Serve one another

On the day before the Passover Festival, on his last days on earth, Jesus and his disciples were at supper.

Jesus rose from the table, took off his outer garment, and tied a towel around his waist. Then he poured some water into a washbasin and began to wash the disciples' feet and dry them with the towel around his waist.

He came to Simon Peter who said to him "Lord are you going to wash my feet?" he was very embarrassed.

When Jesus had finished, he told them "if I, your Lord and teacher, have just washed your feet, then you should wash one another's feet. I have set an example for you. Now that you know this truth, how happy you will be if you put it into practice!" (Serving one another with humility.)

Paraphrased from John chapter 13, verses 1 to 17. Read also in Matthew chapter 23, verse 23, and Hosea chapter 6, verse 6.
