

The City of Dothan

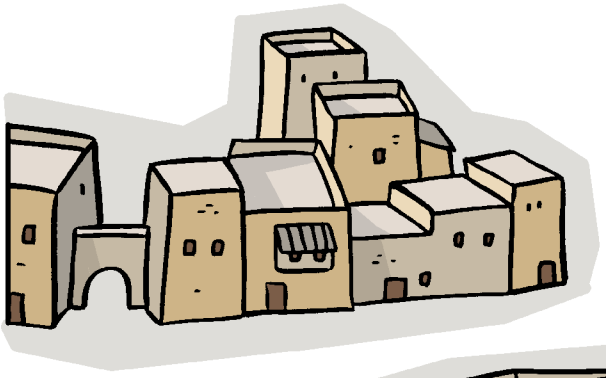
Dothan was a city located to the north of Jerusalem. Dothan was first mentioned in the Bible in connection with the story of Joseph as the area where Jacob's sons had moved their flocks.

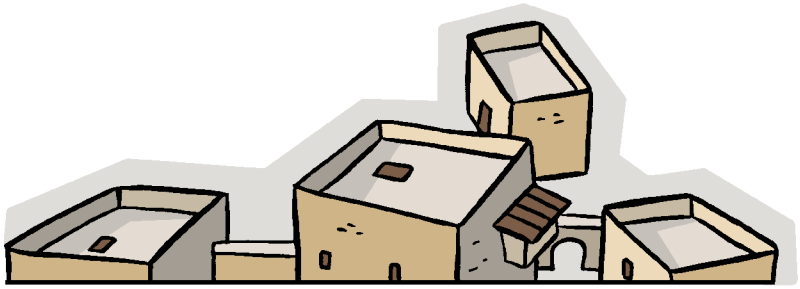
When Joseph went to see his brothers, they were so enraged by jealousy that they sold him as a slave to a caravan of Ishmaelites who were traveling to Egypt.

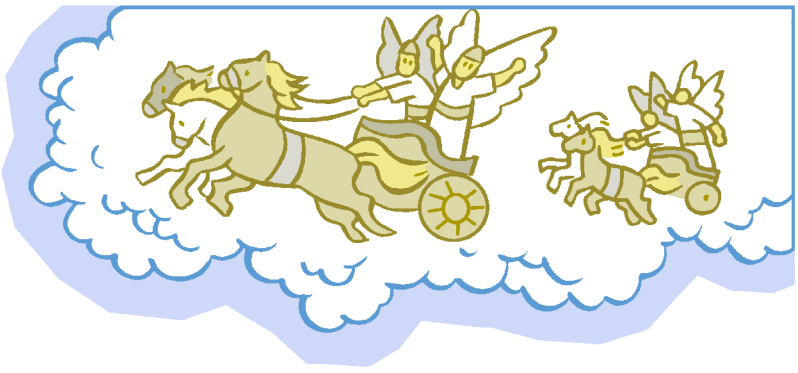
Dothan is later mentioned in the book of 2 Kings in connection with the prophet Elisha where he and his servant observe a vision of chariots and horses of fire protecting them from the camp of enemies surrounding the city.

The mound known as Tell Dothan in current times has been identified as the Biblical site of Dothan.

