

Jesus Calls His First Disciples

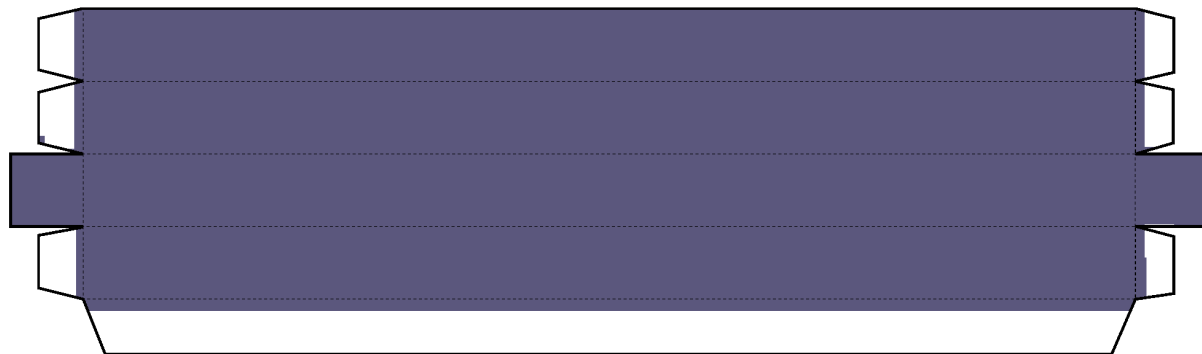

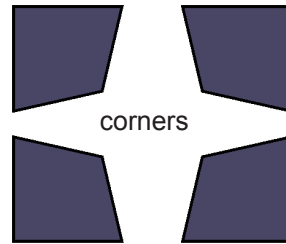

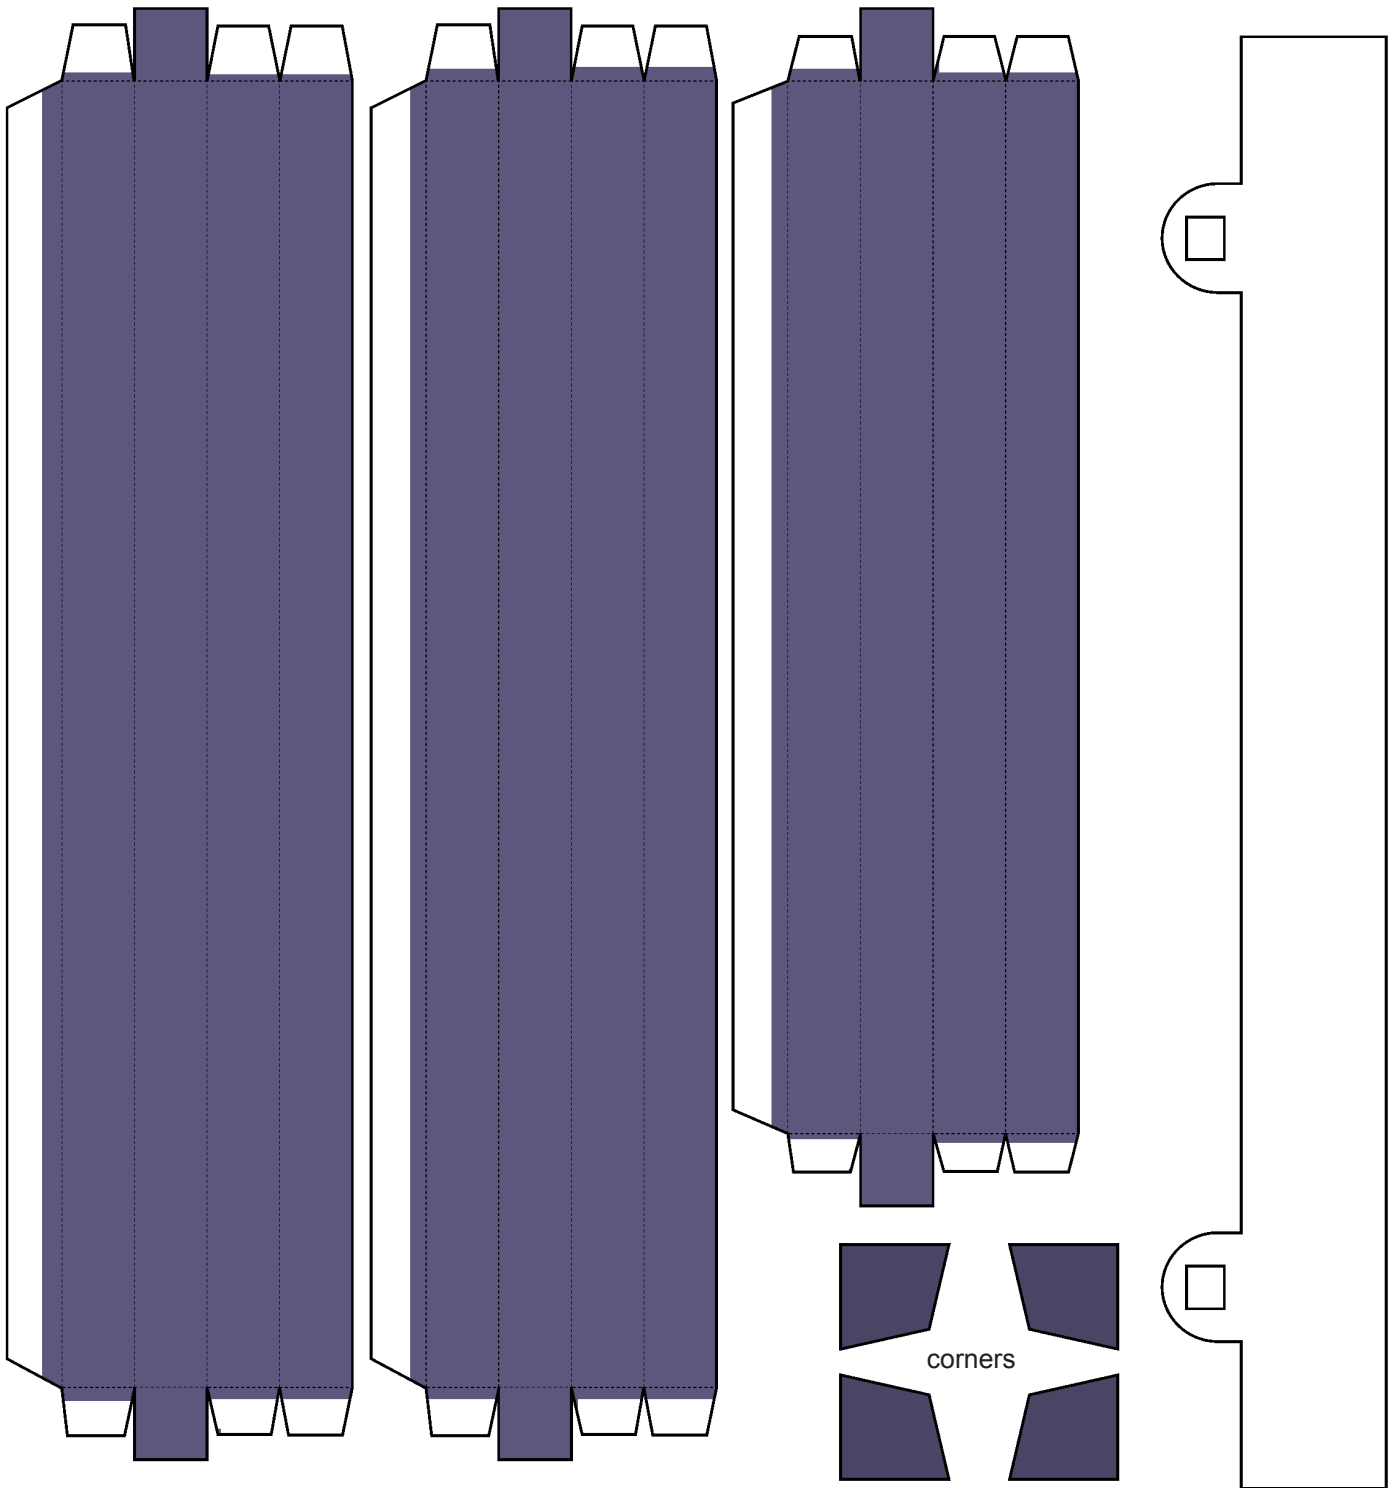

Did you know that the first four disciples Jesus chose to follow Him were simple fishermen?

One day while walking by the Sea of Galilee, Jesus saw Simon (whom Jesus later called Peter) and Andrew his brother casting a net into the water. Jesus called out to them, “Come and follow Me and be My disciples.” And they left everything to follow Jesus.

A little farther on, Jesus passed two brothers, James and John, who were mending their nets. He also called them to be His disciples, and they too followed Him.

