

The Parables of Jesus

The Three Servants and the Talents

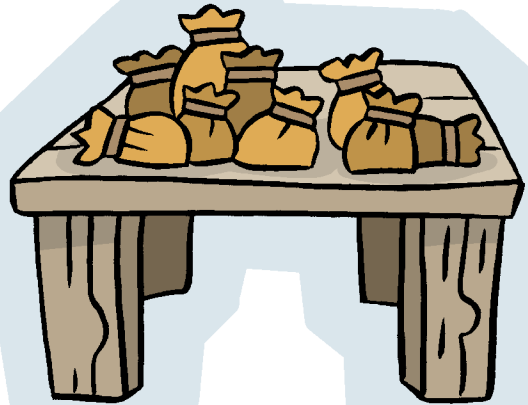

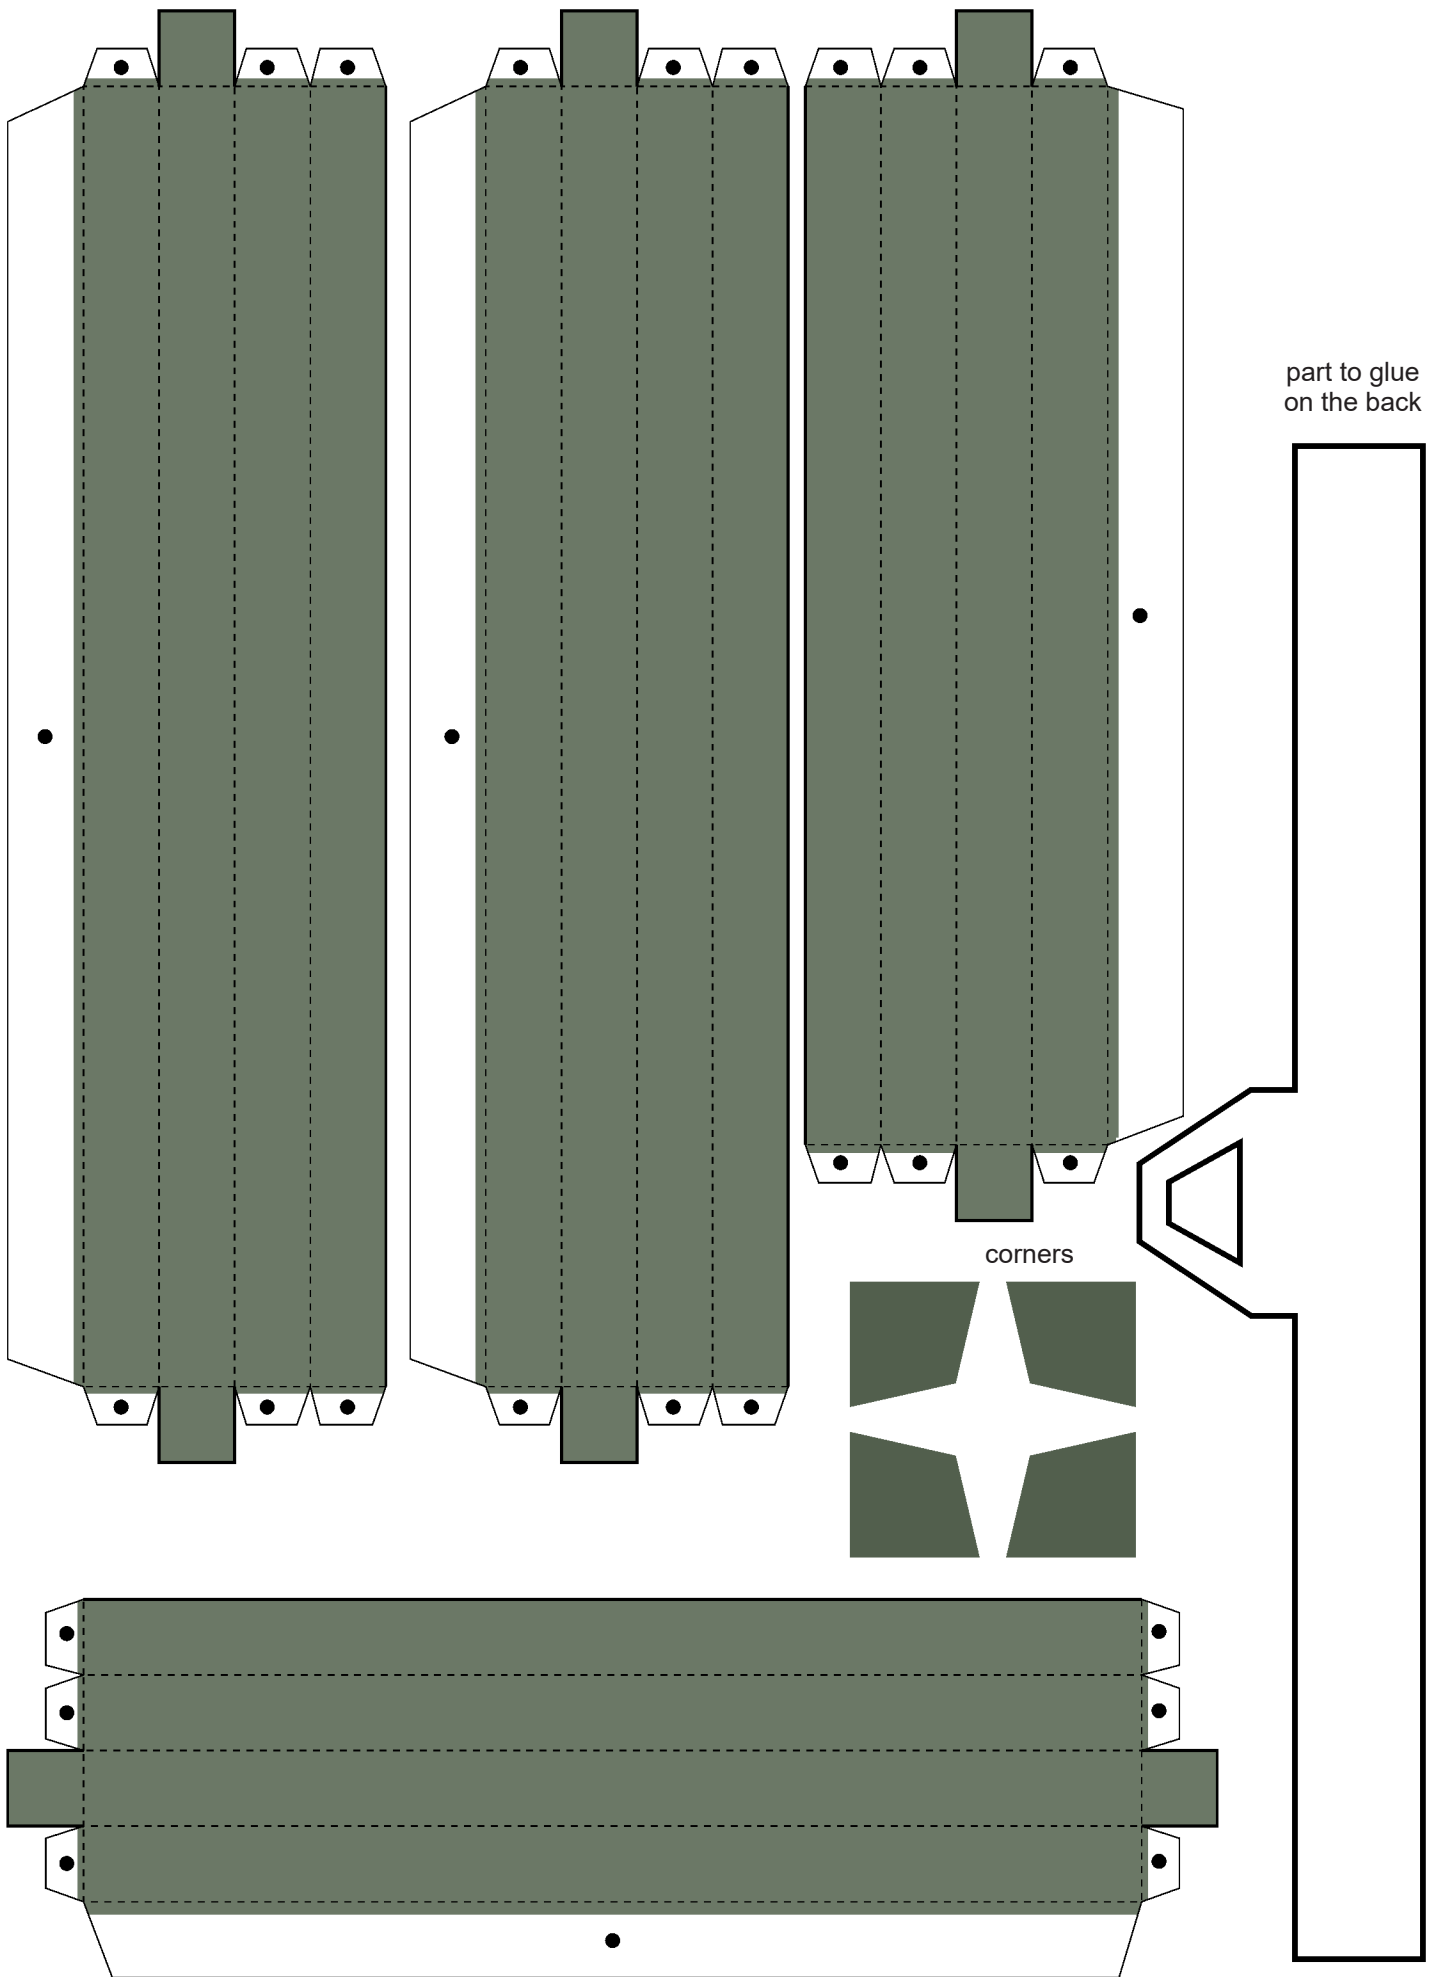

Jesus' disciples ask him once: "Tell us what will be the sign of your coming." Jesus told His disciples many things to prepare them for His coming Kingdom. He told them also this parable:

"A man going on a journey called his servants and placed them in charge of his property, giving each one a certain amount of money, each according to his own abilities.

"On his return, after a long absence, the master asked his three servants for an account of the money he had entrusted to them. Each then gave an account to the master of how they had or had not invested what they had received.

You can read this story in Matthew chapter 25, verse 14 to 30. In the Gospel of Luke chapter 19, verse 12 to 27, Jesus told a similar parable.

