

A Meal with Pharisees

While Jesus was eating at the home of one of the chief Pharisees, a man walked in with swollen arms and legs.

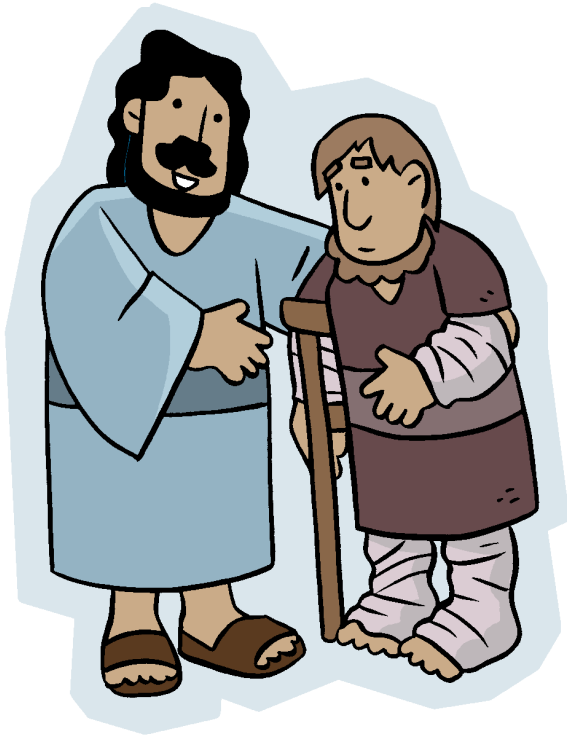

Jesus asked the lawyers and Pharisees if it was lawful to heal on the Sabbath? They remained silent instead of answering. Jesus then healed the man and sent him on his way.