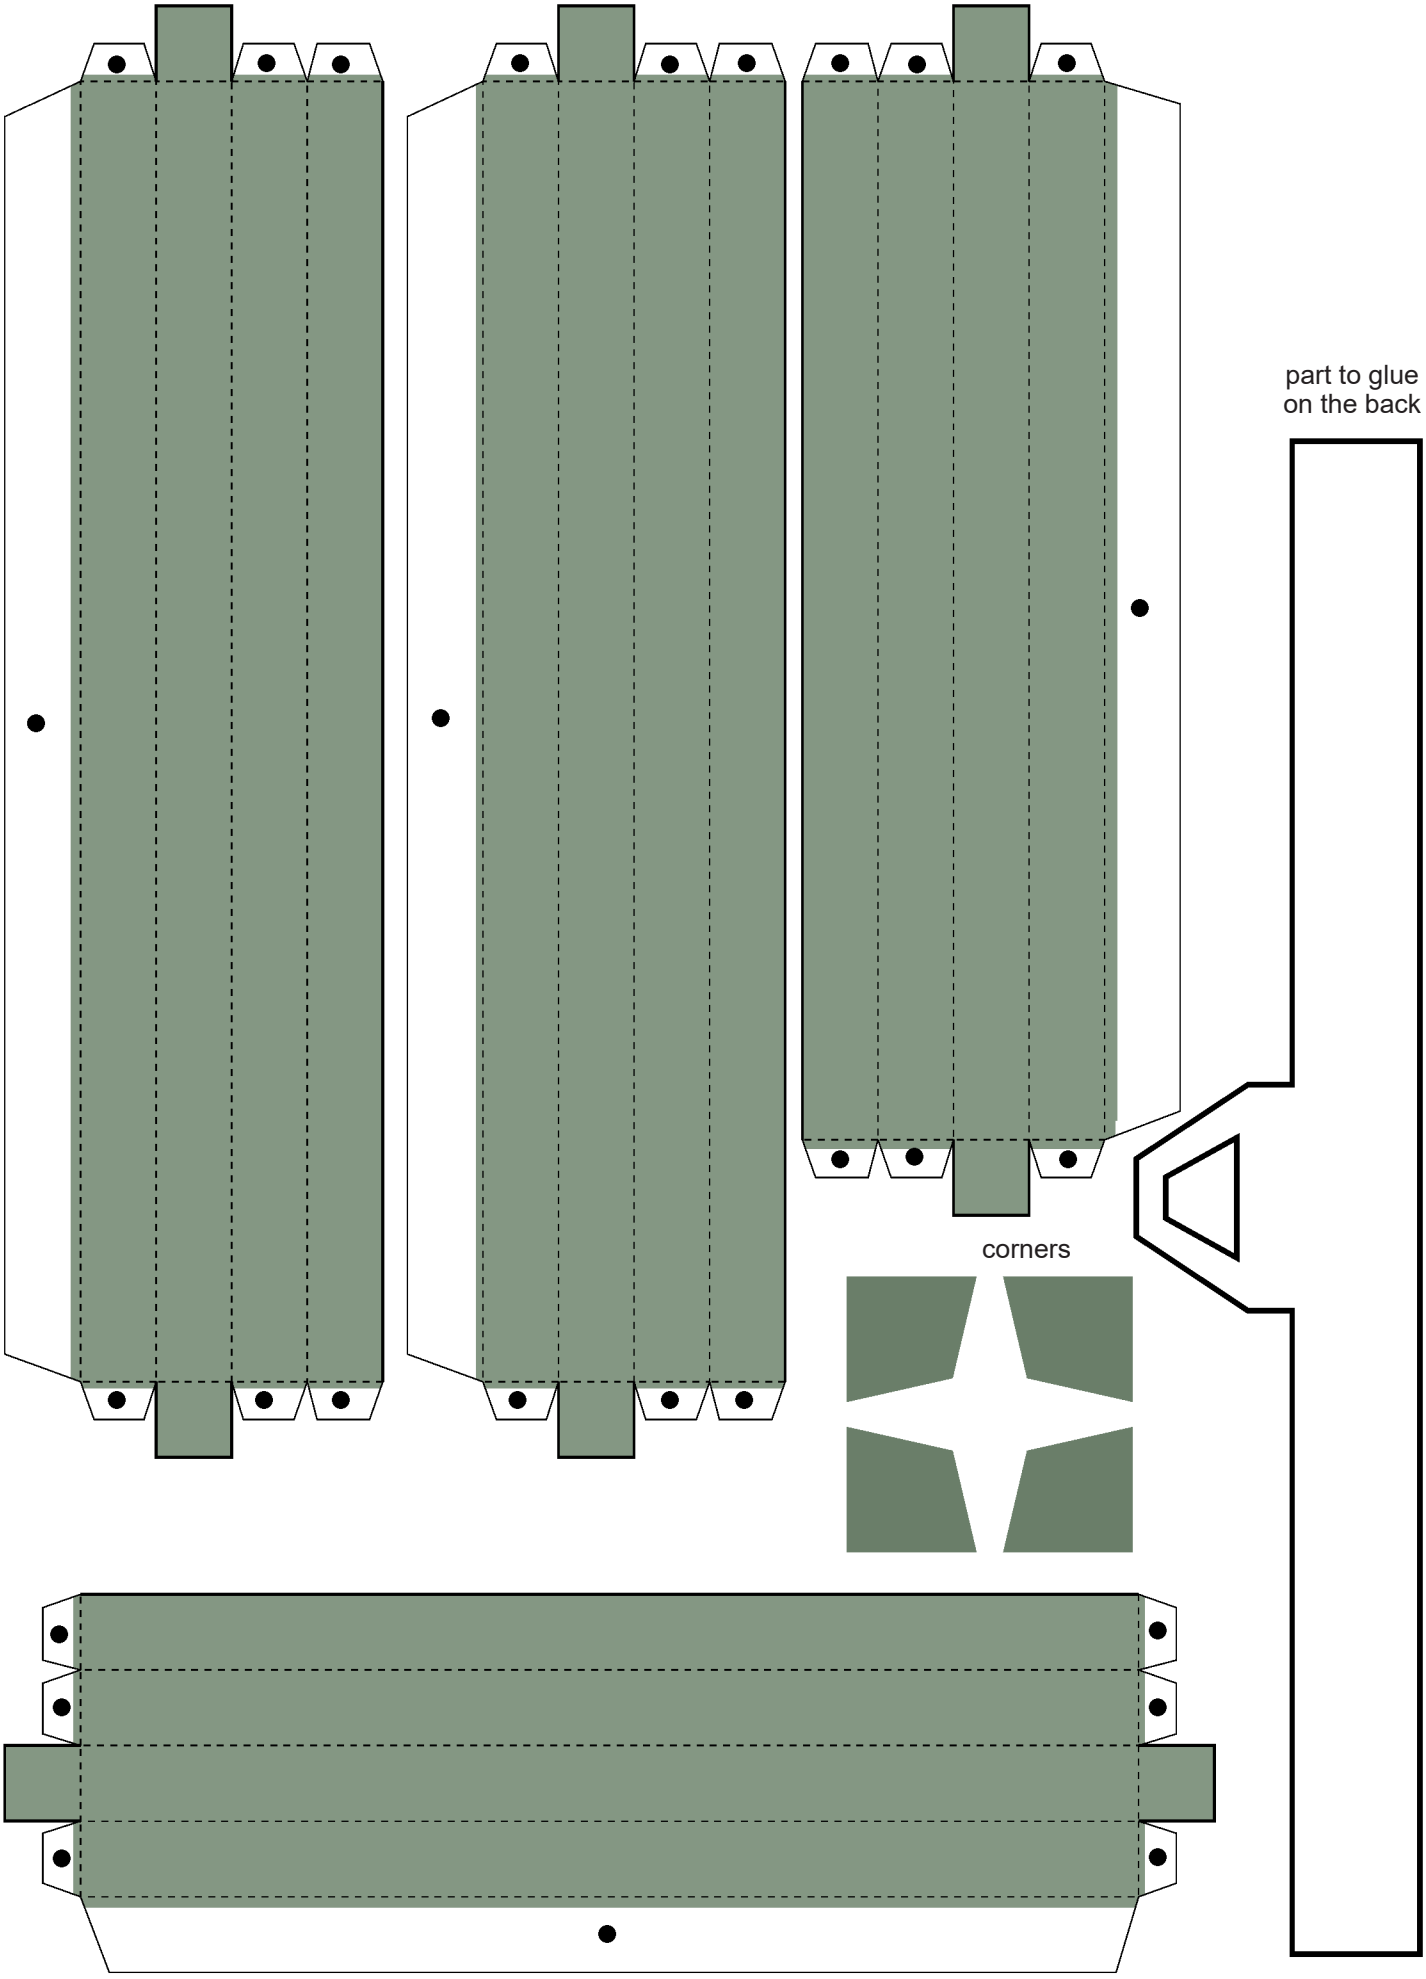
You can read the story of Joseph sold as a slave in Genesis 17, verses 13 through 36; and the vision of God's Heavenly army in 2 Kings, chapter 6, verses 8 through 23.



