

Apostle Paul nephew

While Paul was in prison in Jerusalem, the religious leaders were so angry that they wanted him killed. More than forty men assembled themselves and made a vow that they would not eat or drink until they had killed Paul. They devised a plan to trick the Roman commander to bring Paul from prison to the Jewish council, so they could kill him on the way.

But a lad, Paul's nephew, overheard a conversation about these plans. He right away went to see Paul to tell him of the plot. Paul then sent his nephew to tell the Roman commander, who believed the lad. The commander called for a strong escort of two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen to transport Paul to another city in the middle of the night.

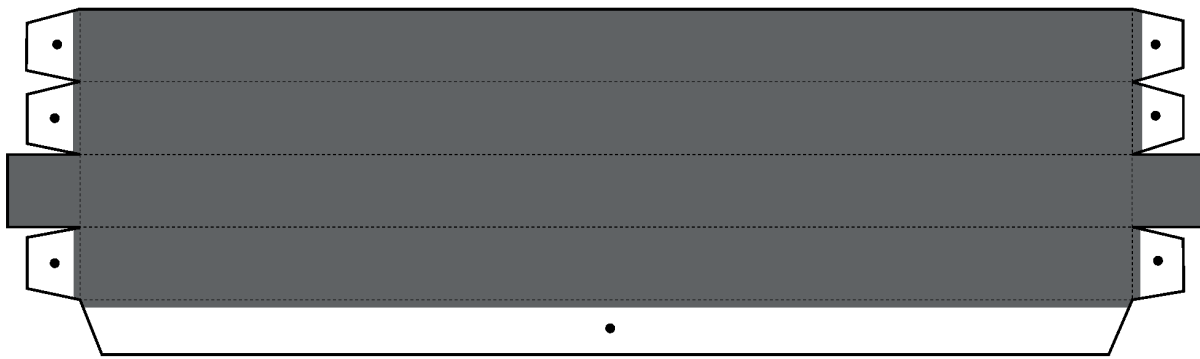

Paul was safe due to the courage of his nephew!

You can read this story in Acts chapter 23, verses 10 to 24.

