

The Town of Capernaum

Capernaum, a fishing village, was located on the northwestern shore of the Sea of Galilee. In his Gospel, Matthew refers to Capernaum as the city of Jesus, even though Jesus wasn't born there nor were his parents from there. However, Jesus performed many miracles in this city. Also, He often preached in the synagogue there, a synagogue that had been built by a Roman centurion.

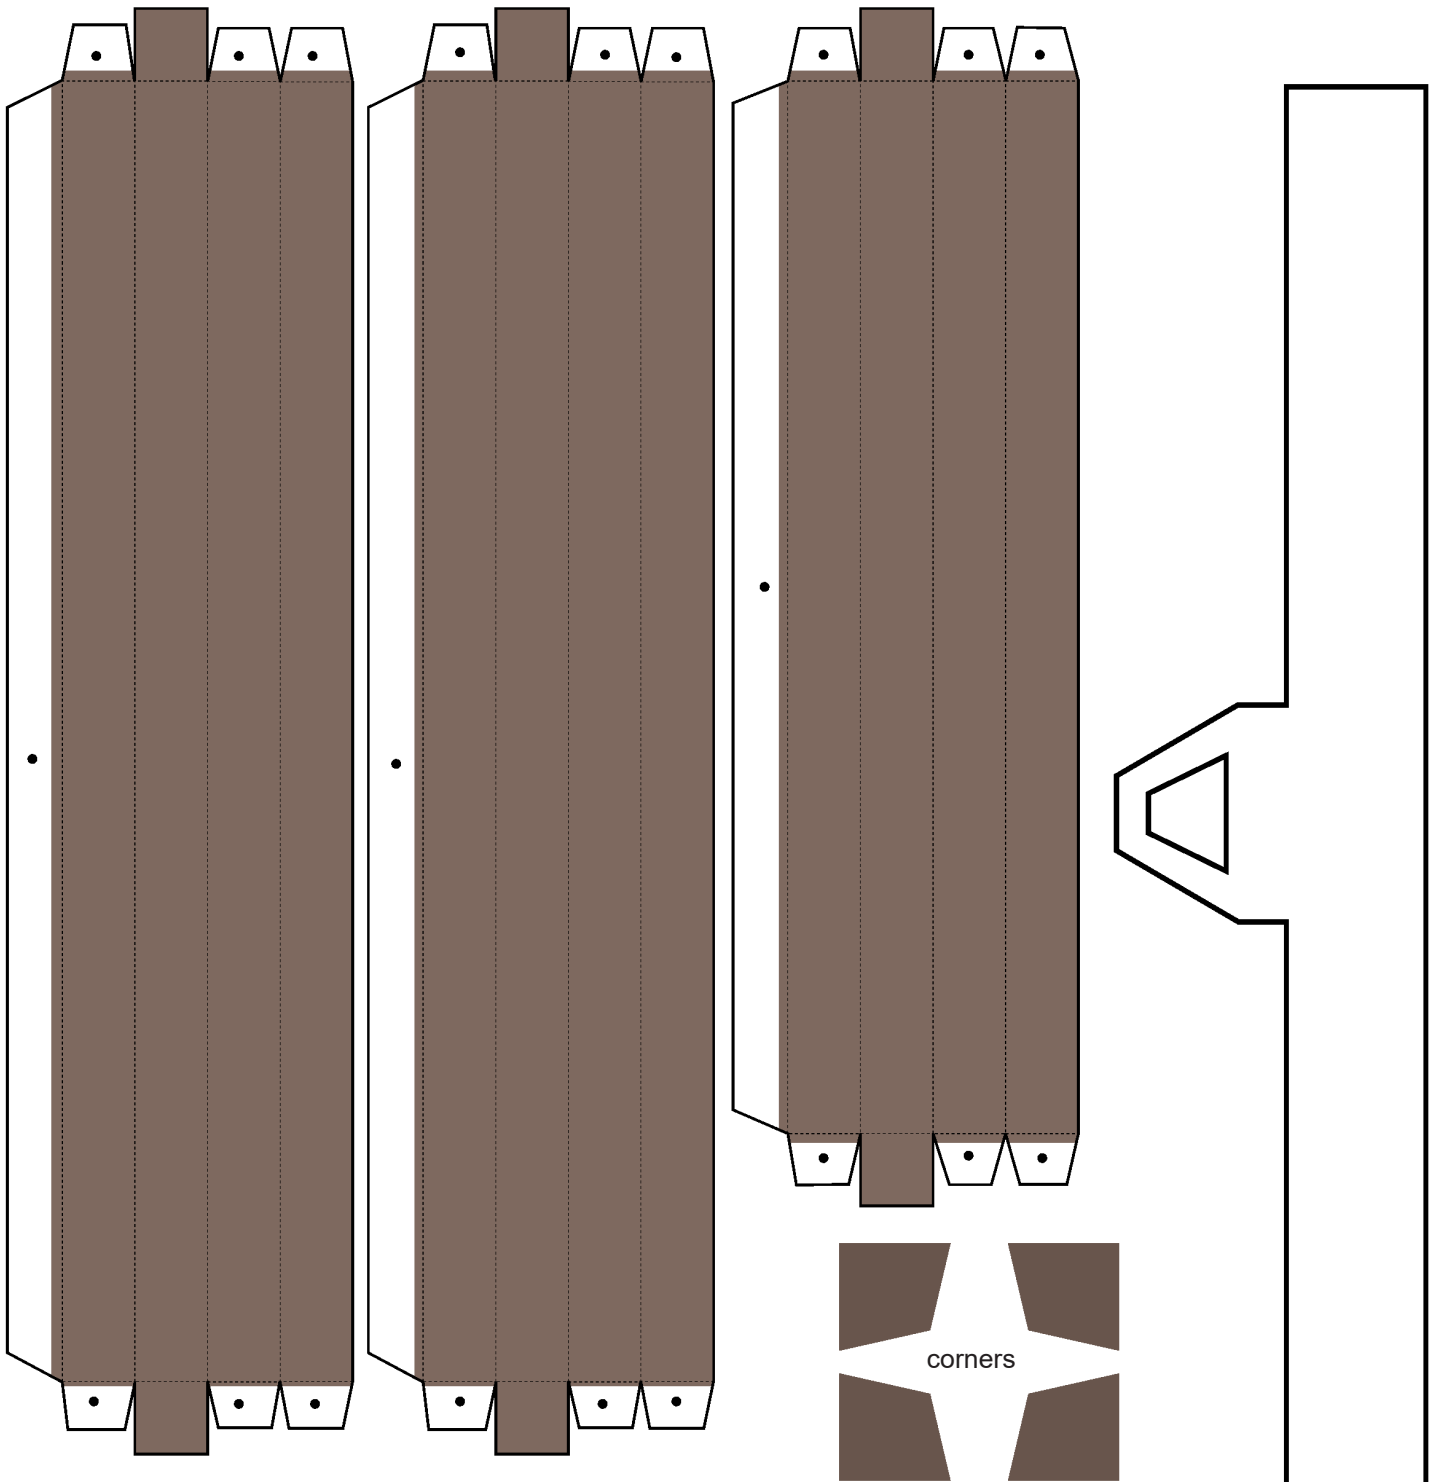

“And he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into His own city.” (From AKJV)

