Heroes of Faith - David

Listed in the Book of Hebrew as one of the heroes of faith, King David is an important figure in the Bible, known for his bravery, leadership, and songs of praise. He was considered one of Israel's greatest kings.

David's hometown was the City of Bethlehem (Luke 2:4). His story begins as a shepherd boy; then he went on to become an adviser to King Saul; and after Saul's death, David was anointed as the new king of Israel. He made many reforms to help his people and made Jerusalem a great city.

Though David was a great king, he was human and made some serious mistakes. But despite his sins, David is described as a man after God's own heart (1 Samuel 13:14, Acts 13:22). David was far from perfect, but his faith and zeal made him the standard against which all of Israel's future kings would be measured.

David was the forefather of the future Hebrew Messiah, Jesus (Acts 13:23).
