

Doomed, but Saved by a Princess

After Joseph's father, brothers, and their families settled in Egypt, they lived very happily there, as well as the future generations, who were known as the Hebrews. However, after many generations, during which time the Hebrews grew more numerous, things changed.

A new pharaoh rose to power and feared that the Hebrew's growing numbers gave them too much power. Because of this, the new pharaoh orders a terrible deed to be carried out. He orders that every newly born Hebrew baby boy be killed.

But one baby boy survives. Due to the prayerful intervention of his mother, and though God's miraculous protection, he was saved from the river and taken into the care of pharaoh's own daughter, and in an amazing turn of events was raised in pharaoh's palace. This man, Moses, was God's chosen to help free the Hebrew nation under bondage from Egypt.

Many chapters in the Bible cover the life and journey of Moses as he led the Hebrews through the wilderness into the Promised Land, including the receiving of the Ten Commandments that God wrote into two stones for Moses. You can read the details of the above text about baby Moses in Exodus chapter 1 and in Exodus chapter 2, verses 1 to 10, and about Moses receiving the Ten Commandments in Exodus chapter 31, verse 18.

parts for the frame

part to glue on
the back after attaching a string (see photo
instruction)

Doomed, but Saved by a Princess

After Joseph's father, brothers, and their families settled in Egypt, they lived very happily there, as well as the future generations, who were known as the Hebrews. However, after many generations, during which time the Hebrews grew more numerous, things changed.

A new pharaoh rose to power and feared that the Hebrew's growing numbers gave them too much power. Because of this, the new pharaoh orders a terrible deed to be carried out. He orders that every newly born Hebrew baby boy be killed.

But one baby boy survives. Due to the prayerful intervention of his mother, and though God's miraculous protection, he was saved from the river and taken into the care of pharaoh's own daughter, and in an amazing turn of events was raised in pharaoh's palace. This man, Moses, was God's chosen to help free the Hebrew nation under bondage from Egypt.

Many chapters in the Bible cover the life and journey of Moses as he led the Hebrews through the wilderness into the Promised Land, including the receiving of the Ten Commandments that God wrote into two stones for Moses. You can read the details of the above text about baby Moses in Exodus chapter 1 and in Exodus chapter 2, verses 1 to 10, and about Moses receiving the Ten Commandments in Exodus chapter 31, verse 18.

corners

parts for the frame

part to glue on
the back after
attaching a string
(see photo
instruction)

Doomed, but Saved by a Princess

After Joseph's father, brothers, and their families settled in Egypt, they lived very happily there, as well as the future generations, who were known as the Hebrews. However, after many generations, during which time the Hebrews grew more numerous, things changed.

A new pharaoh rose to power and feared that the Hebrew's growing numbers gave them too much power. Because of this, the new pharaoh orders a terrible deed to be carried out. He orders that every newly born Hebrew baby boy be killed.

But one baby boy survives. Due to the prayerful intervention of his mother, and though God's miraculous protection, he was saved from the river and taken into the care of pharaoh's own daughter, and in an amazing turn of events was raised in pharaoh's palace. This man, Moses, was God's chosen to help free the Hebrew nation under bondage from Egypt.

Many chapters in the Bible cover the life and journey of Moses as he led the Hebrews through the wilderness into the Promised Land, including the receiving of the Ten Commandments that God wrote into two stones for Moses. You can read the details of the above text about baby Moses in Exodus chapter 1 and in Exodus chapter 2, verses 1 to 10, and about Moses receiving the Ten Commandments in Exodus chapter 31, verse 18.

Doomed, but Saved by a Princess

After Joseph's father, brothers, and their families settled in Egypt, they lived very happily there, as well as the future generations, who were known as the Hebrews. However, after many generations, during which time the Hebrews grew more numerous, things changed.

A new pharaoh rose to power and feared that the Hebrew's growing numbers gave them too much power. Because of this, the new pharaoh orders a terrible deed to be carried out. He orders that every newly born Hebrew baby boy be killed.

But one baby boy survives. Due to the prayerful intervention of his mother, and though God's miraculous protection, he was saved from the river and taken into the care of pharaoh's own daughter, and in an amazing turn of events was raised in pharaoh's palace. This man, Moses, was God's chosen to help free the Hebrew nation under bondage from Egypt.

Many chapters in the Bible cover the life and journey of Moses as he led the Hebrews through the wilderness into the Promised Land, including the receiving of the Ten Commandments that God wrote into two stones for Moses. You can read the details of the above text about baby Moses in Exodus chapter 1 and in Exodus chapter 2, verses 1 to 10, and about Moses receiving the Ten Commandments in Exodus chapter 31, verse 18.