

The Parables of Jesus

The Pharisee and the Publican

One day Jesus told the following parable: “Two men went to the temple to pray, one was a Pharisee, the other was a tax collector.

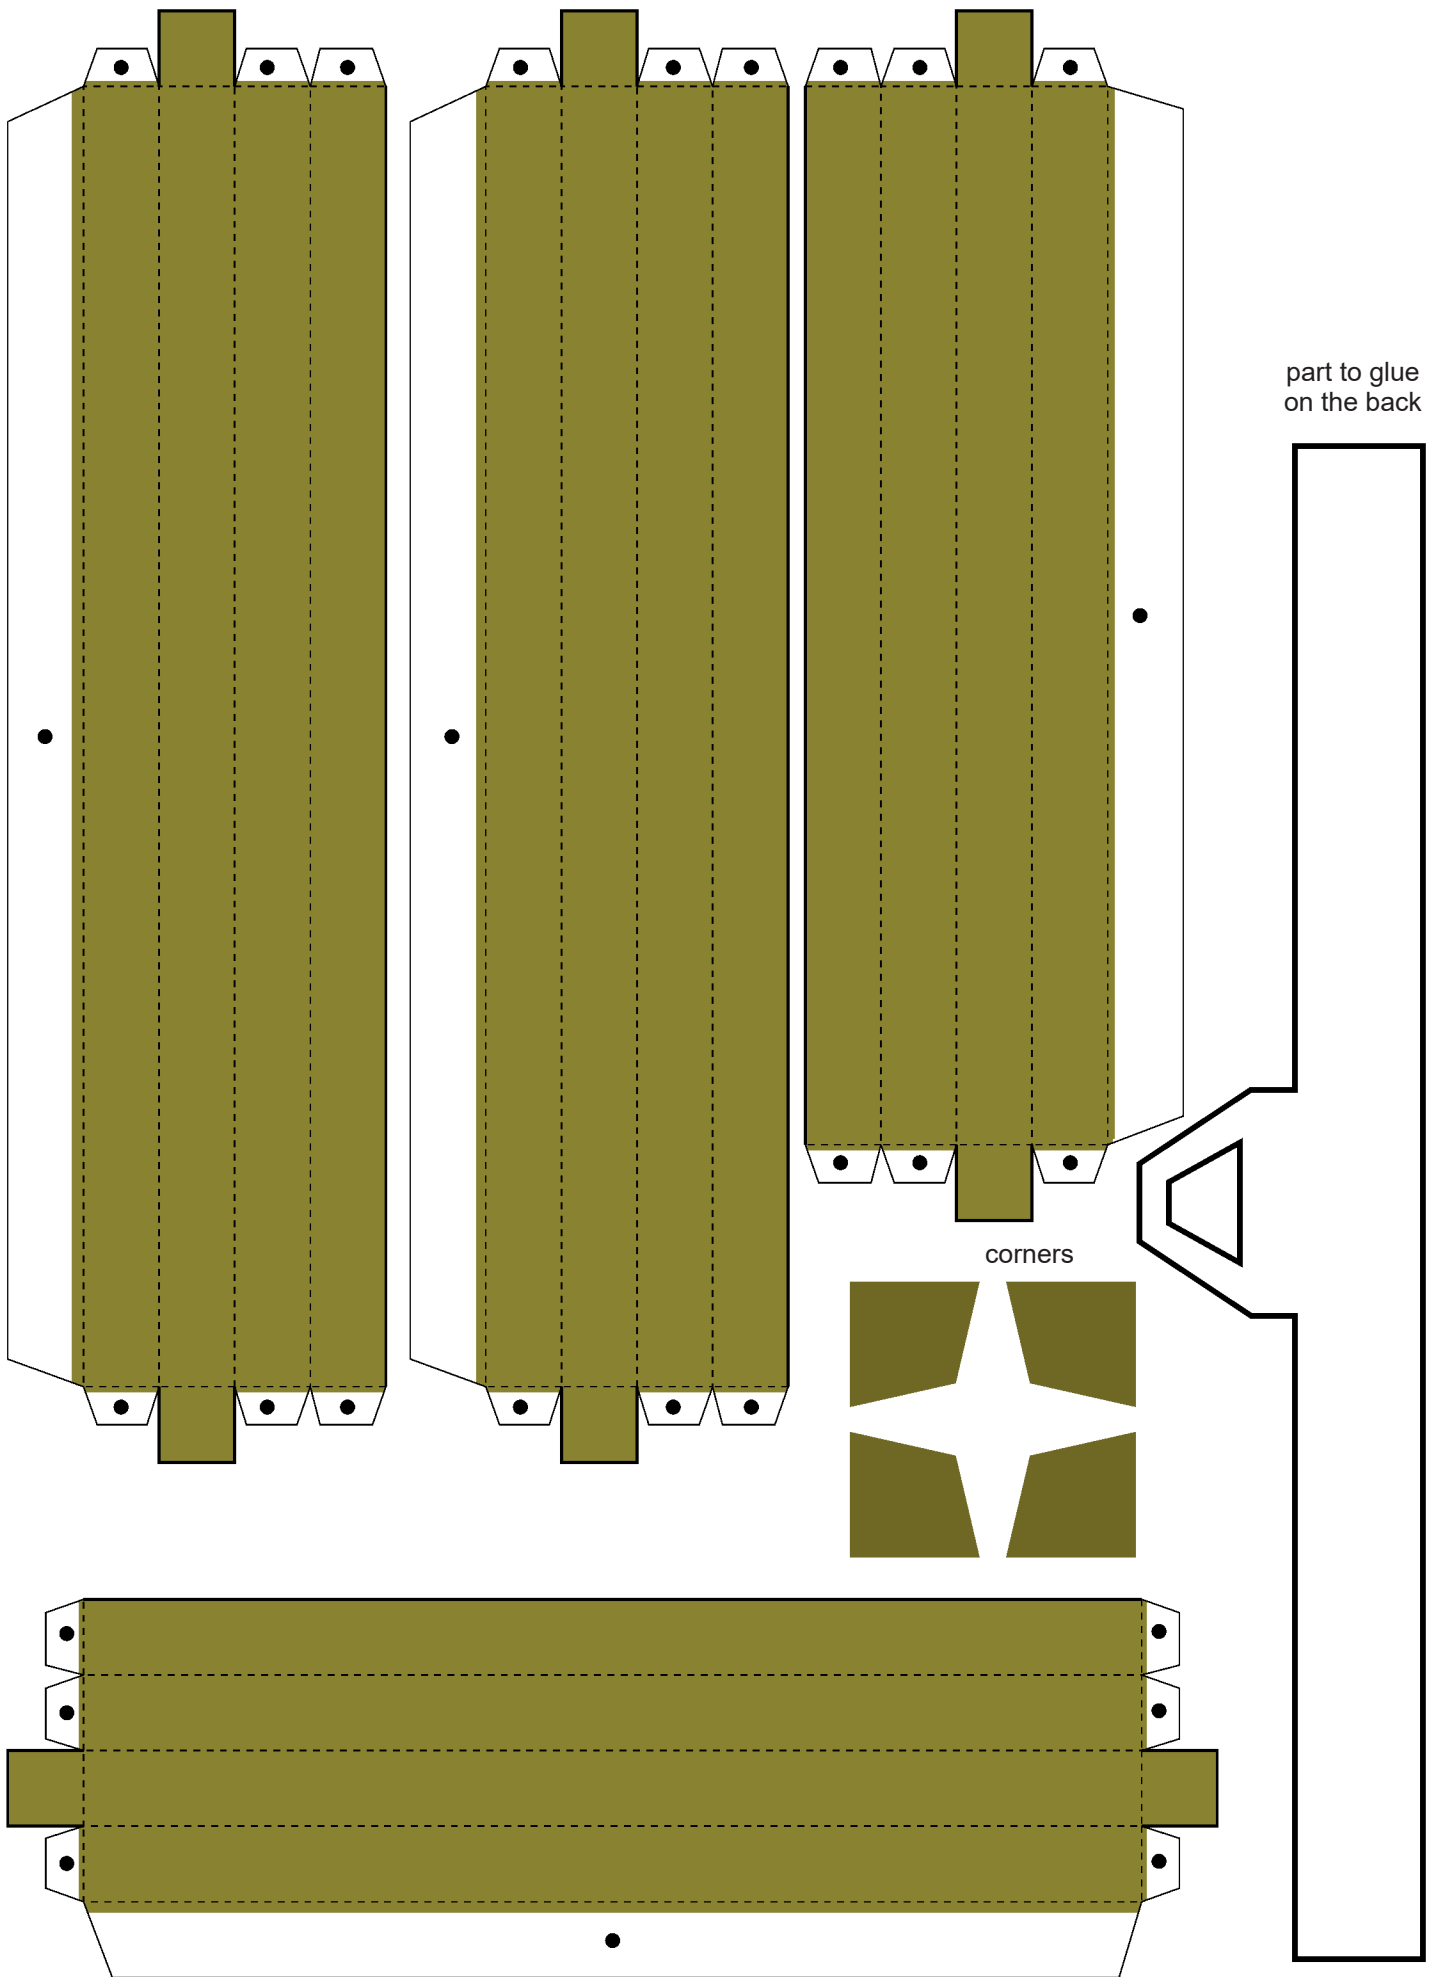

The Pharisee prayed, “I thank You, God, that I am not greedy, dishonest, or a sinful man, like everybody else. I thank you that I am not like that tax collector over there. I am so much more righteous.”

The tax collector stood at a distance and would not even raise his face to heaven, but beat on his breast and said, “God, have pity on me, a sinner!”

Jesus then told the people, “The tax collector, and not the Pharisee, was the one who was right with God when he went home. For those who make themselves great will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be made great.”

You can read this parable in Luke chapter 18, verses 9 to 14.

