Heroes of Faith - Samson

Heroes of Faith – Samson

Samson’s life is one of contradiction. He was a man of great physical strength who also displayed great moral weakness. He was “a Nazarite, set apart to God from birth” (Judges 13:5), yet he continually broke the rules of a Nazarite.

The Spirit of God came upon him many times, giving him great strength to fight the Philistines, who were seriously oppressing the Israelites.

Despite his weaknesses, Samson was also a man of faith—he is mentioned in the Bible’s “Hall of Faith” (Hebrews 11:32). Samson is one of the judges who ruled over Israel for twenty years before the time of the kings.

The book of Judges takes place after Israel had fled Egypt, wandered in the desert, and finally took possession of the Promised Land. This time in Israel’s history was unique; they had no king. God raises up judges who would help care for them.

You can read the story of Samson in Judges Chapters 13 through 16.