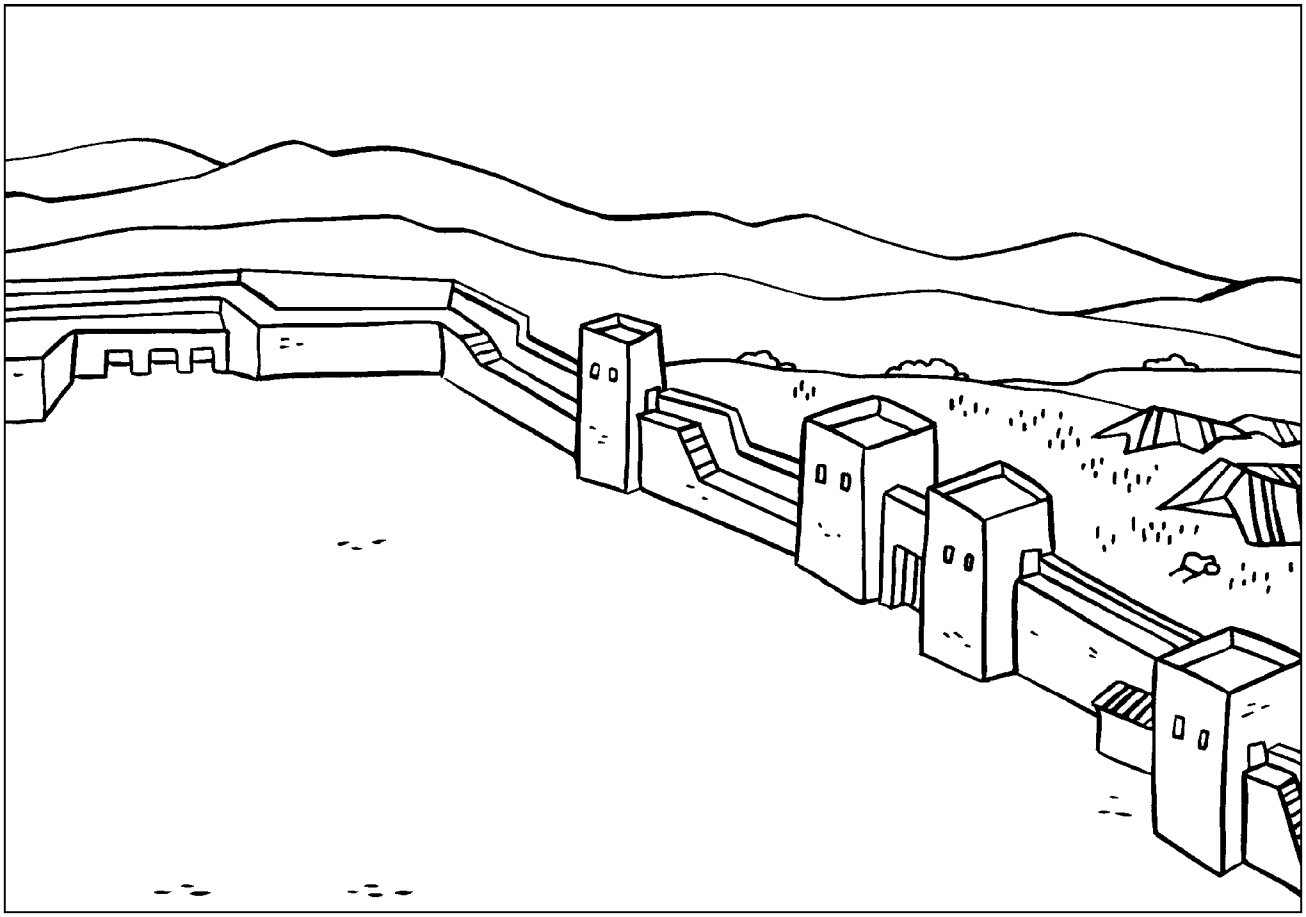




Illustrations by Didier Martin - Copyright © 2018 by Didier Martin
www.mylittlehouse.org - https://blog-mylittlehouse.weebly.com/
Permission granted to print for personal use only. Distribution is prohibited.



parts for the frame



The City of Dothan

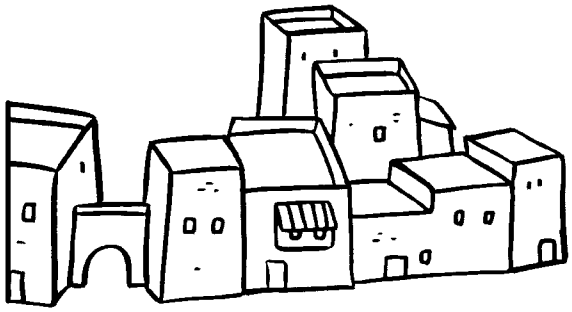
Dothan was a city located to the north of Jerusalem. Dothan was first mentioned in the Bible in connection with the story of Joseph as the area where Jacob's sons had moved their flocks.

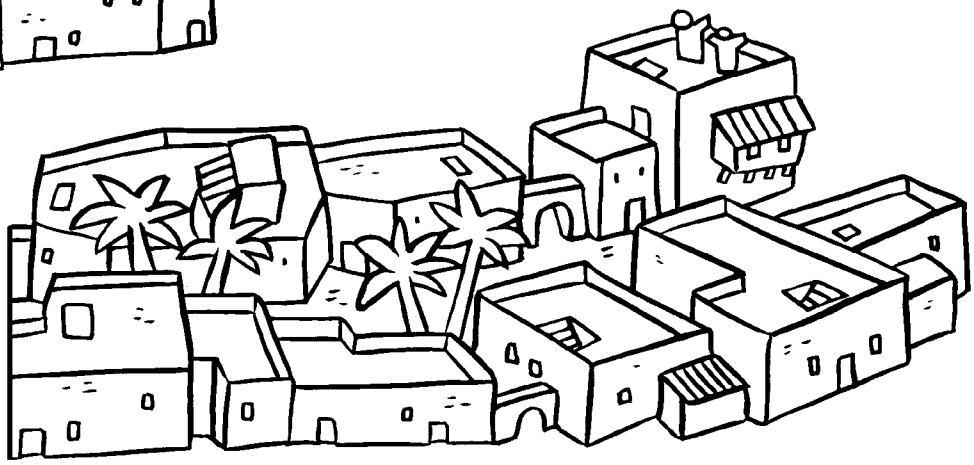
When Joseph went to see his brothers, they were so enraged by jealousy that they sold him as a slave to a caravan of Ishmaelites who were traveling to Egypt.

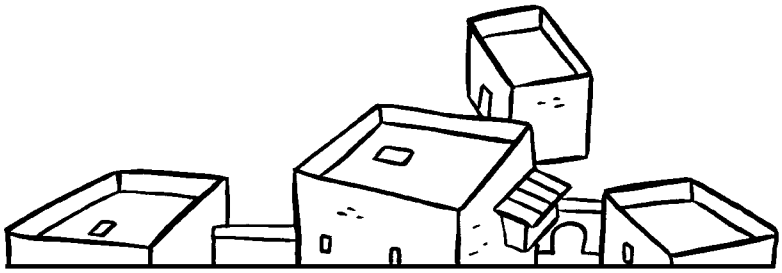
Dothan is later mentioned in the book of 2 Kings in connection with the prophet Elisha where he and his servant observe a vision of chariots and horses of fire protecting them from the camp of enemies surrounding the city.

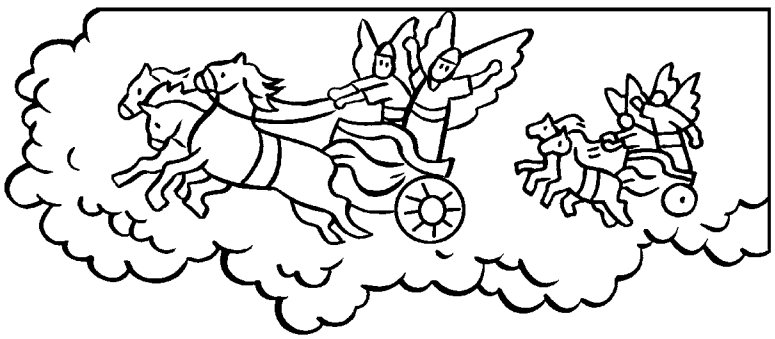
The mound known as Tell Dothan in current times has been identified as the Biblical site of Dothan.

