

Naaman and the slave girl

Naaman was an important officer in the Syrian army. He was a great soldier, but he suffered from a serious skin disease. A young servant girl who was serving in Naaman's house said to her mistress: "My master should visit the prophet who lives in Samaria. The prophet could cure my master of his disease."

So Naaman went with his horses and chariot and stopped at the entrance to the house of the prophet Elisha. Elisha sent a servant to tell Naaman to wash himself seven times in the Jordan River.

At first Naaman was humiliated to be asked to do such a simple act. However, the servant told him, "Sir, if the prophet had told you to do something difficult, you would have done it. Now why can't you just wash yourself, as he said, and be cured?"

And so Naaman did and was completely cured.