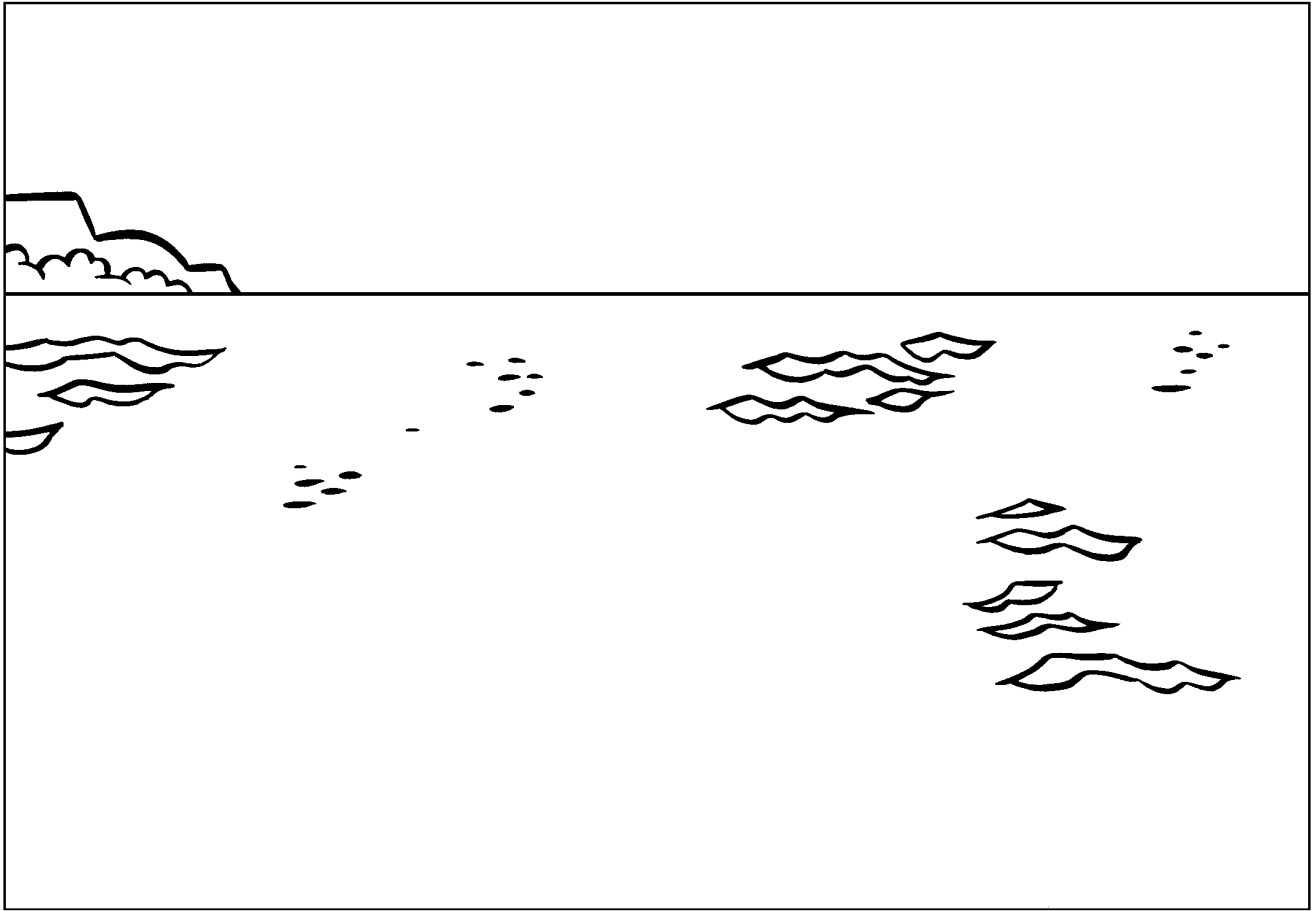

You can read the stories in Mark 1:16–20 and Mark 3:14–19.

parts for the frame

part to glue on the back after attaching a string (see photo
instruction)