You can read the story of Joseph sold as a slave in Genesis 17, verses 13 through 36; and the vision of God's Heavenly army in 2 Kings, chapter 6, verses 8 through 23.

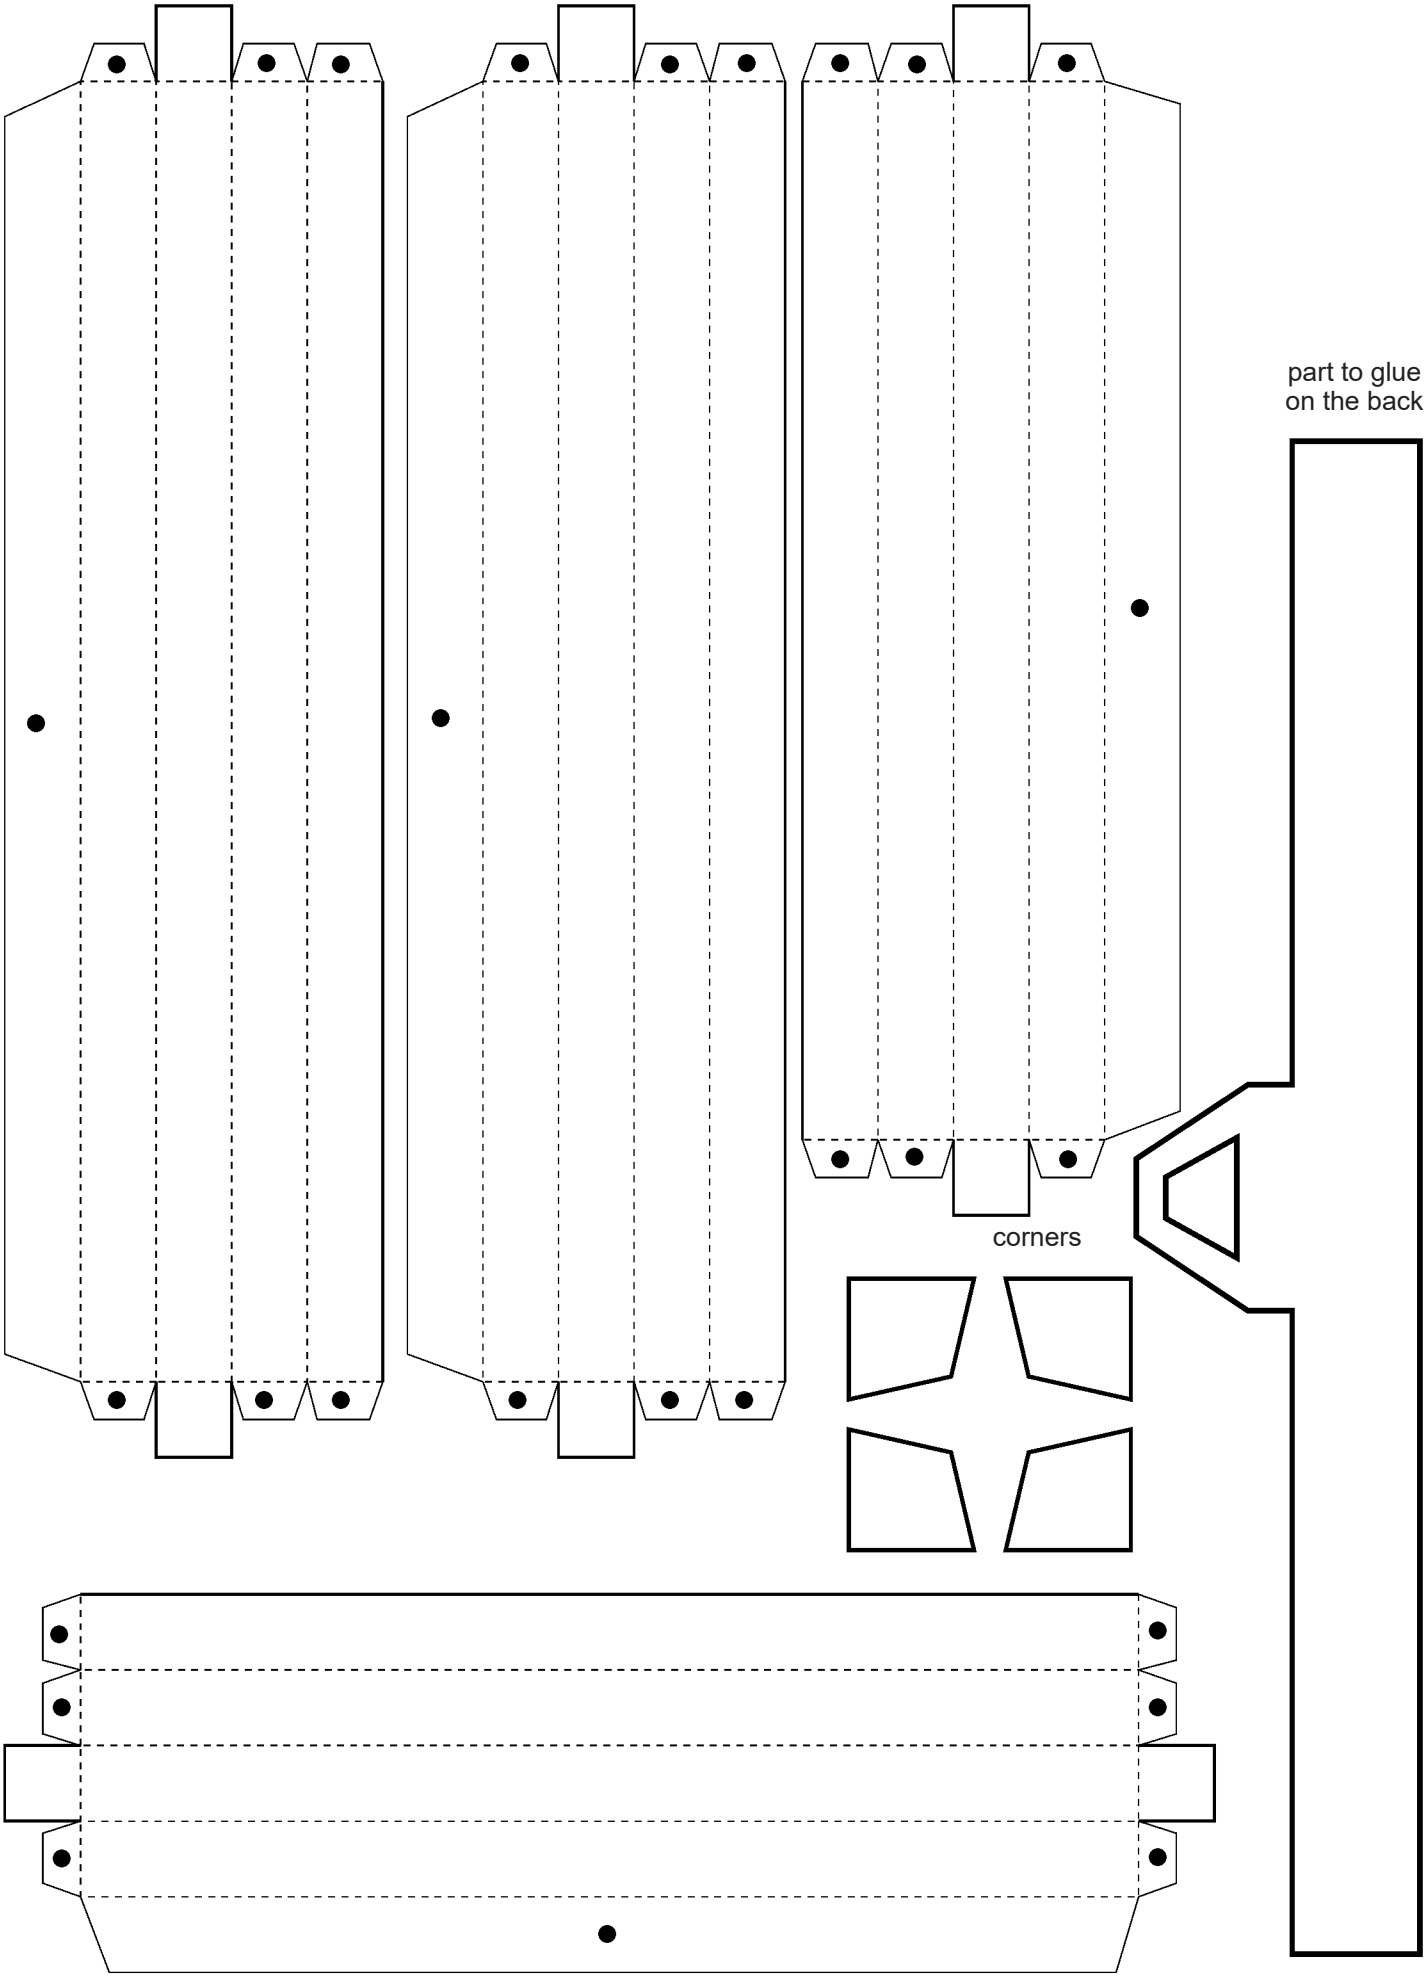




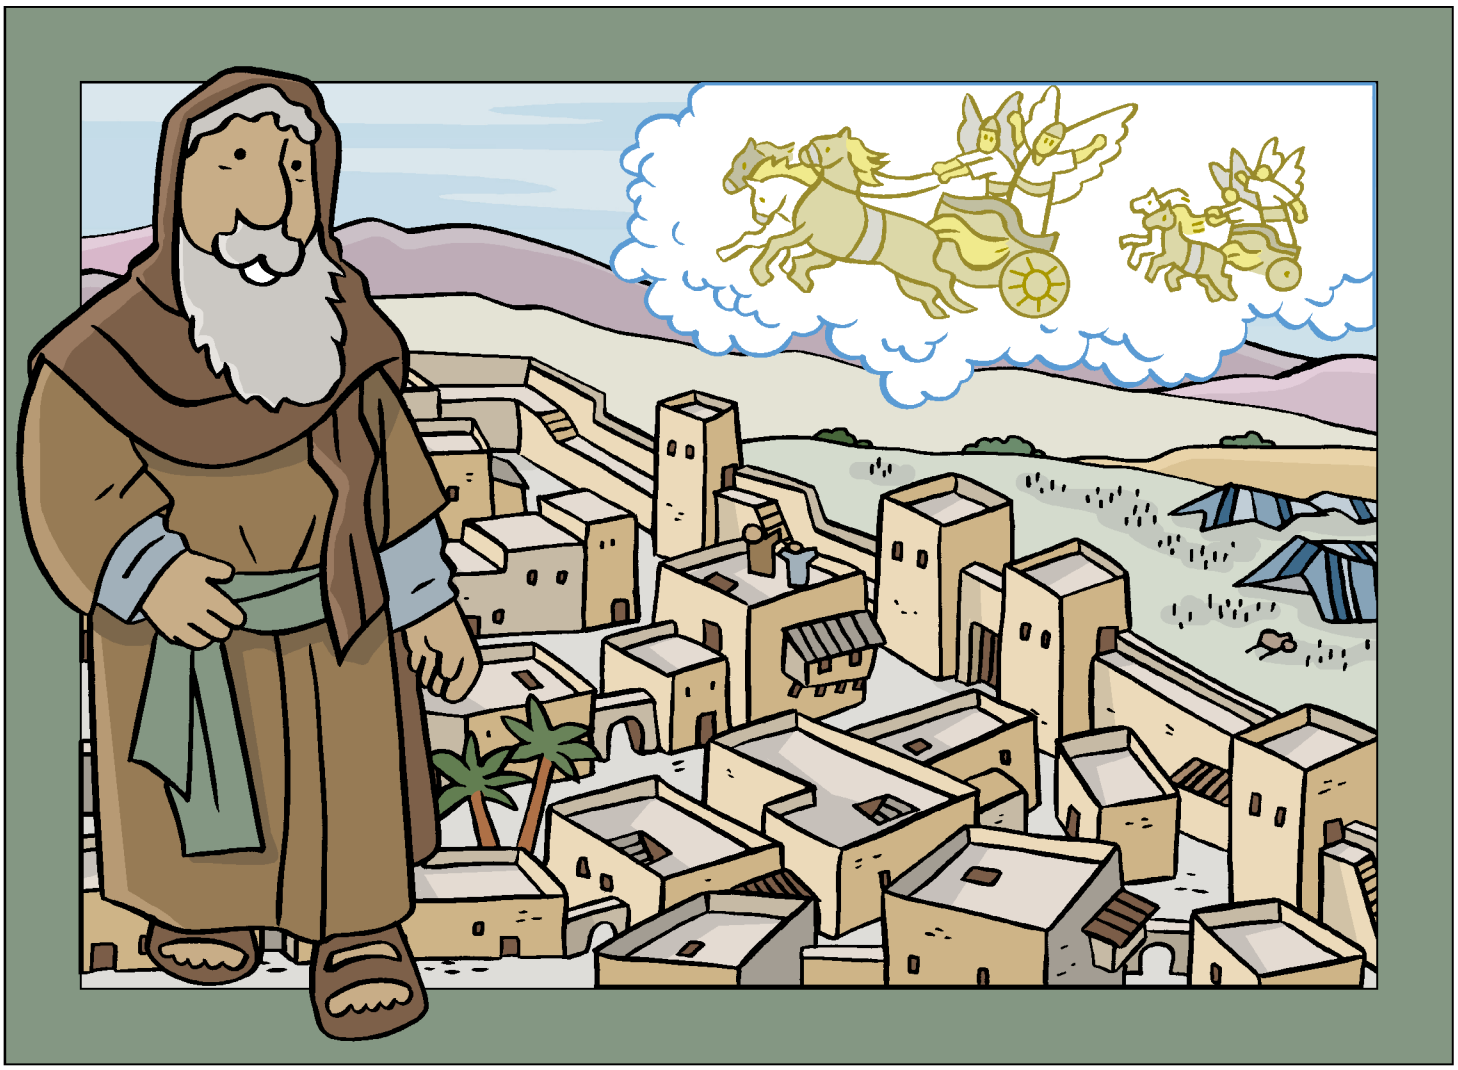


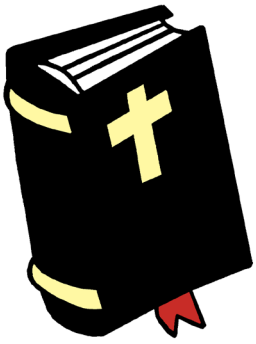


Illustrations by Didier Martin - Copyright © 2018 by Didier Martin
www.mylittlehouse.org - https://blog-mylittlehouse.weebly.com/
Permission granted to print for personal use only. Distribution is prohibited.



