

Noah and the Ark

The descendants of Adam and Eve multiplied and lived in many areas of the world. Sadly many turned away from obeying God and did many wrong and violent deeds.

This evil than man did against each other made God very sad, and He decided to punish the evil doers. Thankfully, one man did good and loved God, which God was very thankful for. His name was Noah.

God asked Noah to build a big boat and for him and his wife, his three sons and their wife's, and many animals to board the boat. God told also Noah to store enough food to last for many days as a great flood of water was about to cover the earth.

It took Noah many, many years of work to prepare and plan the construction of this very large boat, known as the Ark. He had a big job to get it ready before the flood came.

You can read this story and what happened to Noah and his family in Genesis chapters 6, 7 and 8