Jesus Calls His First Disciples

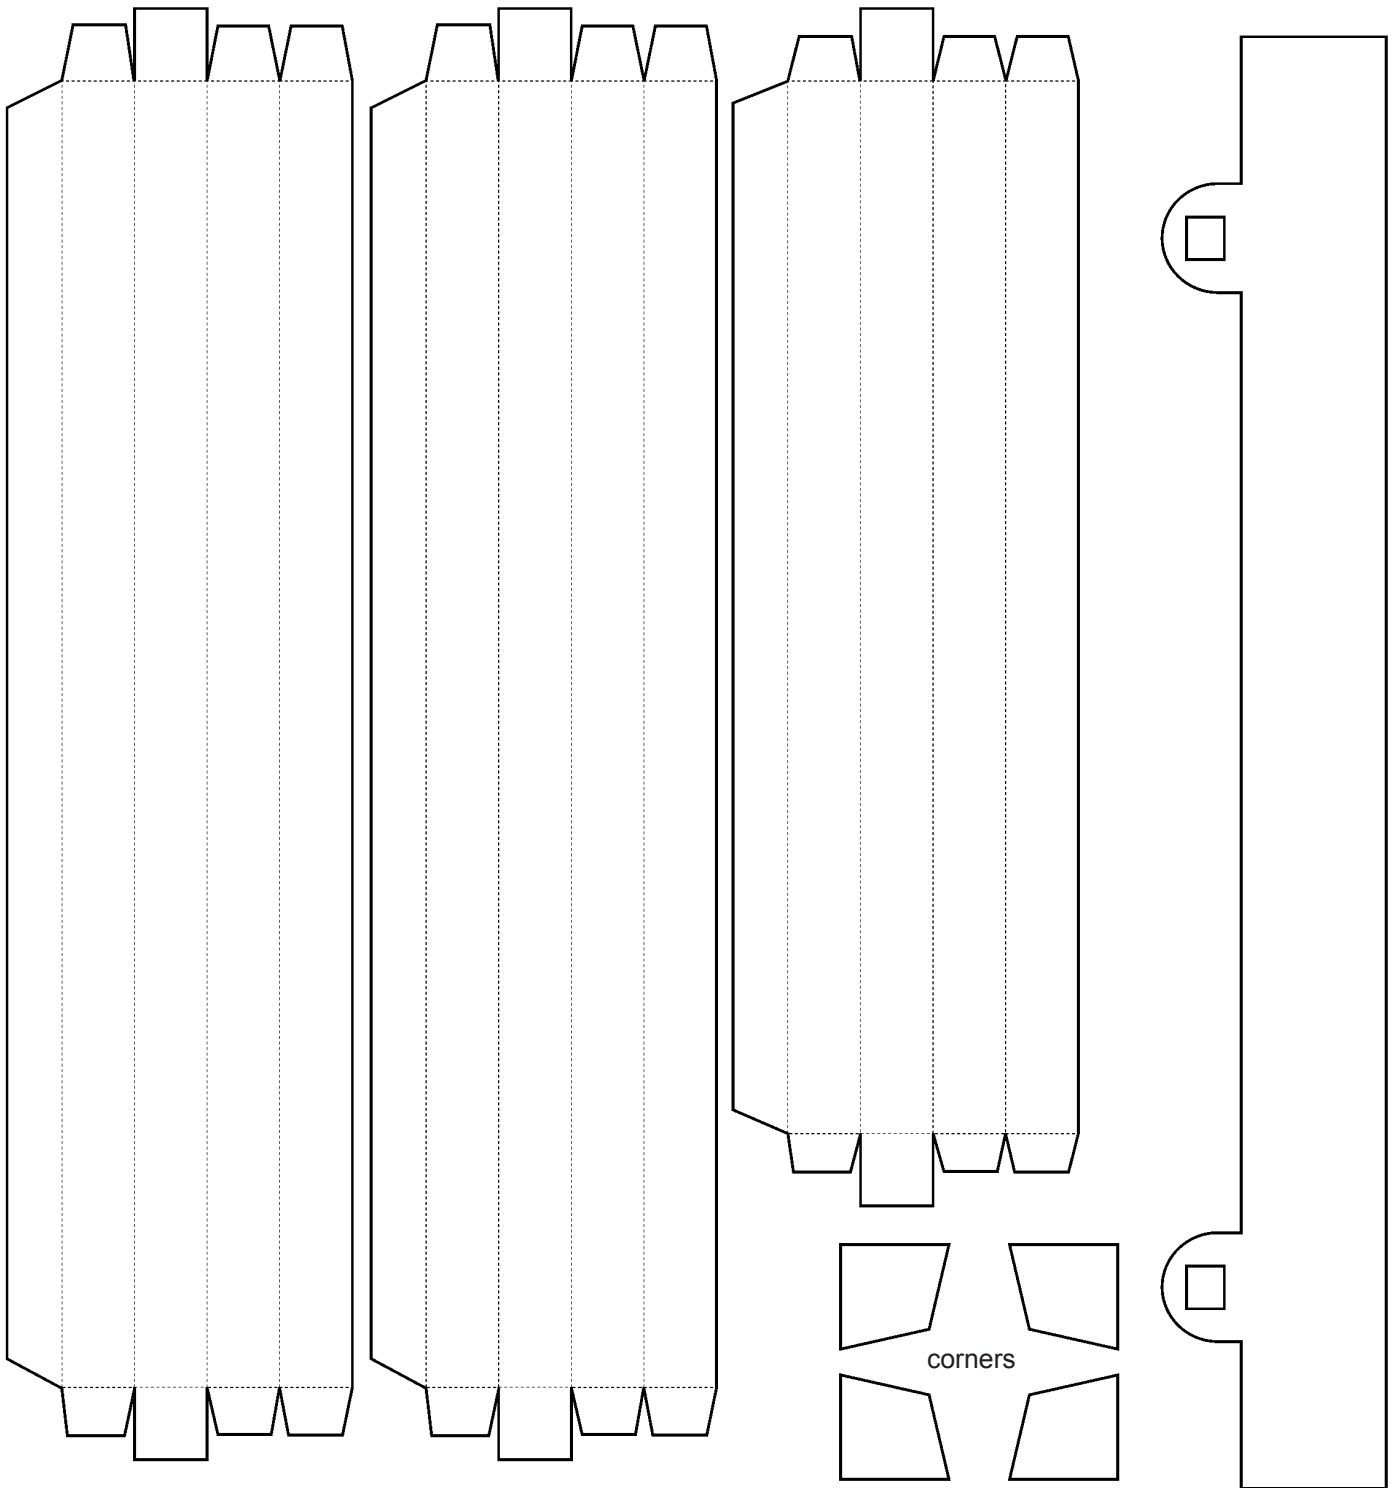

Did you know that the first four disciples Jesus chose to follow Him were simple fishermen?

