

Jobs in the Bible – Priest

In the Old Testament, the priest was a servant of God who worked in the Meeting Tent (the Tabernacle) or the Temple. A priest helped the people offer their gifts and sacrifices to God. (Leviticus 21:6.)

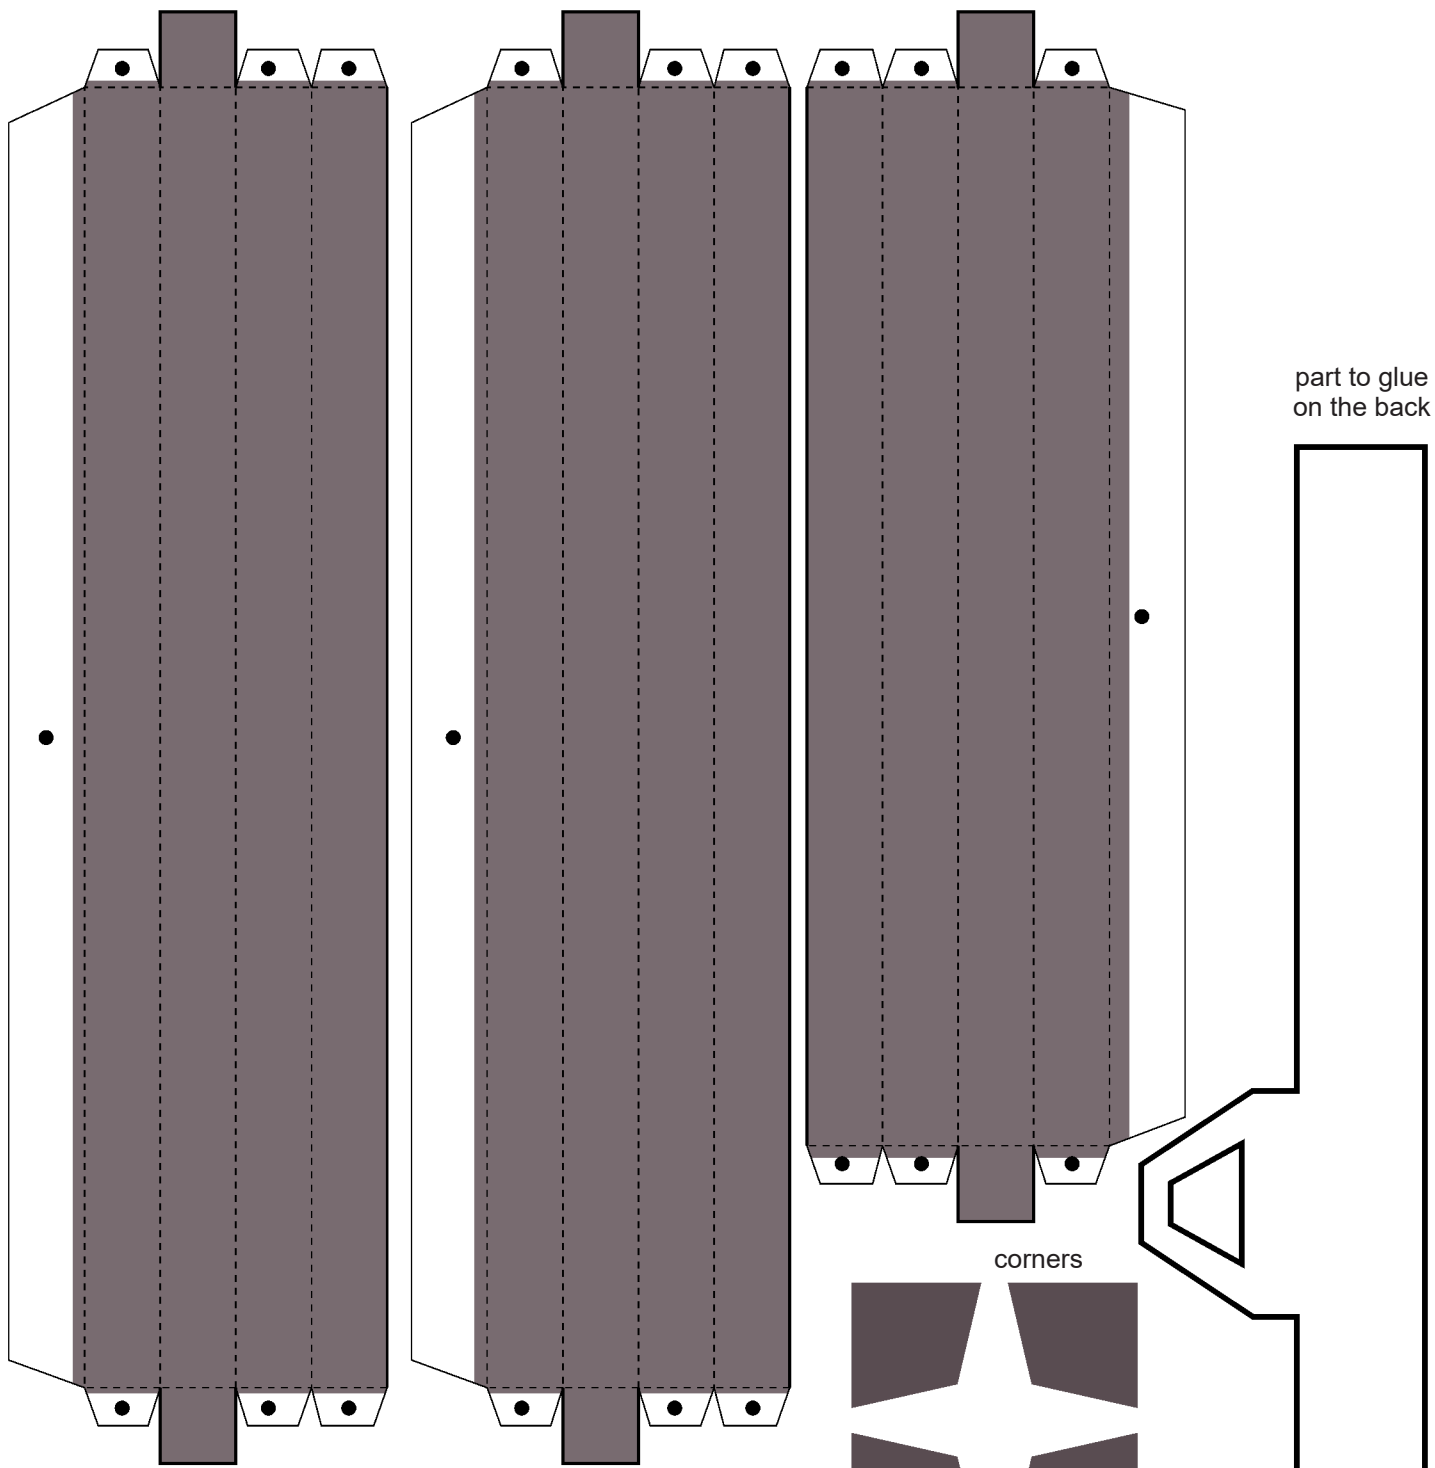

The high priest was the main spiritual leader of the Jewish people; he was often as important as a king. One of the important duties of the high priest was to conduct the service on the Day of Atonement, or Yom Kippur, the holiest day on the Jewish calendar, allowing the people to be reconciled with God.

Aaron, the older brother of Moses, was the first high priest (Exodus 28:1).

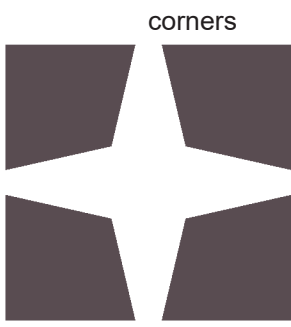

Jesus, the Son of God, is our High Priest. He never sinned, and yet because he lived as a human on earth, he can relate to our needs, desires, and weaknesses and is able to help us. (Hebrews 4:14–16.)
