

The carpenter son

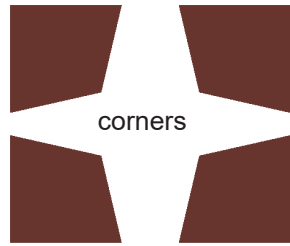

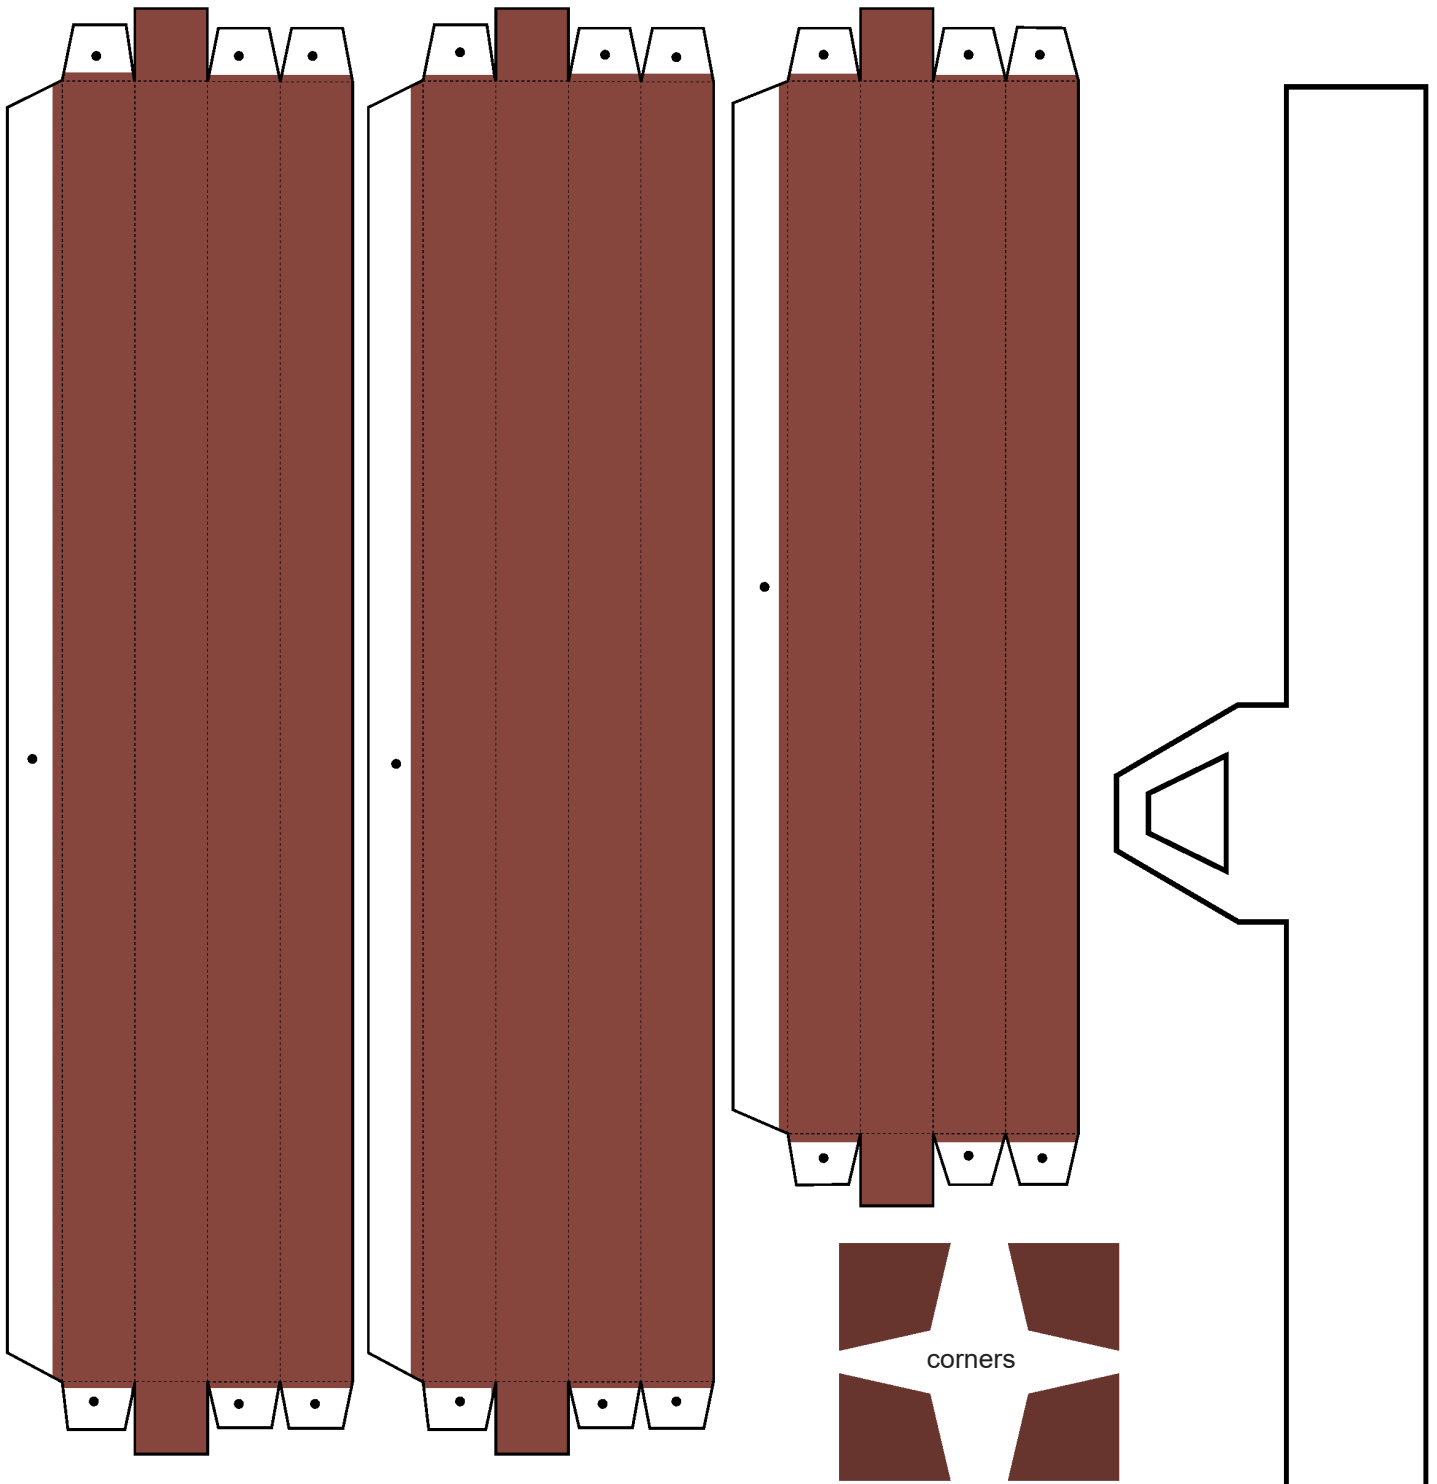

Every year, Joseph, Mary, and their boy went to Jerusalem to attend the Passover festival. However, the year the boy had turned twelve years old, he initially didn't go on the journey home with them, but stayed in Jerusalem.

His parents were very worried and had to return to look for him, finding him in the temple talking with the Jewish