Heroes of Faith - Samuel

Heroes of Faith – Samuel

Samuel was dedicated to God by his mother, Hannah, as part of a vow she made to God before he was born. (1 Samuel 1:1–20.)

As a boy, Samuel helped the priest, Eli, in the tabernacle. One night the Lord called Samuel, who at first believed it was Eli calling him during the night. Three times the Lord called Samuel, and after the third call, Eli understood what was happening and instructed Samuel to respond to the Lord if he called again. Samuel did, and he took his first leap of faith by telling Eli everything God had instructed him to tell Eli.

Samuel's credibility as a prophet spread throughout Israel, and God continued to reveal His messages to His people through Samuel. (1 Samuel 3.)

The life of Samuel was pivotal in Israel's history. As a prophet, he anointed the first two kings of Israel, Saul and young David; and he was the last in the line of Israel's judges, considered by many as the greatest judge. (Acts 13:20, Psalm 99:6)
