

Peace in the midst of the storm

Shortly after his meeting with King Agrippa, under the care of a Roman centurion named Julius, Paul embarked on a journey to Rome along with several other prisoners.

It was a long and dangerous journey. At one time during the journey, a violent wind blew so strong that for several days they didn't see the sun or the stars. All the men were losing hope of surviving this storm, when Paul stood amongst them and said:

“Be of good courage! An angel of the Lord appeared to me and said that no life will be lost. Let's eat and get our strength back.”

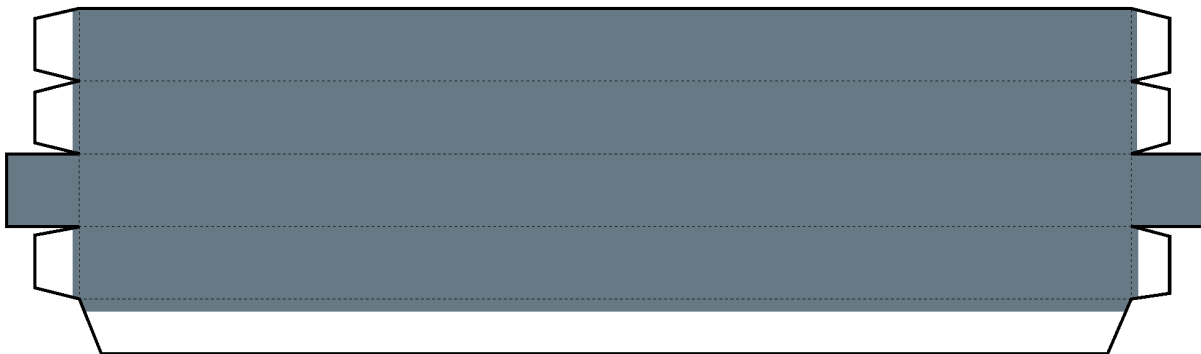

And sure enough, though the boat suffered extensive damage, all crew and passengers were able to safely reach an island. Not one life was lost!