teachers. When asked why he stayed behind, he told them he had to be in his Father's house, as was the Jewish custom that a son when he was twelve years old would be working with his father in the same trade. His parents didn't understand what he meant.

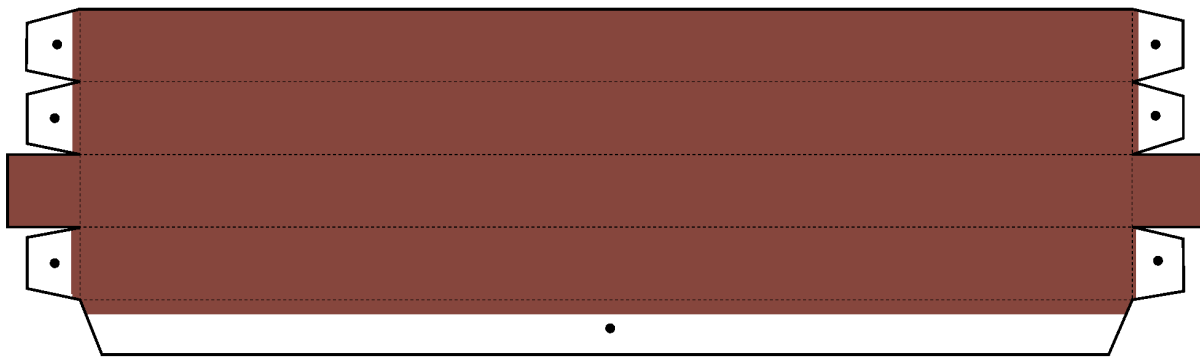

In obedience to his parents, he then returned with them to Nazareth and worked with his father, Joseph, as a carpenter. The young boy's name was Jesus.