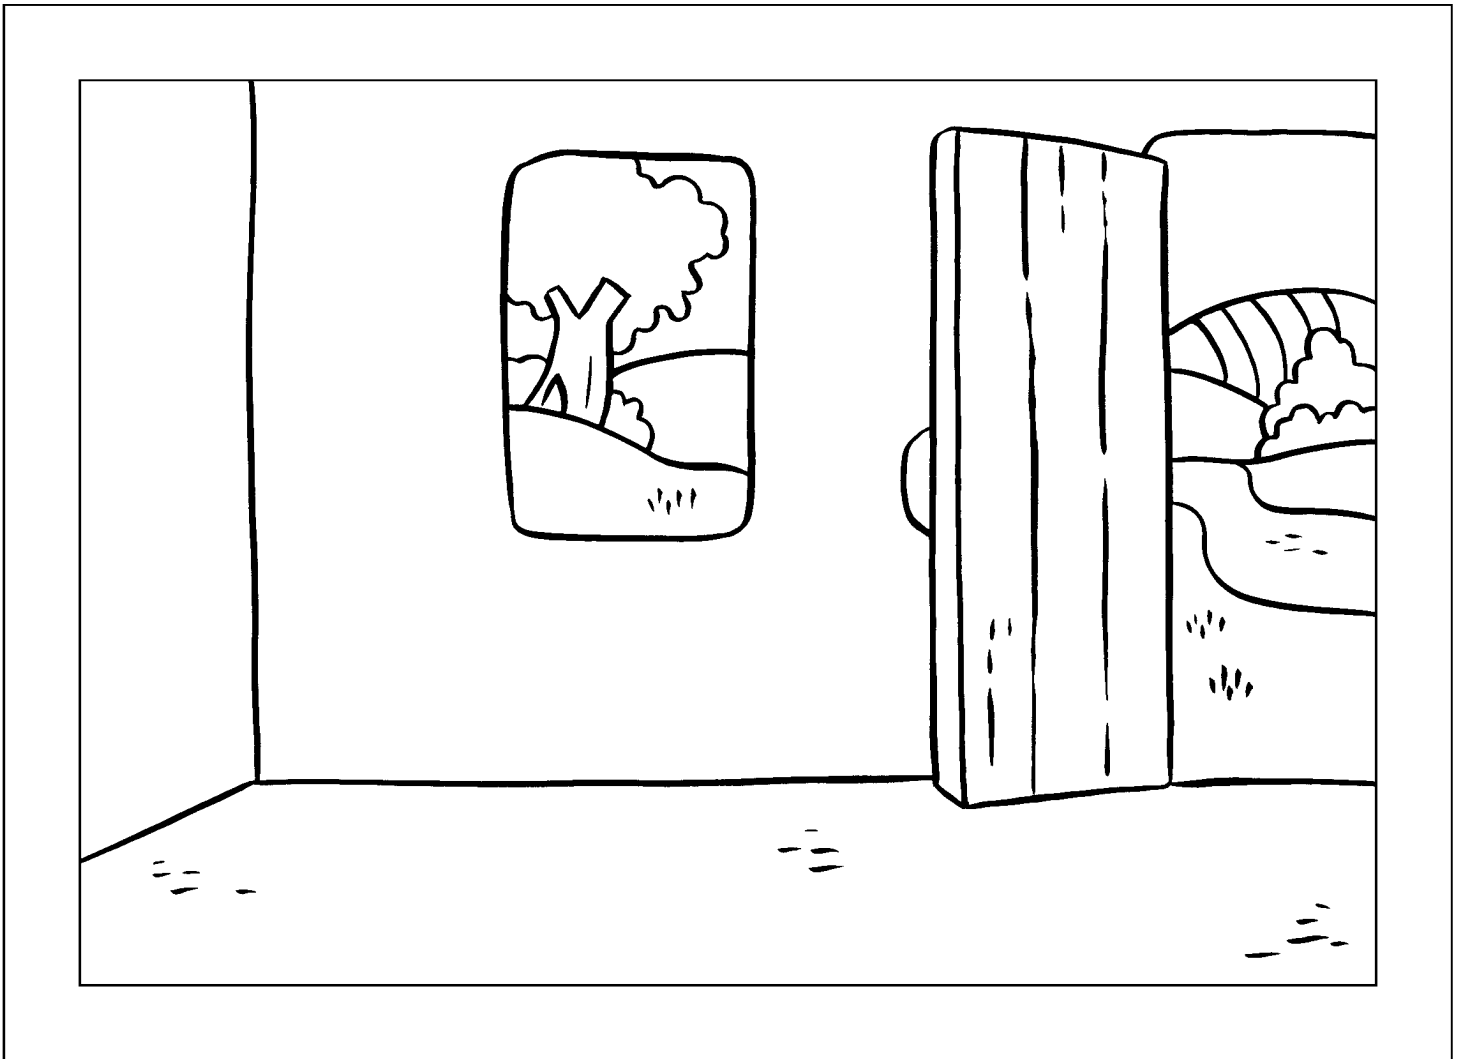

part to glue on the back

corners

parts for the frame

The Parables of Jesus

The Three Servants and the Talents

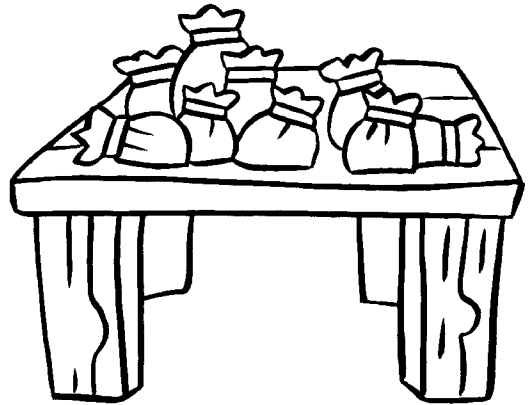

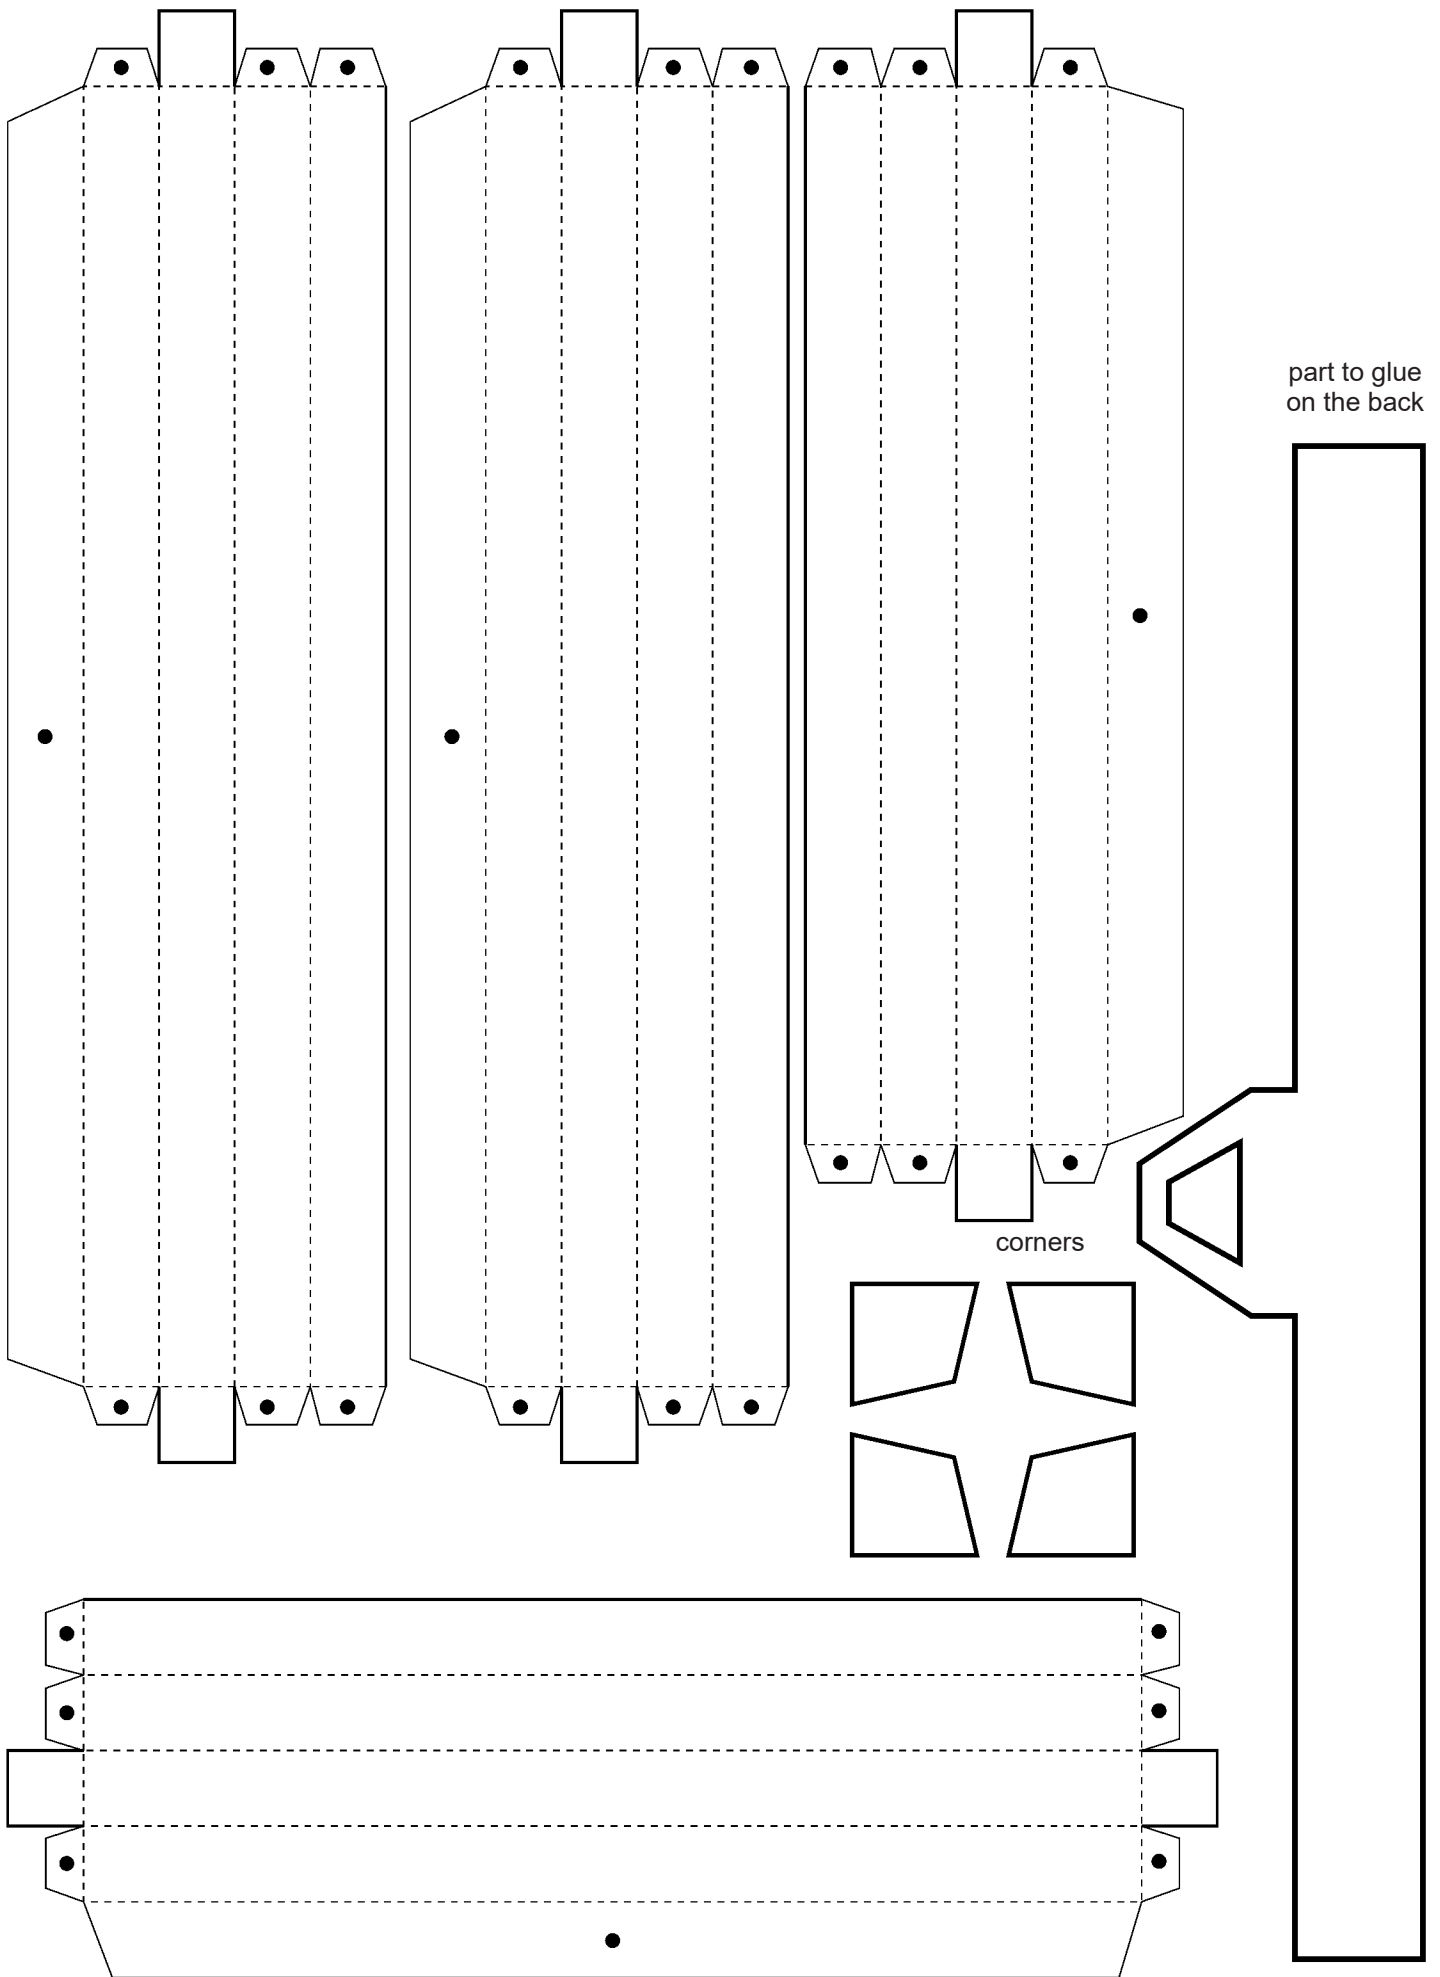

Jesus' disciples ask him once: "Tell us what will be the sign of your coming." Jesus told His disciples many things to prepare them for His coming Kingdom. He told them also this parable:

"A man going on a journey called his servants and placed them in charge of his property, giving each one a certain amount of money, each according to his own abilities.

"On his return, after a long absence, the master asked his three servants for an account of the money he had entrusted to them. Each then gave an account to the master of how they had or had not invested what they had received.

You can read this story in Matthew chapter 25, verse 14 to 30. In the Gospel of Luke chapter 19, verse 12 to 27, Jesus told a similar parable.

