“If you can!”

One time Jesus saw his disciples with a large crowd around them and some teachers of the law arguing with them. Jesus asked, “What is the argument about?”

A man approached Jesus, “I brought my son to you because he has a bad spirit in him that causes him to have violent fits and he cannot talk. But your disciples couldn’t heal him.”

“How long has he been like this?” asked Jesus. “Ever since he was a child” replied the father. “Have pity on us and help us, if you can!” “Yes,” said Jesus.

“You said, ‘If you can.’” “Believe! Everything is possible for the person who has faith.”

The father cried out, “I do have faith, but not enough. Help me have more!”

So Jesus ordered the bad spirit to leave the boy and never come back to him again.

Paraphrased from Mark chapter 9, verses 14 to 29.