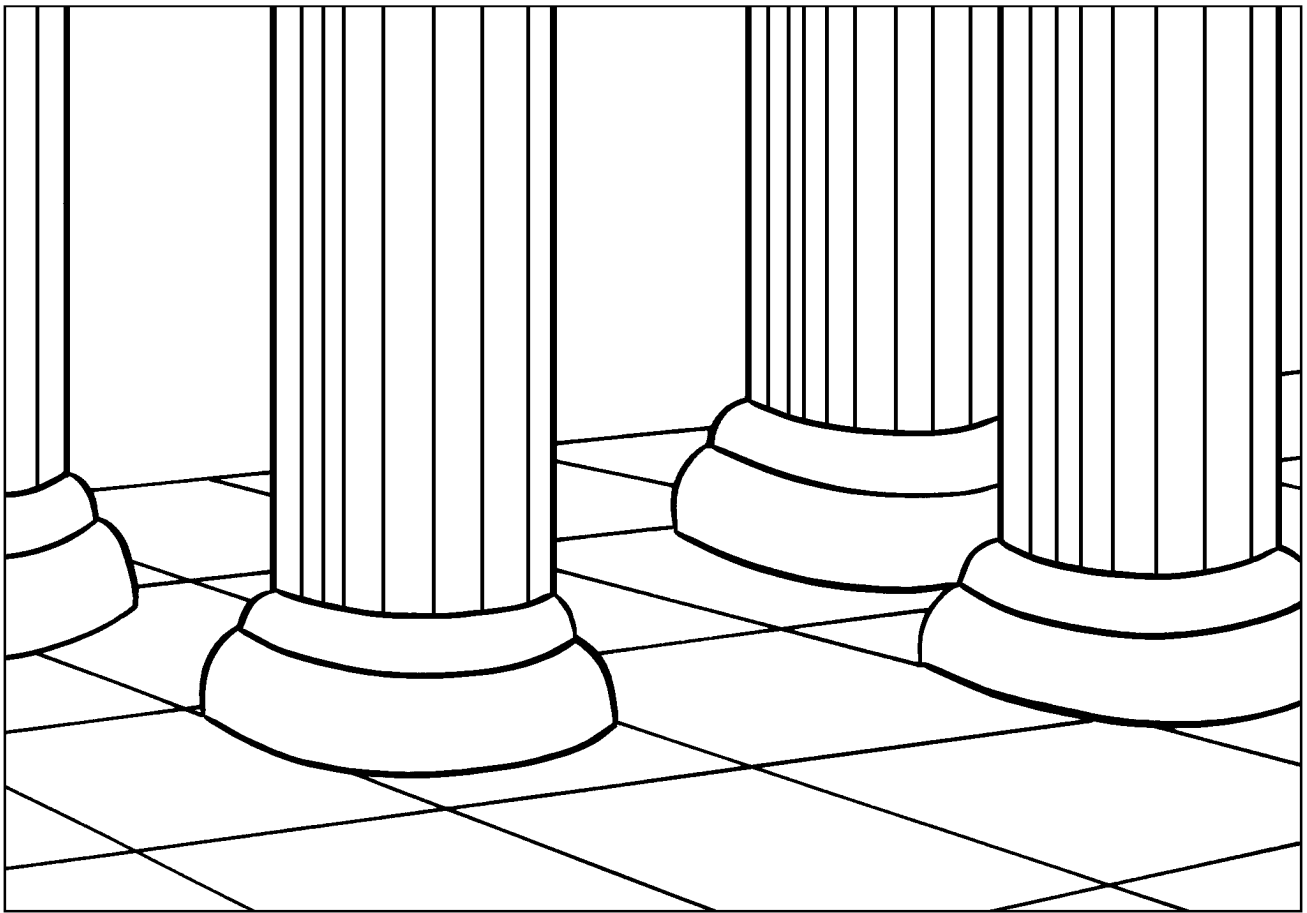

part to glue on the back

corners

parts for the frame

The Parables of Jesus

The Pharisee and the Publican

One day Jesus told the following parable: “Two men went to the temple to pray, one was a Pharisee, the other was a tax collector.

