Feeding the multitudes

Jesus went to sit on the hill by the sea of Galilee with His disciples, and a great many others followed Him.

That evening, the disciples said to Jesus, "Send the people away so that they can go to the villages to buy food."

"They don't need to go," Jesus replied. "Give them something to eat." "Are we supposed to go and buy enough bread to feed everybody?" Philip asked.

Jesus asked them, "How many loaves do you have?"

"There is a young boy here who has five loaves of bread and two small fish," said Andrew, "but what can we do with so little to feed so many?"

But Jesus said, "Let the people sit down." After He blessed the five loaves of bread and the two small fishes, He gave them to His disciples who then distributed them to the people. They then gathered up the leftovers, enough to fill twelve baskets.

You can read this story in Matthew, chapter 14, verses 14 to 21; Mark, chapter 6, verses 34 to 44; Luke chapter 9, verses 11 to 17; and John chapter 6, verses 1 to 13.