parts for the frame





The City of Dothan

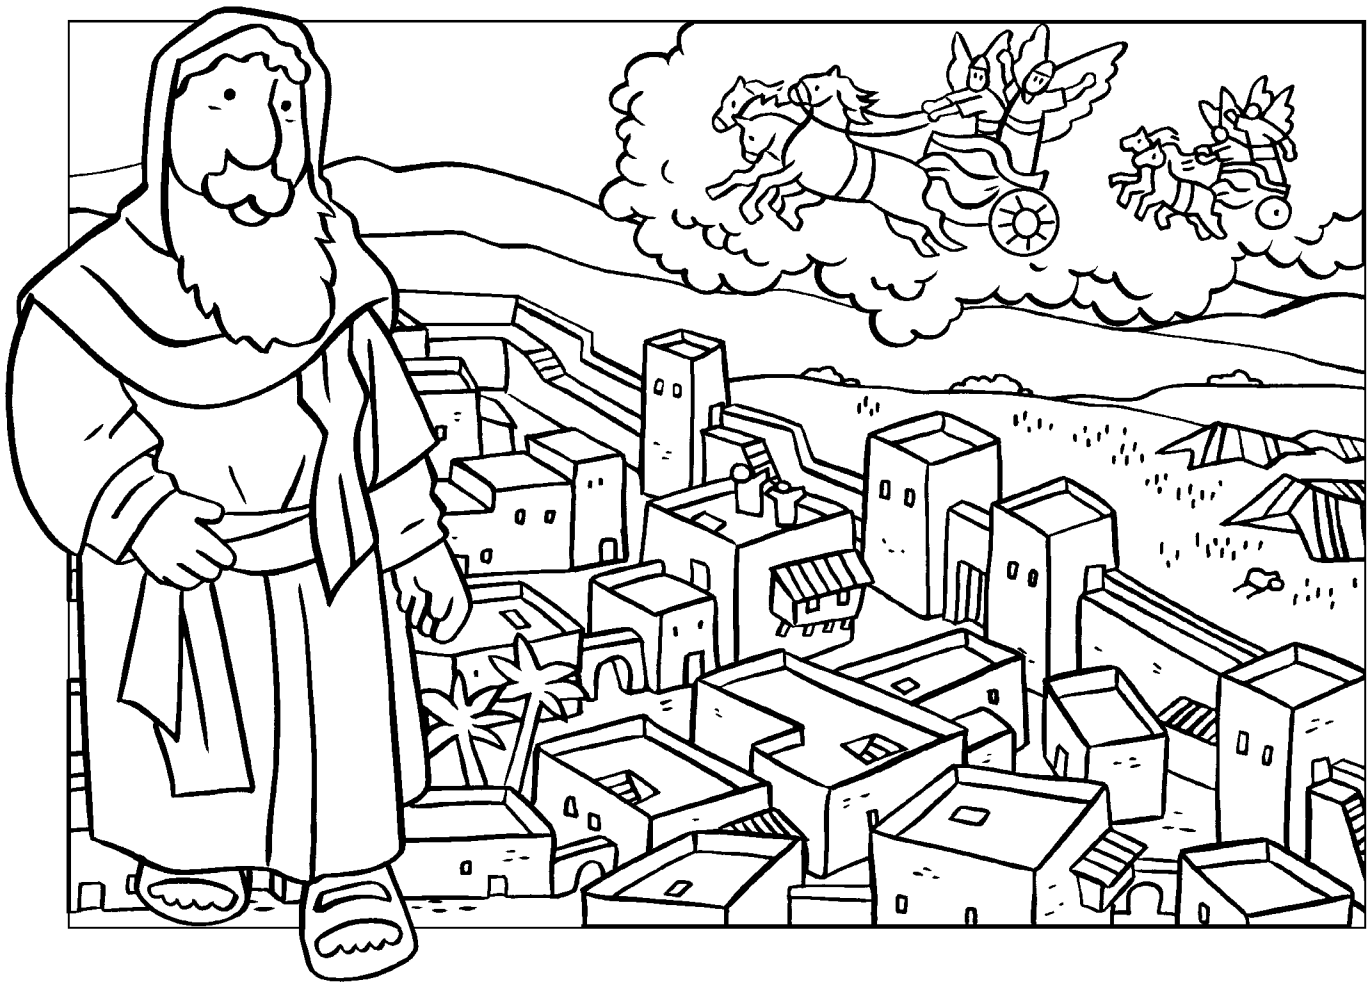
Dothan was a city located to the north of Jerusalem. Dothan was first mentioned in the Bible in connection with the story of Joseph as the area where Jacob's sons had moved their flocks.

When Joseph went to see his brothers, they were so enraged by jealousy that they sold him as a slave to a caravan of Ishmaelites who were traveling to Egypt.

Dothan is later mentioned in the book of 2 Kings in connection with the prophet Elisha where he and his servant observe a vision of chariots and horses of fire protecting them from the camp of enemies surrounding the city.

The mound known as Tell Dothan in current times has been identified as the Biblical site of Dothan.

You can read the story of Joseph sold as a slave in Genesis 17, verses 13 through 36; and the vision of God's Heavenly army in 2 Kings, chapter 6, verses 8 through 23.



The City of Dothan

Dothan was a city located to the north of Jerusalem. Dothan was first mentioned in the Bible in connection with the story of Joseph as the area where Jacob's sons had moved their flocks.

When Joseph went to see his brothers, they were so enraged by jealousy that they sold him as a slave to a caravan of Ishmaelites who were traveling to Egypt.

Dothan is later mentioned in the book of 2 Kings in connection with the prophet Elisha where he and his servant observe a vision of chariots and horses of fire protecting them from the camp of enemies surrounding the city.

The mound known as Tell Dothan in current times has been identified as the Biblical site of Dothan.

You can read the story of Joseph sold as a slave in Genesis 17, verses 13 through 36; and the vision of God's Heavenly army in 2 Kings, chapter 6, verses 8 through 23.