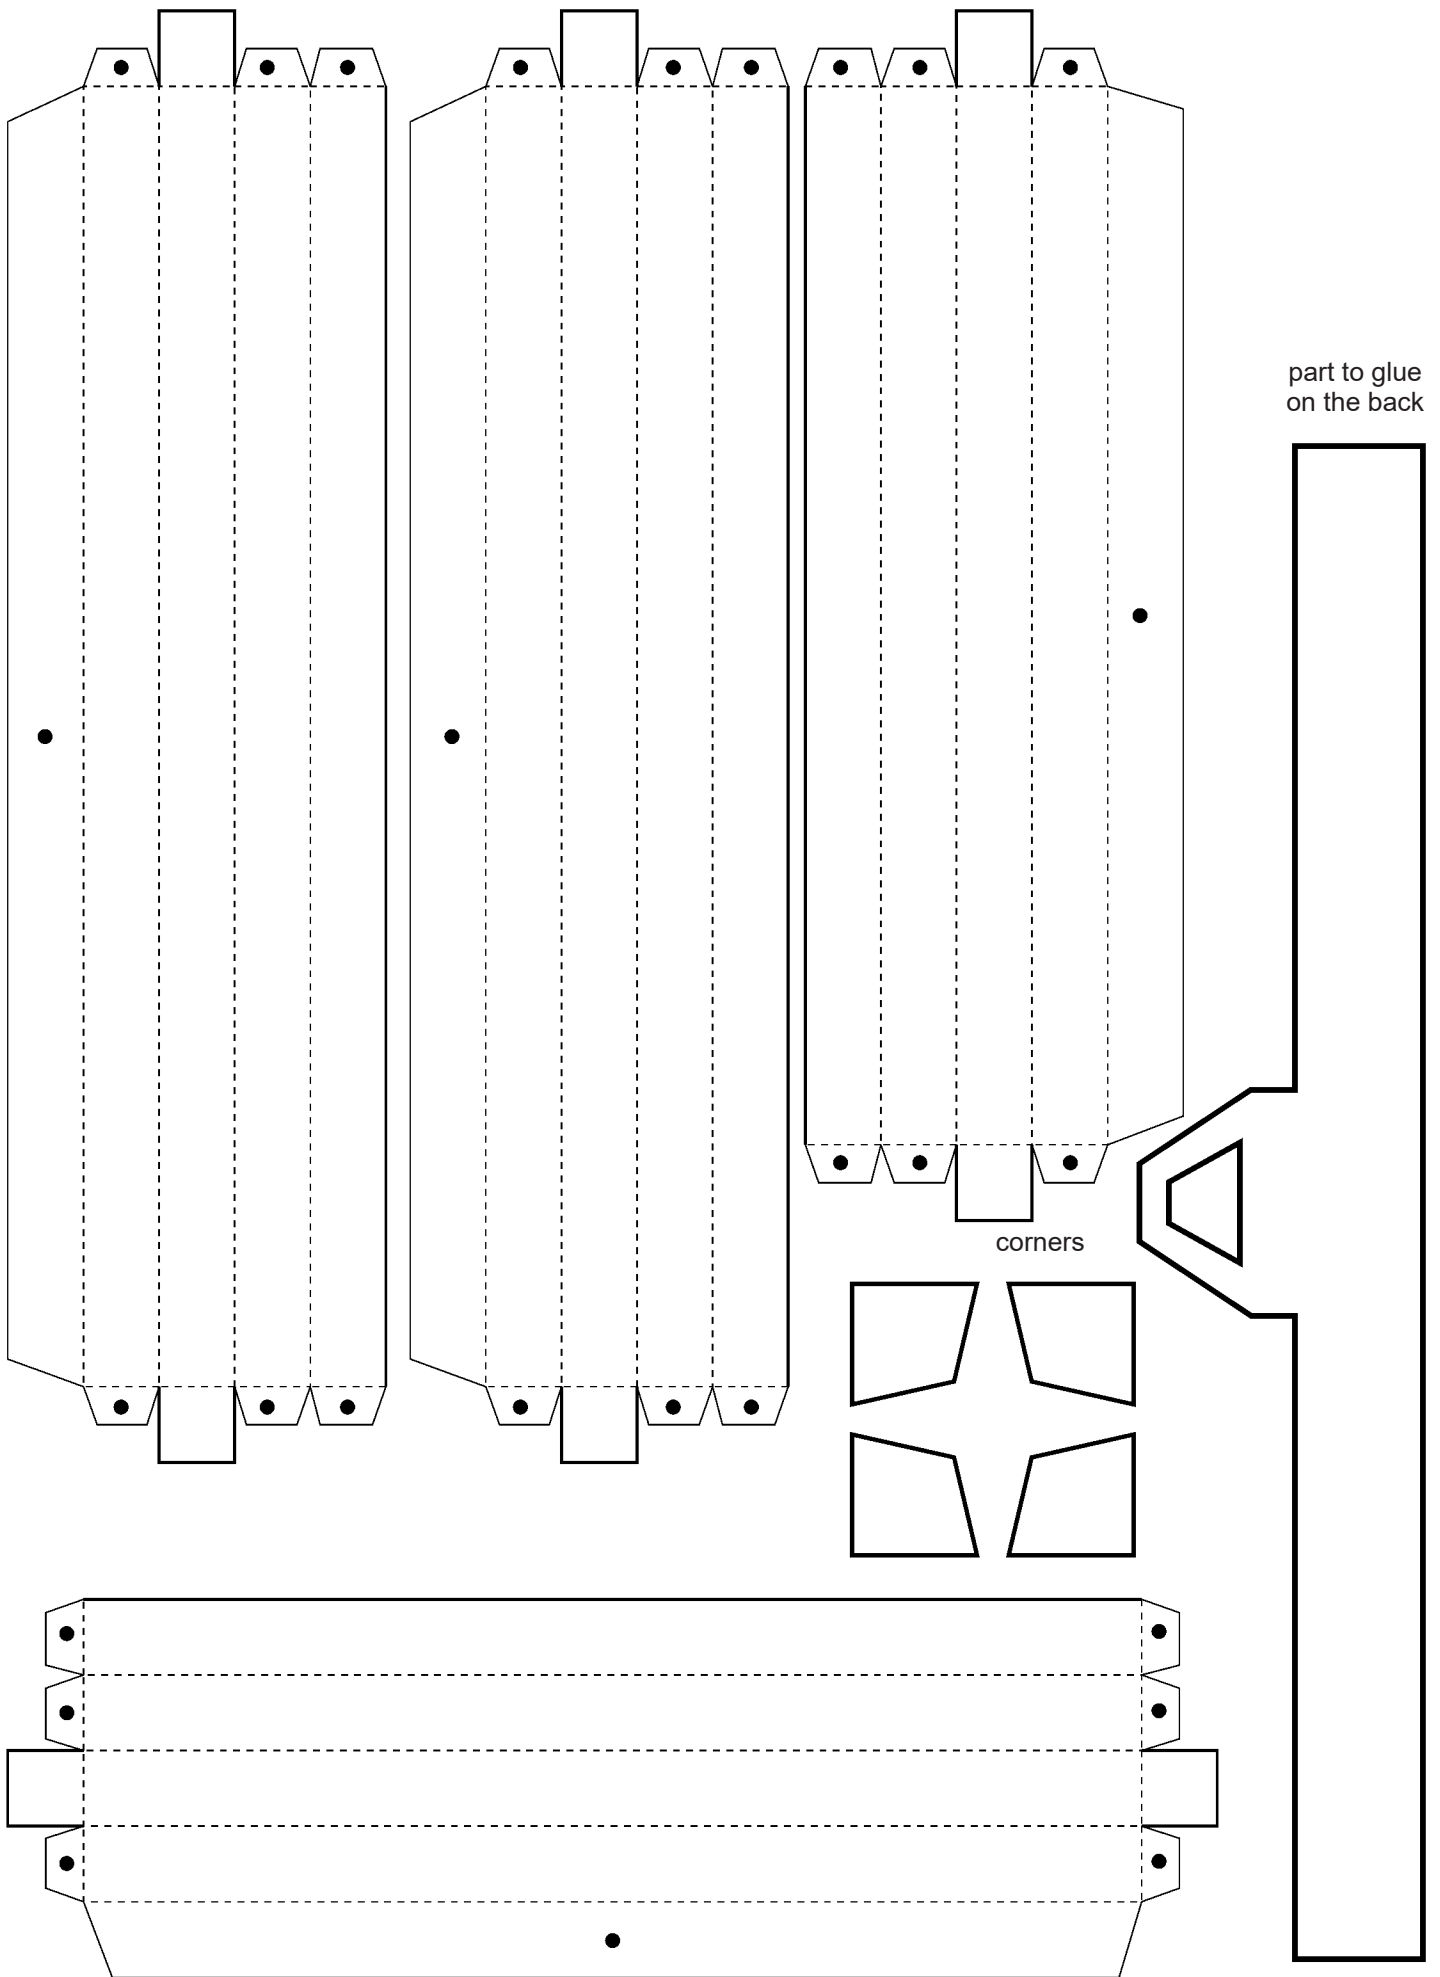

The Pharisee prayed, “I thank You, God, that I am not greedy, dishonest, or a sinful man, like everybody else. I thank you that I am not like that tax collector over there. I am so much more righteous.”

The tax collector stood at a distance and would not even raise his face to heaven, but beat on his breast and said, “God, have pity on me, a sinner!”

Jesus then told the people, “The tax collector, and not the Pharisee, was the one who was right with God when he went home. For those who make themselves great will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be made great.”

You can read this parable in Luke chapter 18, verses 9 to 14.

part to glue on the back

corners

parts for the frame

The Parables of Jesus

The Pharisee and the Publican

