

The runaway prophet

Long ago in the land of Israel, God called one of His prophets, Jonah, to go to Nineveh. Jonah was to deliver a message to this powerful city warning them that God was very displeased with their wickedness. But instead of going to Nineveh, Jonah got onto a ship and sailed away in the opposite direction.

God didn't allow Jonah to disobey so easily and soon a terrible storm arose. Terrified, the sailors prayed to their gods and threw the cargo overboard to lighten the ship, but to no avail.

Meanwhile, Jonah was found sleeping, and the sailors decided that their problem had something to do with him. After admitting his disobedience, Jonah told them that they should throw him overboard and that God would then stop the storm. Once Jonah was off the ship, the storm ceased, but not all was well for poor Jonah. God sent a big fish to swallow him ...