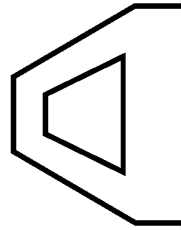

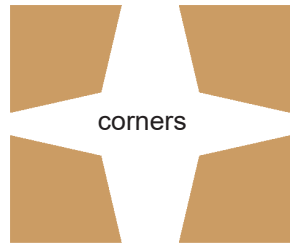

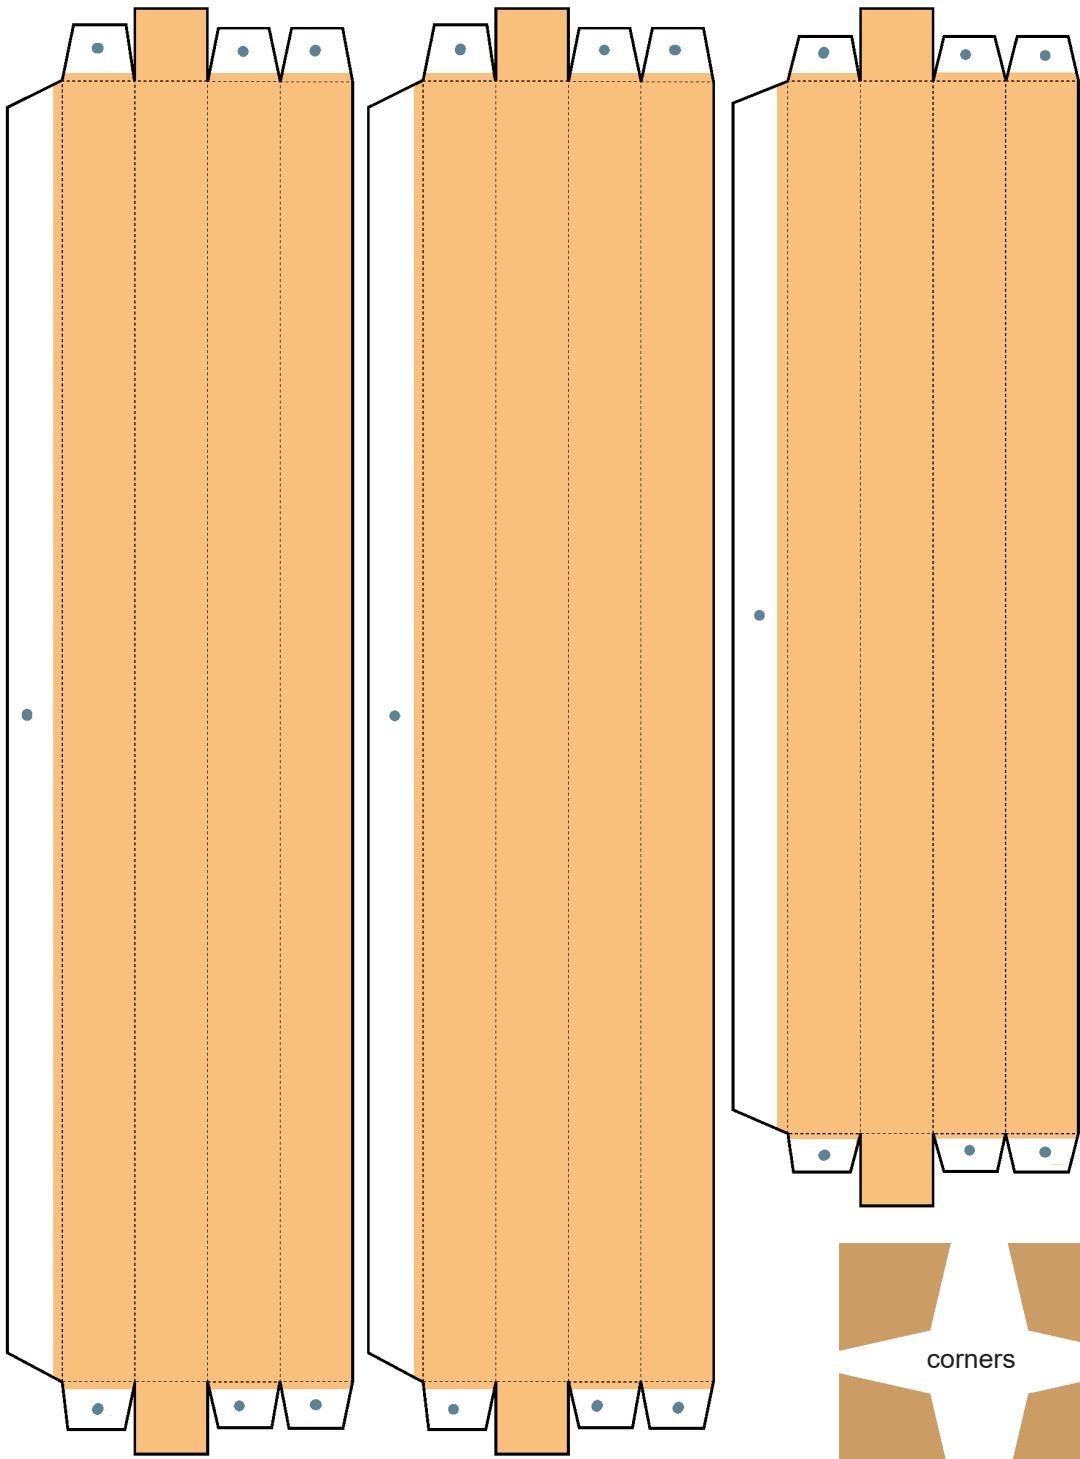

Jesus told them a parable, explaining that if one of them was invited to a wedding feast, that it would be best to not sit themselves in the highest place of honor. Because if later someone arrived who was to be more honored, they would feel shame as they gave him their seat and moved to a lower position.

He explained that it would be better to take the lowest seat first, and then later it was likely that they would be asked to move to a higher position.

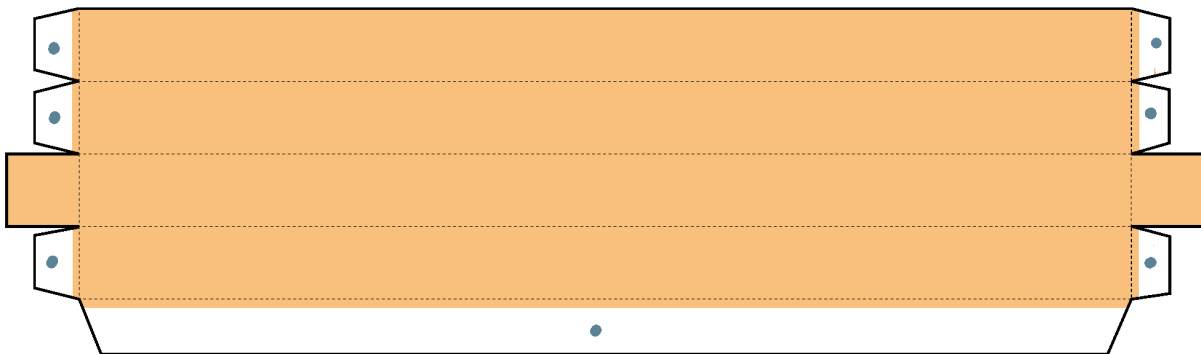

Whoever exalts himself will be made low, but whoever humbles himself will be exalted.
