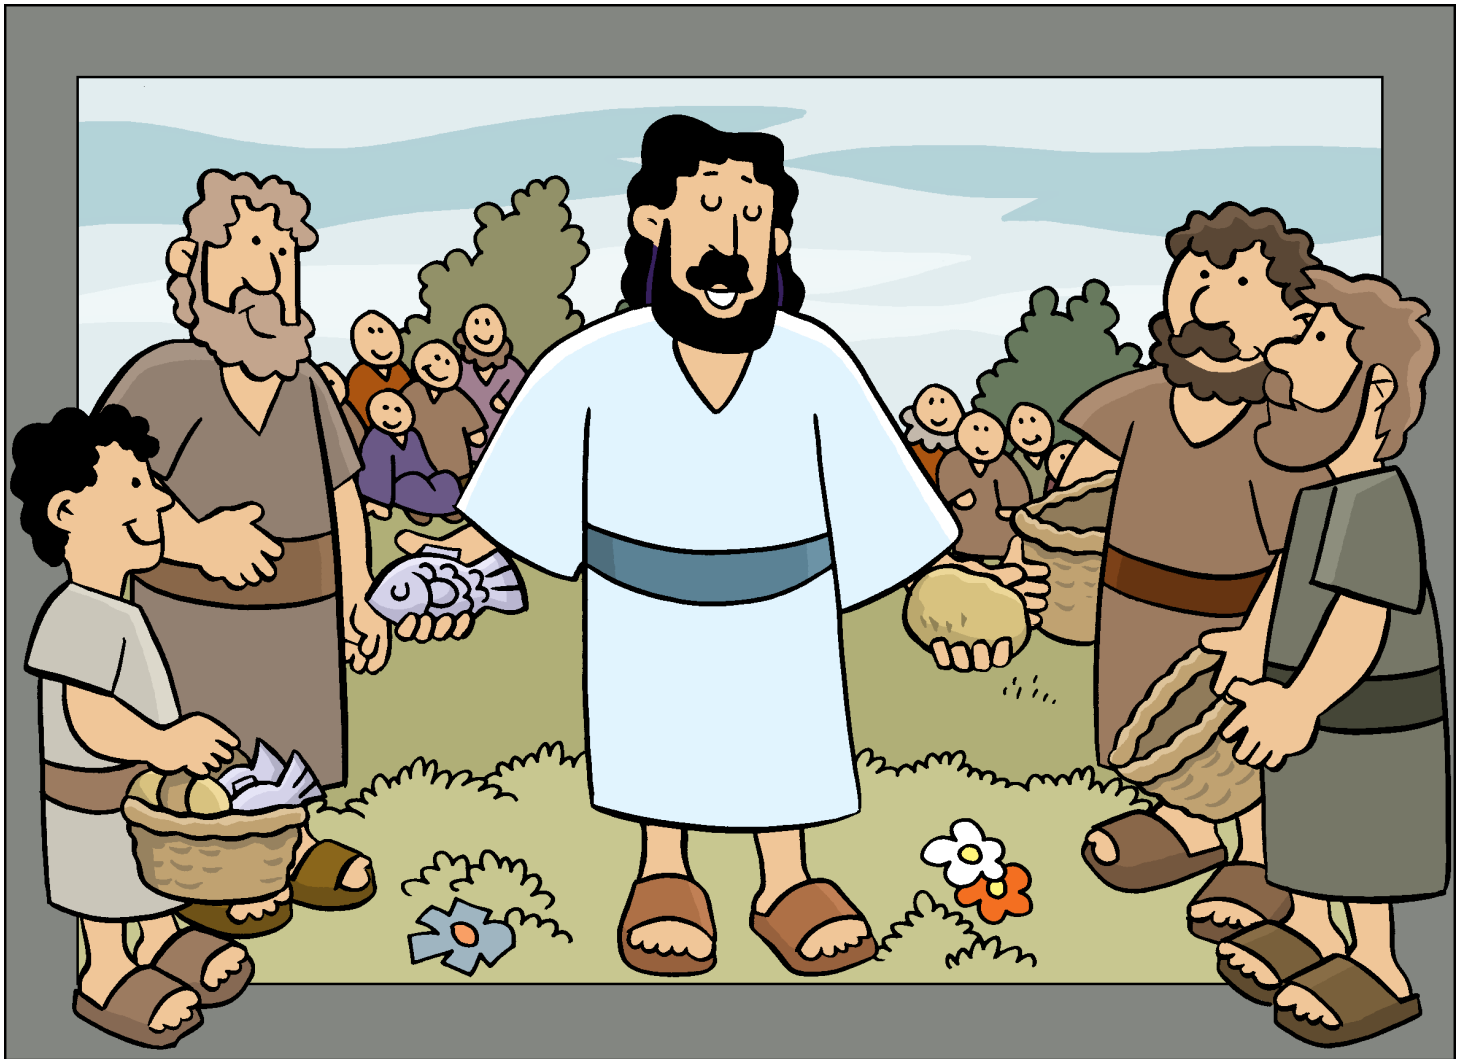

corners

parts for the frame

part to glue on
the back after
attaching a string (see photo
instruction)

Feeding the 5000

After these things Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A great multitude followed Jesus, because they saw His miracles of healing. Jesus went to sit on a hill with His disciples. It was nearly time for the Passover festival.

