

Opening of Prison Doors and a Jailor's Heart

On a missionary journey, Paul and Silas travelled to Macedonia. While preaching there, a slave woman who was a fortune teller followed them everywhere they went, while shouting about them being servants of God.

Paul, disturbed by her continual shouting, commanded the evil spirit to come out of her, and she was instantly freed of the spirit. However, when her masters found out, they were angry because they could no longer make money by using her to tell fortunes.

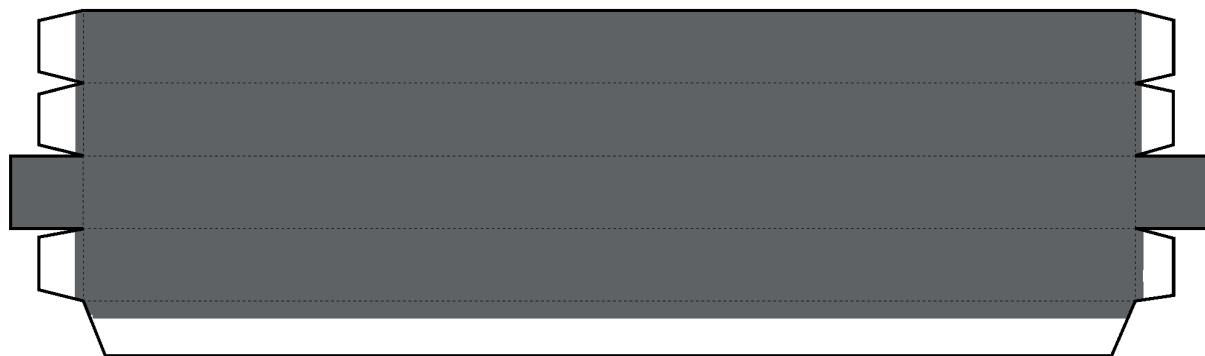

The woman's master grabbed Paul and Silas and took them to the magistrate, where they were accused of disturbing the peace of the city. The magistrate found Paul and Silas guilty and had them thrown into jail.

But though in jail, Paul and Silas continued to trust God and were singing hymns and songs of praise. Suddenly, an earthquake shook the prison and their chains fell off and the prison doors were opened.

The prison guard was very frightened and thought all the prisoners had escape, but Paul comforted him that they were still there, and then prayed for the guard, who believed and was saved and all his family.

What another wonderful miracle of God's protection and help. Do read this amazing story in Acts chapter 16.