part to glue
on the back

parts for the frame

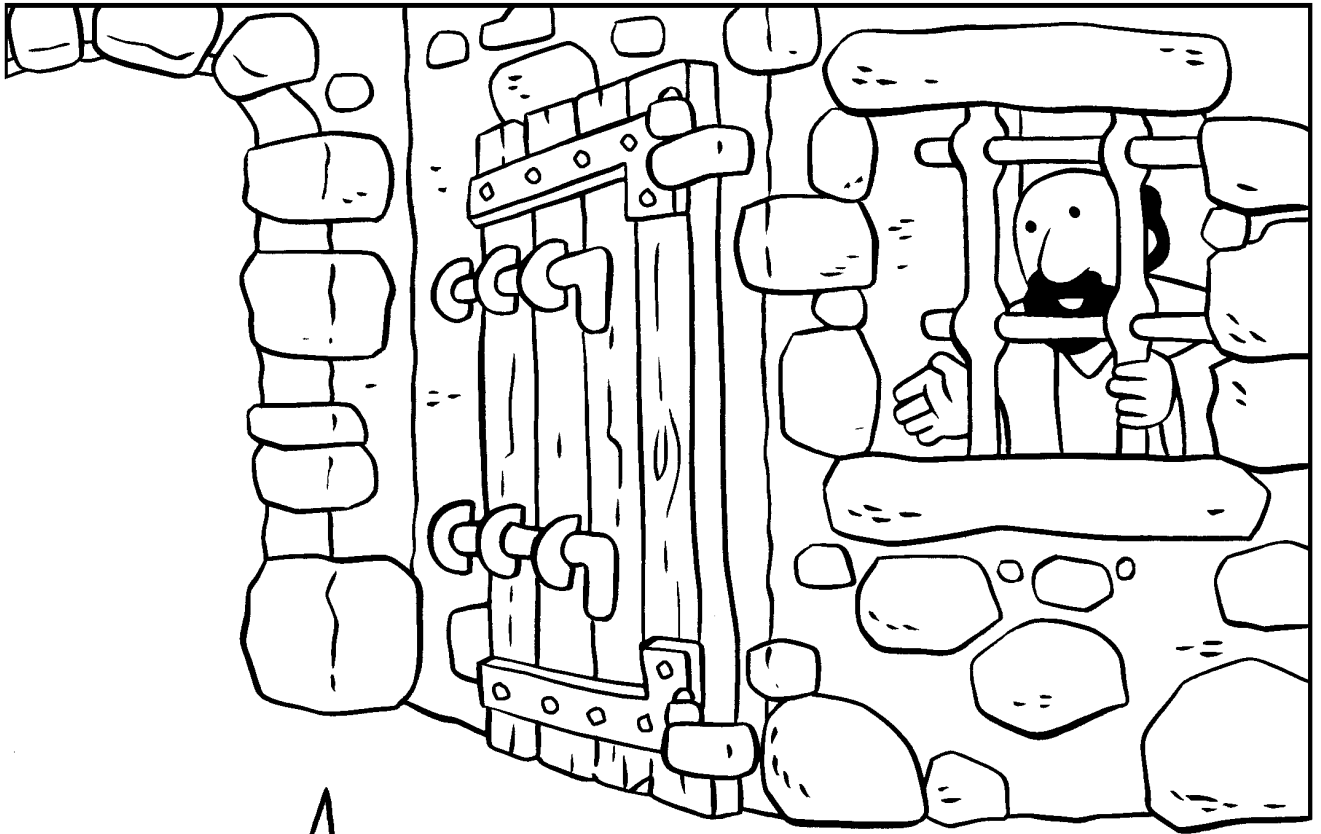

Apostle Paul nephew

While Paul was in prison in Jerusalem, the religious leaders were so angry that they wanted him killed. More than forty men assembled themselves and made a vow that they would not eat or drink until they had killed Paul. They devised a plan to trick the Roman commander to bring Paul from prison to the Jewish council, so they could kill him on the way.

But a lad, Paul's nephew, overheard a conversation about these plans. He right away went to see Paul to tell him of the plot. Paul then sent his nephew to tell the Roman commander, who believed the lad. The commander called for a strong escort of two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen to transport Paul to another city in the middle of the night.

Paul was safe due to the courage of his nephew!

You can read this story in Acts chapter 23, verses 10 to 24.

part to glue
on the back

parts for the frame

Apostle Paul nephew

While Paul was in prison in Jerusalem, the religious leaders were so angry that they wanted him killed. More than forty men assembled themselves and made a vow that they would not eat or drink until they had killed Paul. They devised a plan to trick the Roman commander to bring Paul from prison to the Jewish council, so they could kill him on the way.

But a lad, Paul's nephew, overheard a conversation about these plans. He right away went to see Paul to tell him of the plot. Paul then sent his nephew to tell the Roman commander, who believed the lad. The commander called for a strong escort of two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen to transport Paul to another city in the middle of the night.

Paul was safe due to the courage of his nephew!

You can read this story in Acts chapter 23, verses 10 to 24.

Apostle Paul nephew

While Paul was in prison in Jerusalem, the religious leaders were so angry that they wanted him killed. More than forty men assembled themselves and made a vow that they would not eat or drink until they had killed Paul. They devised a plan to trick the Roman commander to bring Paul from prison to the Jewish council, so they could kill him on the way.

But a lad, Paul's nephew, overheard a conversation about these plans. He right away went to see Paul to tell him of the plot. Paul then sent his nephew to tell the Roman commander, who believed the lad. The commander called for a strong escort of two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen to transport Paul to another city in the middle of the night.

Paul was safe due to the courage of his nephew!

You can read this story in Acts chapter 23, verses 10 to 24.