The city is also where Peter's home was. On one occasion, Jesus healed Peter's mother in law shortly after He had spoken in the synagogue of Capernaum. In the area of Capernaum is where Jesus chose several of his Disciples: Peter and his brother Andrew, John and James, and Matthew.

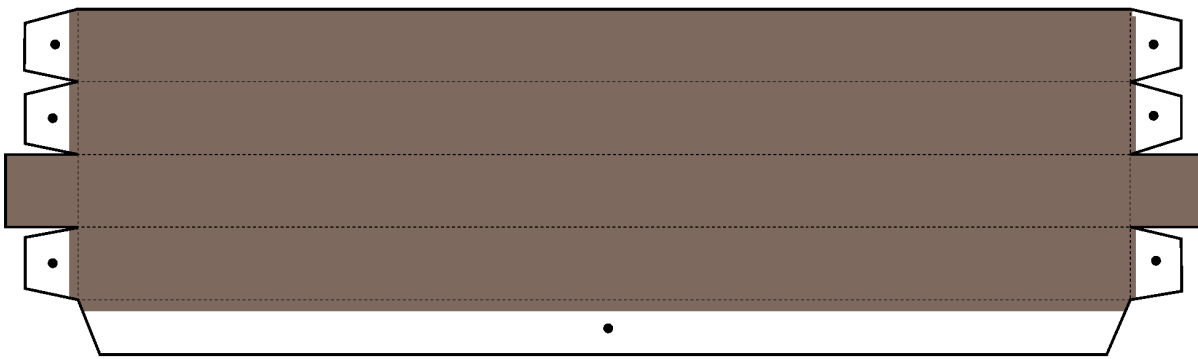

But even though the people of Capernaum had witnessed many miracles done by Jesus, the majority of the people there didn't believe and rejected Him.