You can read this story in Luke chapter 2, verses 39 to 52

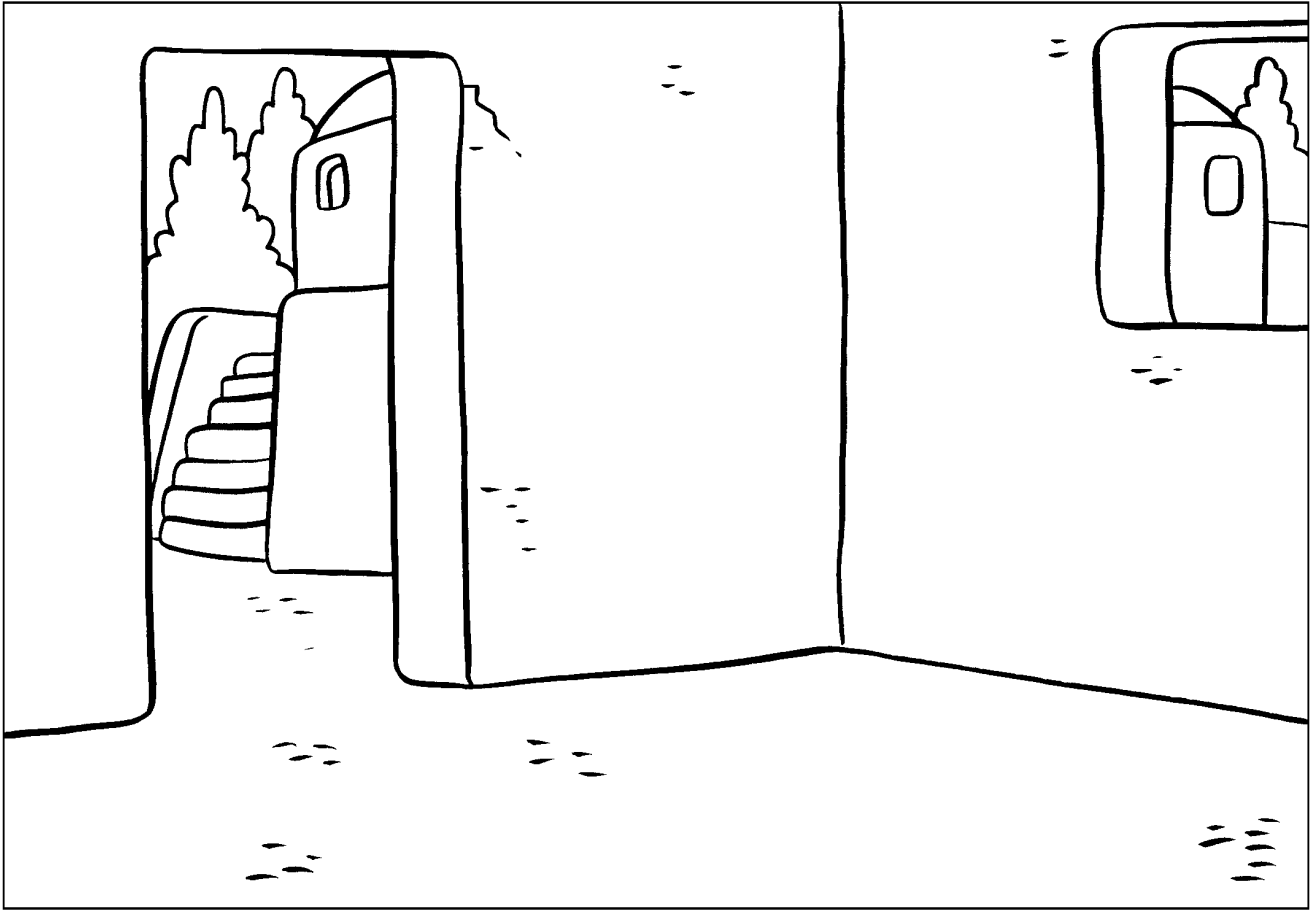

part to glue
on the back

parts for the frame

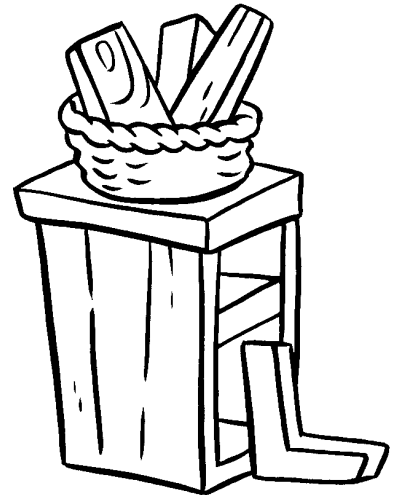

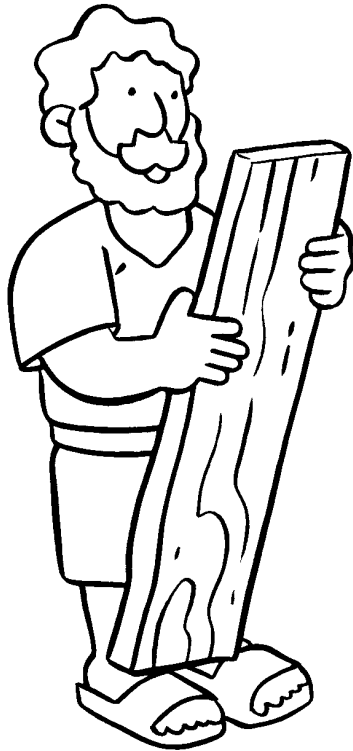

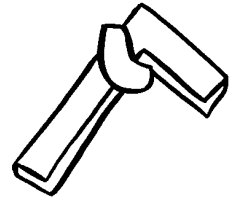

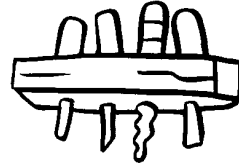

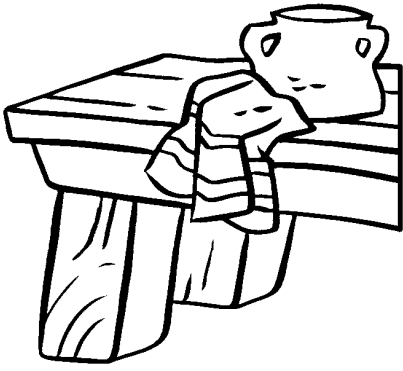

The carpenter son

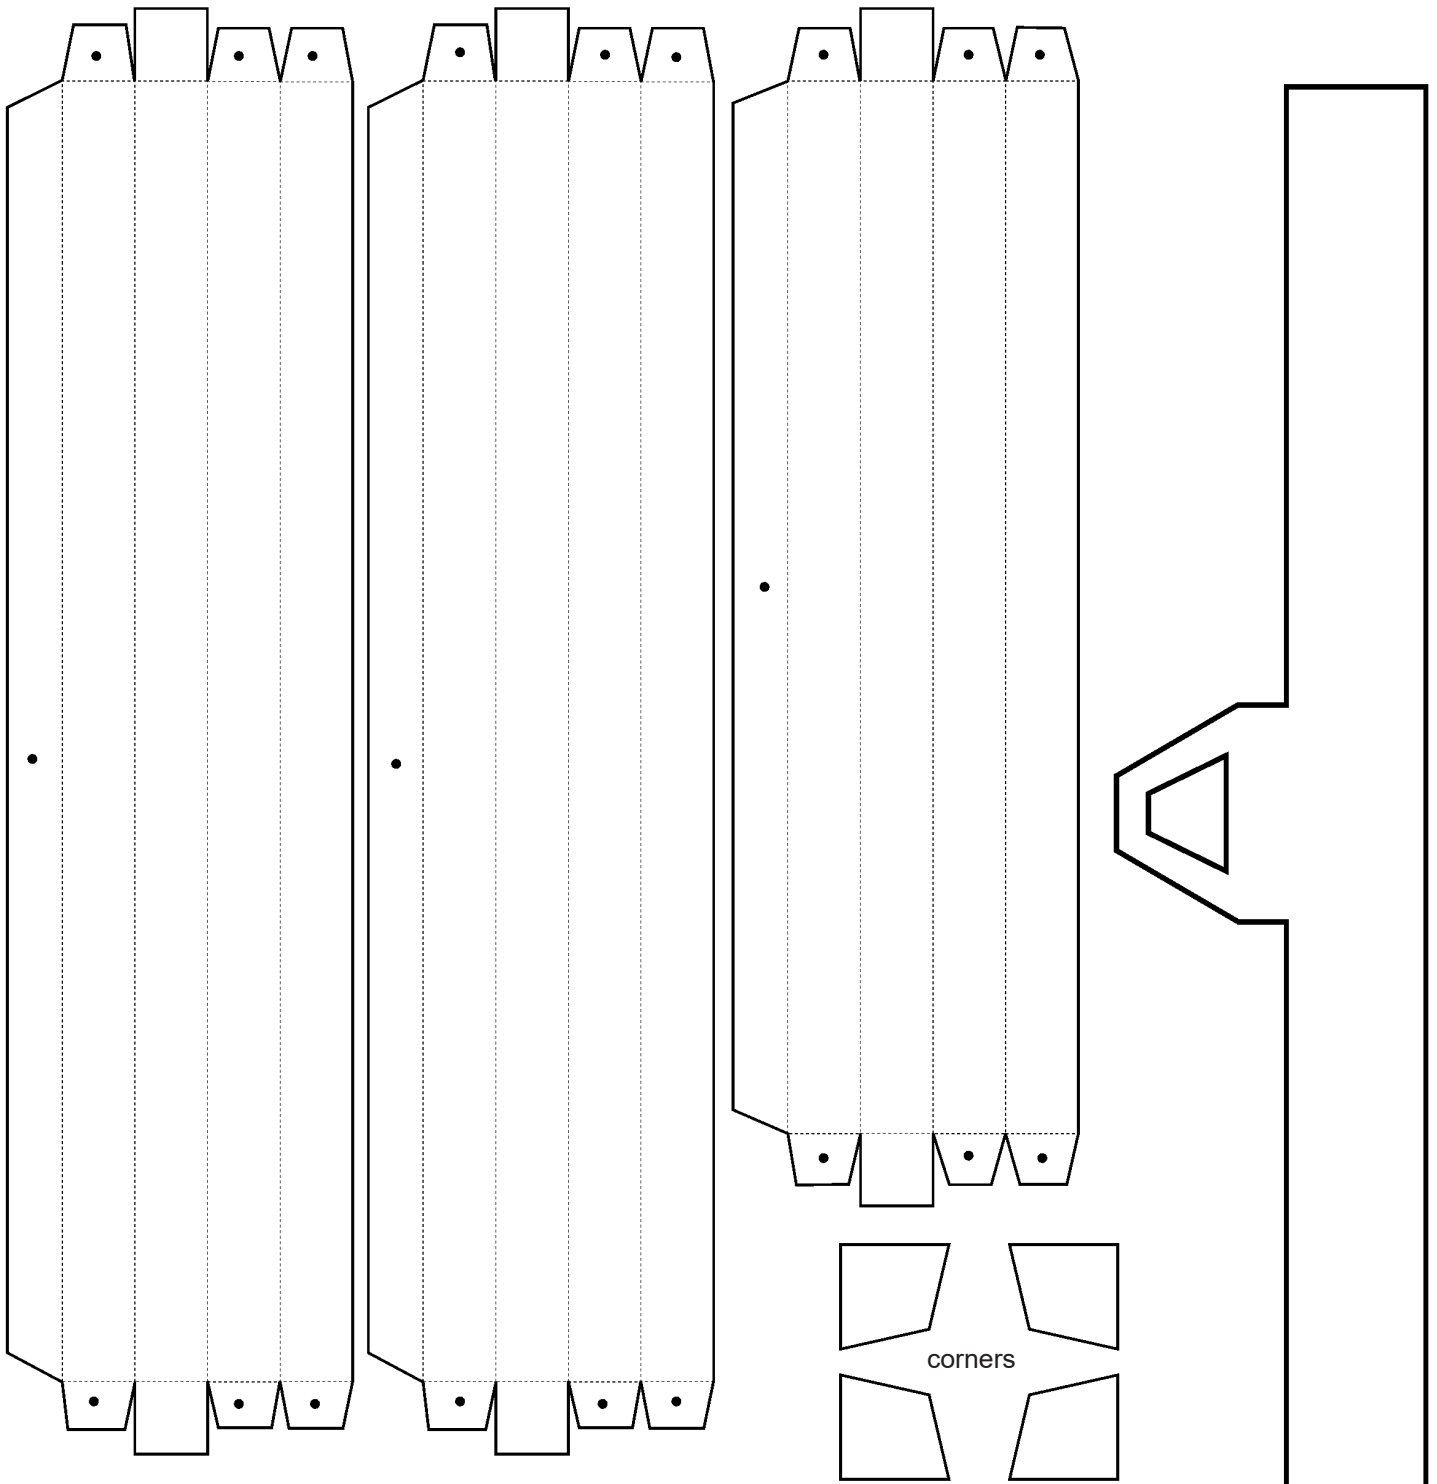

Every year, Joseph, Mary, and their boy went to Jerusalem to attend the Passover festival. However, the year the boy had turned twelve years old, he initially didn't go on the journey home with them, but stayed in Jerusalem.