One day Jesus told the following parable: “Two men went to the temple to pray, one was a Pharisee, the other was a tax collector.

The Pharisee prayed, “I thank You, God, that I am not greedy, dishonest, or a sinful man, like everybody else. I thank you that I am not like that tax collector over there. I am so much more righteous.”

The tax collector stood at a distance and would not even raise his face to heaven, but beat on his breast and said, “God, have pity on me, a sinner!”

Jesus then told the people, “The tax collector, and not the Pharisee, was the one who was right with God when he went home. For those who make themselves great will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be made great.”

You can read this parable in Luke chapter 18, verses 9 to 14.

The Parables of Jesus

The Pharisee and the Publican

One day Jesus told the following parable: “Two men went to the temple to pray, one was a Pharisee, the other was a tax collector.

The Pharisee prayed, “I thank You, God, that I am not greedy, dishonest, or a sinful man, like everybody else. I thank you that I am not like that tax collector over there. I am so much more righteous.”

The tax collector stood at a distance and would not even raise his face to heaven, but beat on his breast and said, “God, have pity on me, a sinner!”

Jesus then told the people, “The tax collector, and not the Pharisee, was the one who was right with God when he went home. For those who make themselves great will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be made great.”

You can read this parable in Luke chapter 18, verses 9 to 14.