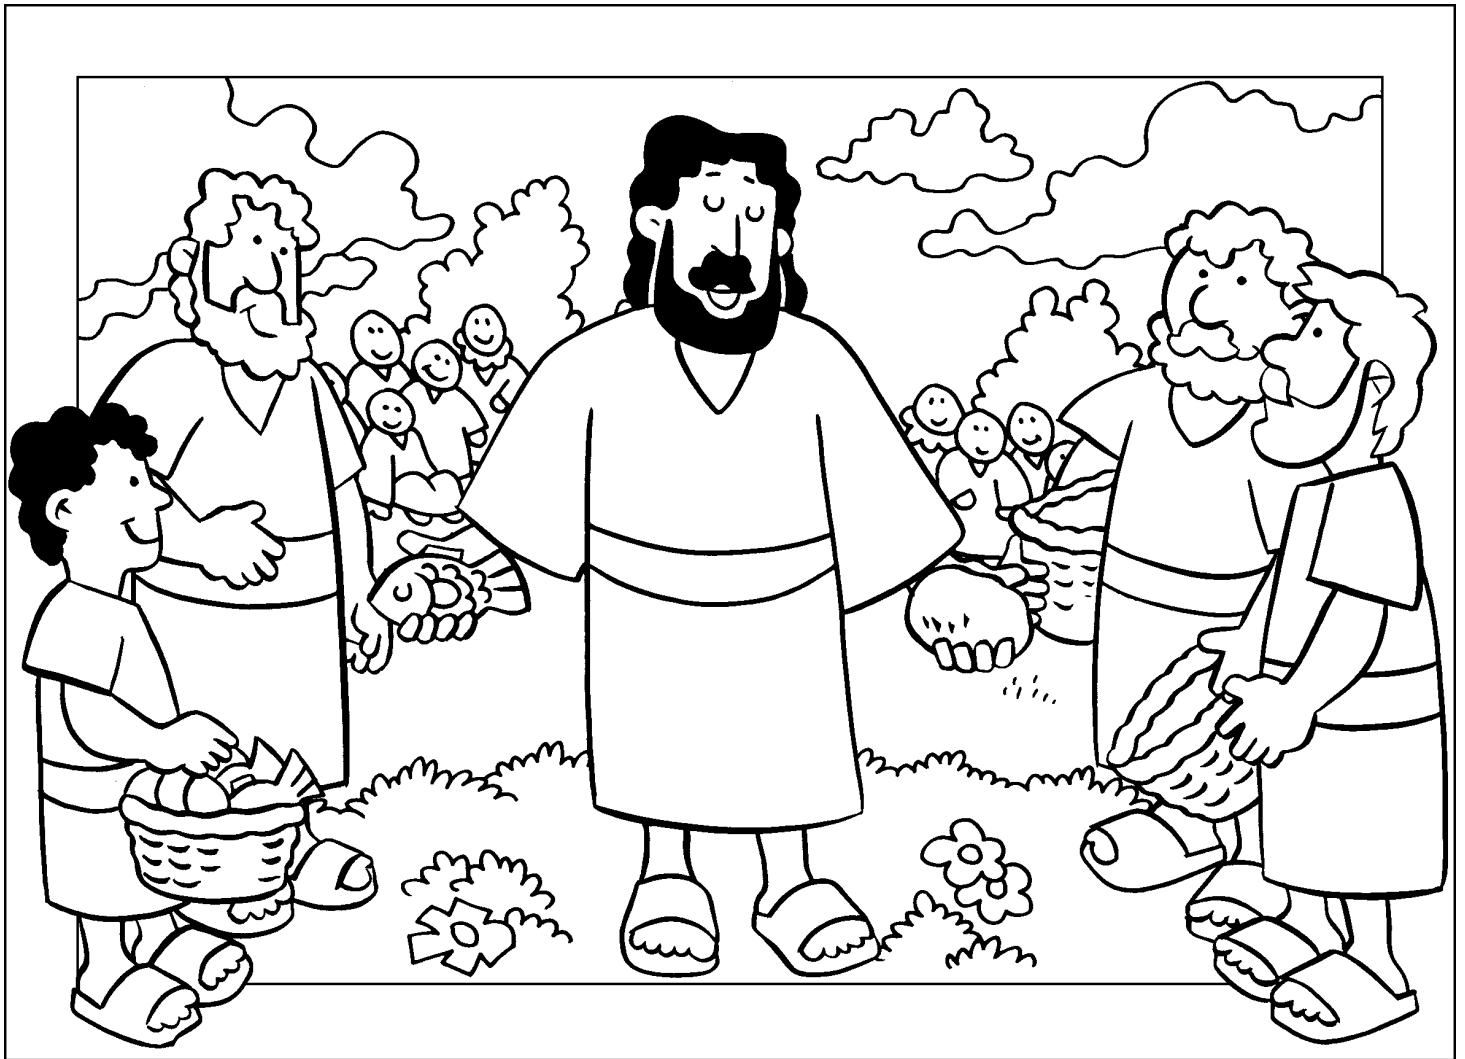

Jesus noticed a great crowd approaching, and He said to Philip, Where can we buy bread for all these people? And this He said to test him: for He himself knew what He would do. Philip said, Two hundred silver coins of bread are not sufficient for every one of them to take a little.

One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Him, There is a boy here who has five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what will this do for so many? And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

And Jesus took the loaves; and after He had given thanks, He distributed it to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were sitting; He also did that with the fish, and everyone ate all they wanted. After they had eaten, Jesus said to His disciples, gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above what the people had eaten.

John Chapter 6, verses 1 to 13; also found in Matthew 14:19; Mark 6:35; Luke 9:12

All scriptures are paraphrased from the American King James Version.

Feeding the 5000

After these things Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A great multitude followed Jesus, because they saw His miracles of healing. Jesus went to sit on a hill with His disciples. It was nearly time for the Passover festival.

Jesus noticed a great crowd approaching, and He said to Philip, Where can we buy bread for all these people? And this He said to test him: for He himself knew what He would do. Philip said, Two hundred silver coins of bread are not sufficient for every one of them to take a little.

One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Him, There is a boy here who has five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what will this do for so many? And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

And Jesus took the loaves; and after He had given thanks, He distributed it to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were sitting; He also did that with the fish, and everyone ate all they wanted. After they had eaten, Jesus said to His disciples, gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above what the people had eaten.

John Chapter 6, verses 1 to 13; also found in Matthew 14:19; Mark 6:35; Luke 9:12

All scriptures are paraphrased from the American King James Version.