One day while walking by the Sea of Galilee, Jesus saw Simon (whom Jesus later called Peter) and Andrew his brother casting a net into the water. Jesus called out to them, “Come and follow Me and be My disciples.” And they left everything to follow Jesus.

A little farther on, Jesus passed two brothers, James and John, who were mending their nets. He also called them to be His disciples, and they too followed Him.

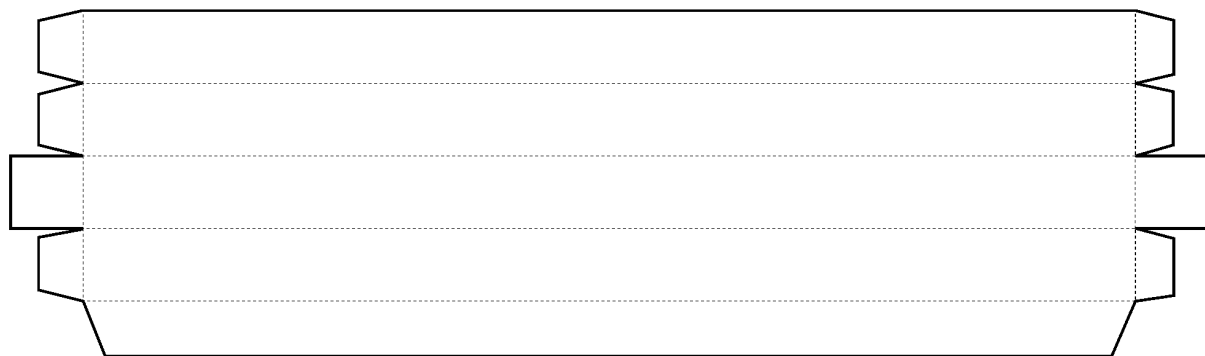

You can read the stories in Mark 1:16–20 and Mark 3:14–19.

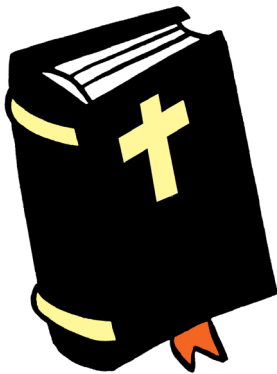

corners

part to glue on the back after attaching a string (see photo
instruction)

parts for the frame

Jesus Calls His First Disciples

Did you know that the first four disciples Jesus chose to follow Him were simple fishermen?

One day while walking by the Sea of Galilee, Jesus saw Simon (whom Jesus later called Peter) and Andrew his brother casting a net into the water. Jesus called out to them, “Come and follow Me and be My disciples.” And they left everything to follow Jesus.

A little farther on, Jesus passed two brothers, James and John, who were mending their nets. He also called them to be His disciples, and they too followed Him.

You can read the stories in Mark 1:16–20 and Mark 3:14–19.

Jesus Calls His First Disciples

Did you know that the first four disciples Jesus chose to follow Him were simple fishermen?

One day while walking by the Sea of Galilee, Jesus saw Simon (whom Jesus later called Peter) and Andrew his brother casting a net into the water. Jesus called out to them, "Come and follow Me and be My disciples." And they left everything to follow Jesus.

A little farther on, Jesus passed two brothers, James and John, who were mending their nets. He also called them to be His disciples, and they too followed Him.

You can read the stories in Mark 1:16–20 and Mark 3:14–19.