

The Prophet Daniel

Many years have passed since the rules of King David and King Solomon, and many wars have been fought over the land of Israel. One day a young prophet, Jeremiah, gave a warning from God that a terrible and powerful enemy was approaching, the Babylonian army.

Not long after, the armies besieged the city of Jerusalem, and within a few months, the city was conquered, the people were taken captive, and the city was burned.

Amongst the captives taken to Babylon was a young man, named Daniel. Daniel never returned to see Jerusalem again, but God has a special plan for his life in Babylon for many years to come. At one point, God used Daniel to interpret King Nebuchadnezzar's dream, foretelling the future of the world. Daniel also received from God amazing visions of events to come.

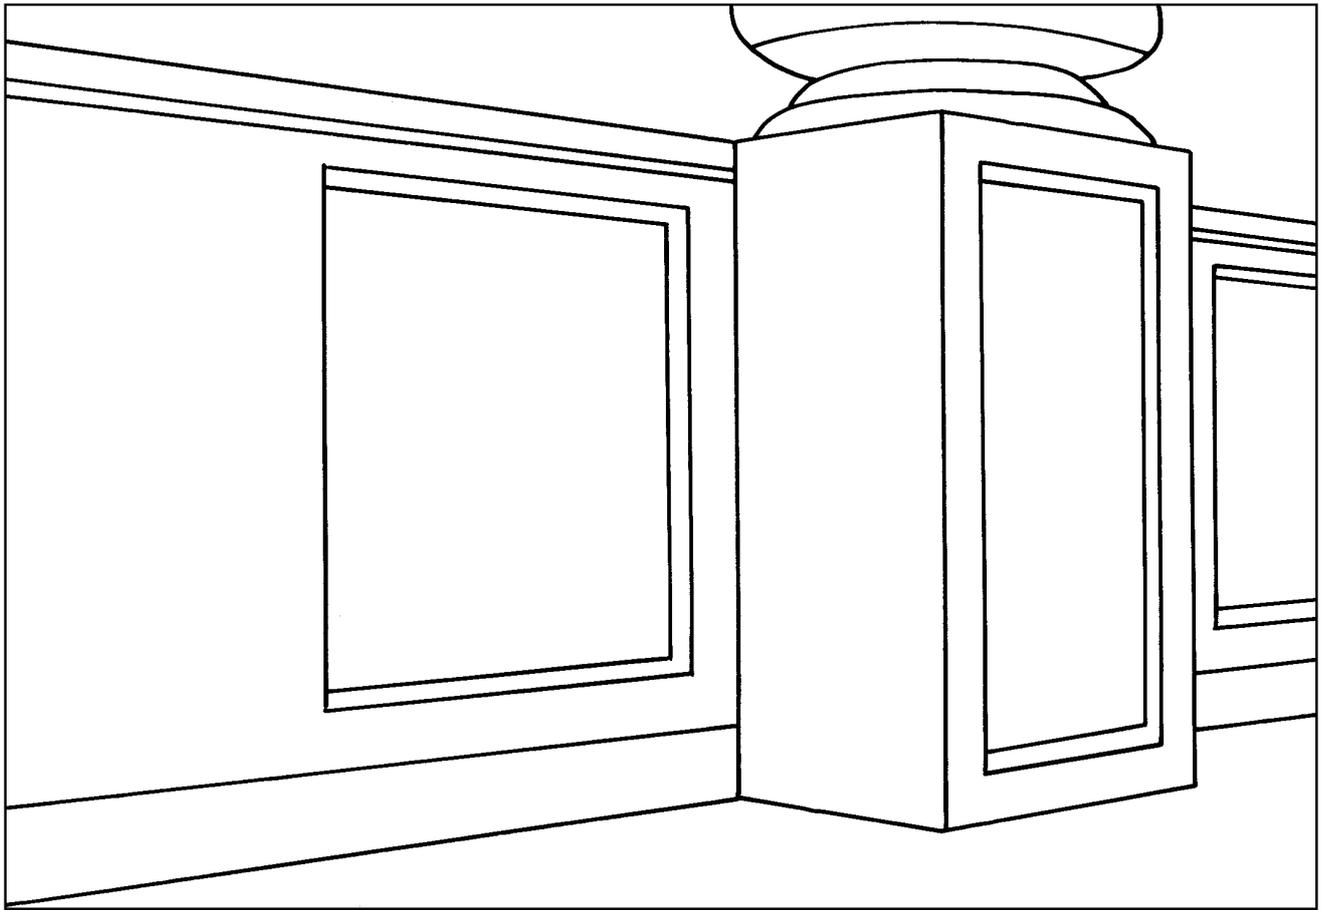

You can read about these events as well as the vision of king Nebuchadnezzar in Daniel chapters 1 through 2.
