Heroes of Faith - John the Baptist

Heroes of Faith - John the Baptist

John's birth was miraculous; he was born of elderly parents who previously had not been able to have children. (Luke 1:7.) God spoke through John's father, Zachariah, explaining that John would be a great prophet who would help bring back the people to God and prepare them for the coming of the Messiah. (Luke 1:67-80; John 1:6-8.)

John believed God and fulfilled his calling until his death. He lived a very simple life, wore clothes made of camel's hair, and ate a simple diet of locusts and wild honey. (Matthew 3:4.) People wondered if John was the Messiah, but he remind them that he was only a messenger preparing the way for the coming Messiah. "He is coming after me, but I am not good enough even to untie his sandals." (John 1:19-28; John 3:28-30.)

However, Jesus, when talking to the people about John, said: "I assure you that no one who has ever lived has been greater than John the Baptist." (Matthew 11:7-15.)