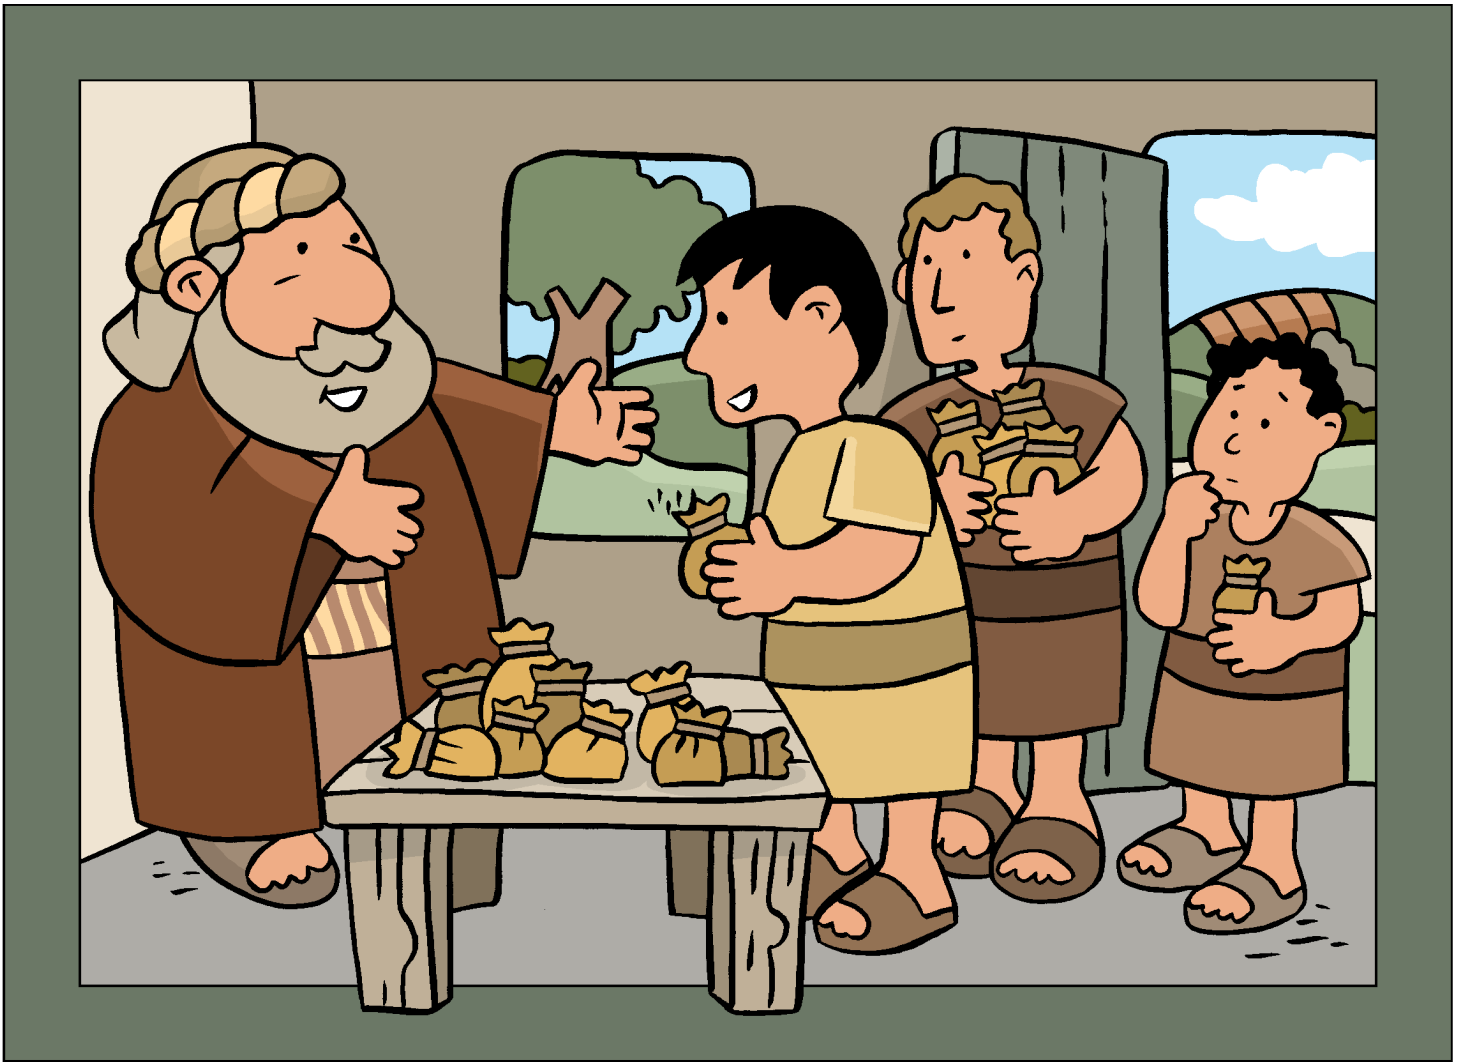

part to glue
on the back

corners

parts for the frame

The Parables of Jesus

The Three Servants and the Talents

Jesus' disciples ask him once: "Tell us what will be the sign of your coming." Jesus told His disciples many things to prepare them for His coming Kingdom. He told them also this parable:

"A man going on a journey called his servants and placed them in charge of his property, giving each one a certain amount of money, each according to his own abilities.

"On his return, after a long absence, the master asked his three servants for an account of the money he had entrusted to them. Each then gave an account to the master of how they had or had not invested what they had received.

You can read this story in Matthew chapter 25, verse 14 to 30. In the Gospel of Luke chapter 19, verse 12 to 27, Jesus told a similar parable.

The Parables of Jesus

The Three Servants and the Talents

Jesus' disciples ask him once: "Tell us what will be the sign of your coming." Jesus told His disciples many things to prepare them for His coming Kingdom. He told them also this parable:

"A man going on a journey called his servants and placed them in charge of his property, giving each one a certain amount of money, each according to his own abilities.

"On his return, after a long absence, the master asked his three servants for an account of the money he had entrusted to them. Each then gave an account to the master of how they had or had not invested what they had received.

You can read this story in Matthew chapter 25, verse 14 to 30. In the Gospel of Luke chapter 19, verse 12 to 27, Jesus told a similar parable.