His parents were very worried and had to return to look for him, finding him in the temple talking with the Jewish teachers. When asked why he stayed behind, he told them he had to be in his Father's house, as was the Jewish custom that a son when he was twelve years old would be working with his father in the same trade. His parents didn't understand what he meant.

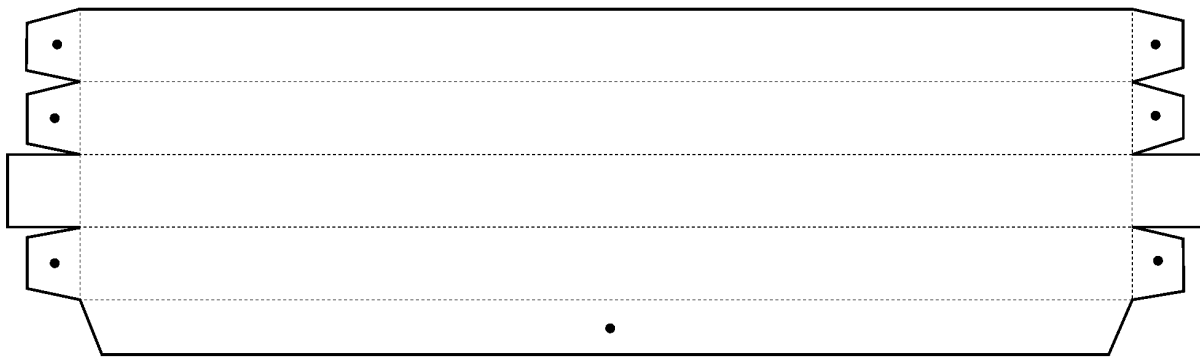

In obedience to his parents, he then returned with them to Nazareth and worked with his father, Joseph, as a carpenter. The young boy's name was Jesus.

You can read this story in Luke chapter 2, verses 39 to 52

part to glue
on the back

parts for the frame

The carpenter son

Every year, Joseph, Mary, and their boy went to Jerusalem to attend the Passover festival. However, the year the boy had turned twelve years old, he initially didn't go on the journey home with them, but stayed in Jerusalem.

His parents were very worried and had to return to look for him, finding him in the temple talking with the Jewish teachers. When asked why he stayed behind, he told them he had to be in his Father's house, as was the Jewish custom that a son when he was twelve years old would be working with his father in the same trade. His parents didn't understand what he meant.

In obedience to his parents, he then returned with them to Nazareth and worked with his father, Joseph, as a carpenter. The young boy's name was Jesus.

You can read this story in Luke chapter 2, verses 39 to 52

The carpenter son

Every year, Joseph, Mary, and their boy went to Jerusalem to attend the Passover festival. However, the year the boy had turned twelve years old, he initially didn't go on the journey home with them, but stayed in Jerusalem.

His parents were very worried and had to return to look for him, finding him in the temple talking with the Jewish teachers. When asked why he stayed behind, he told them he had to be in his Father's house, as was the Jewish custom that a son when he was twelve years old would be working with his father in the same trade. His parents didn't understand what he meant.

In obedience to his parents, he then returned with them to Nazareth and worked with his father, Joseph, as a carpenter. The young boy's name was Jesus.

You can read this story in Luke chapter 2, verses 39 to 52