

The Parables of Jesus

The Good Seeds and the Weeds

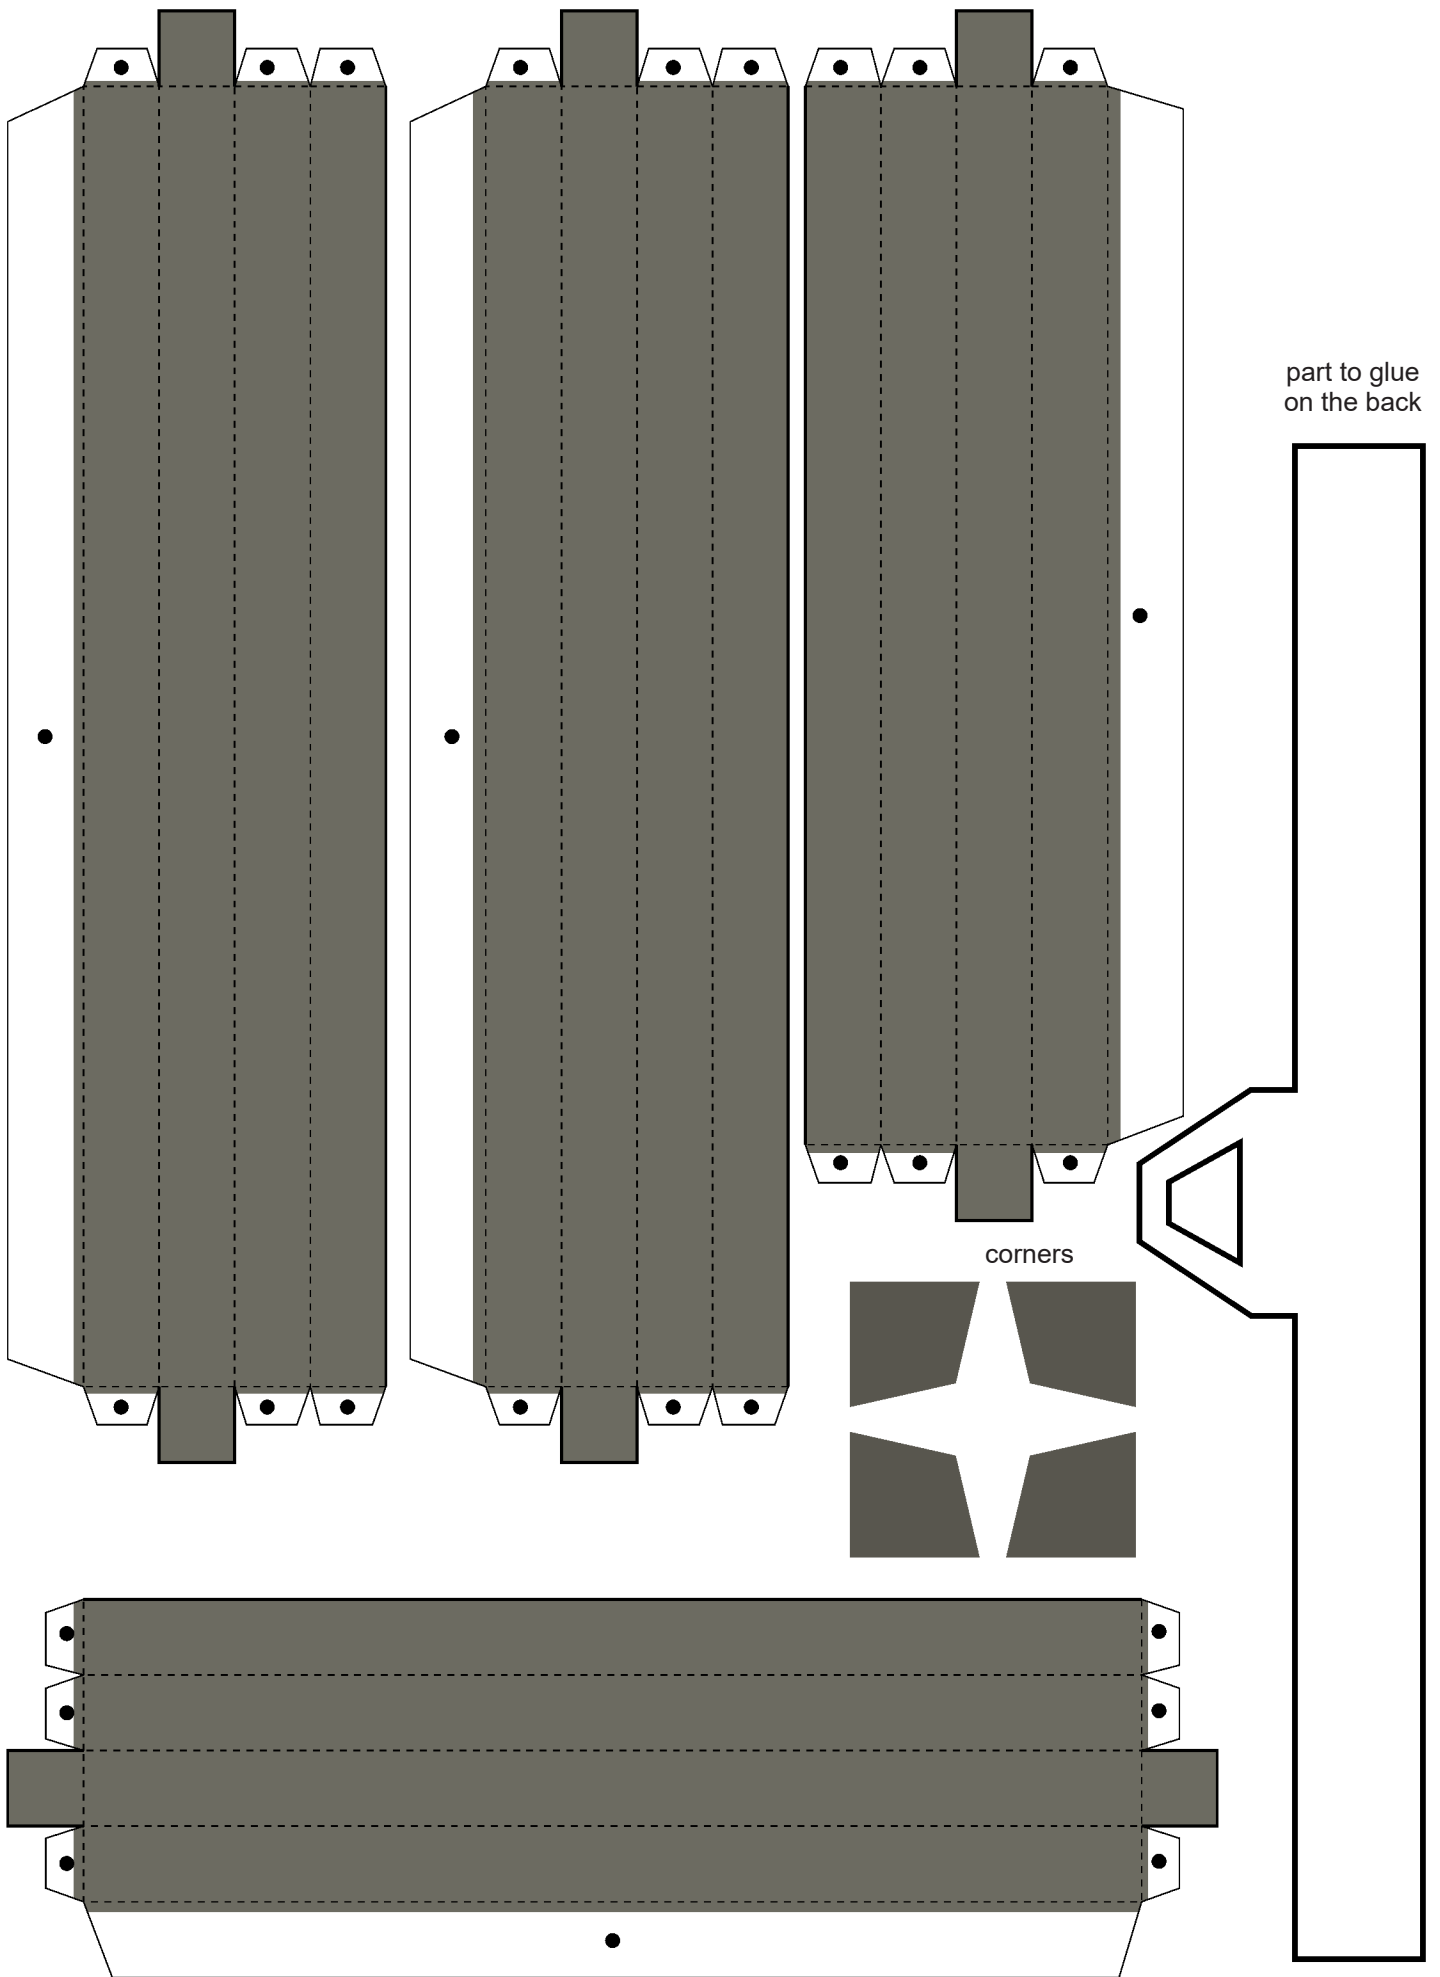

“The kingdom of heaven is like the following”, said Jesus. “A farmer sowed good seed in his wheat field, but that night, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat.

“As the wheat grew, the weeds grew also. The farmer’s servant asked, “Sir, I know you planted good seed in your field. Where did the weeds come from? Do you want us to go and pull out those weeds?”

“No,” said the farmer, “because as you gather the weeds, you might also pull up some of the wheat. Let the wheat and the weeds grow together up until harvest. At harvest time I will tell the harvest workers to pull the weeds out first and burn them, and then to next gather in the wheat and store it in my barn.”

You can read this parable in Matthew chapter 13, verses 24 to 30, and then read verses 36 to 43 to hear Jesus explain this parable.

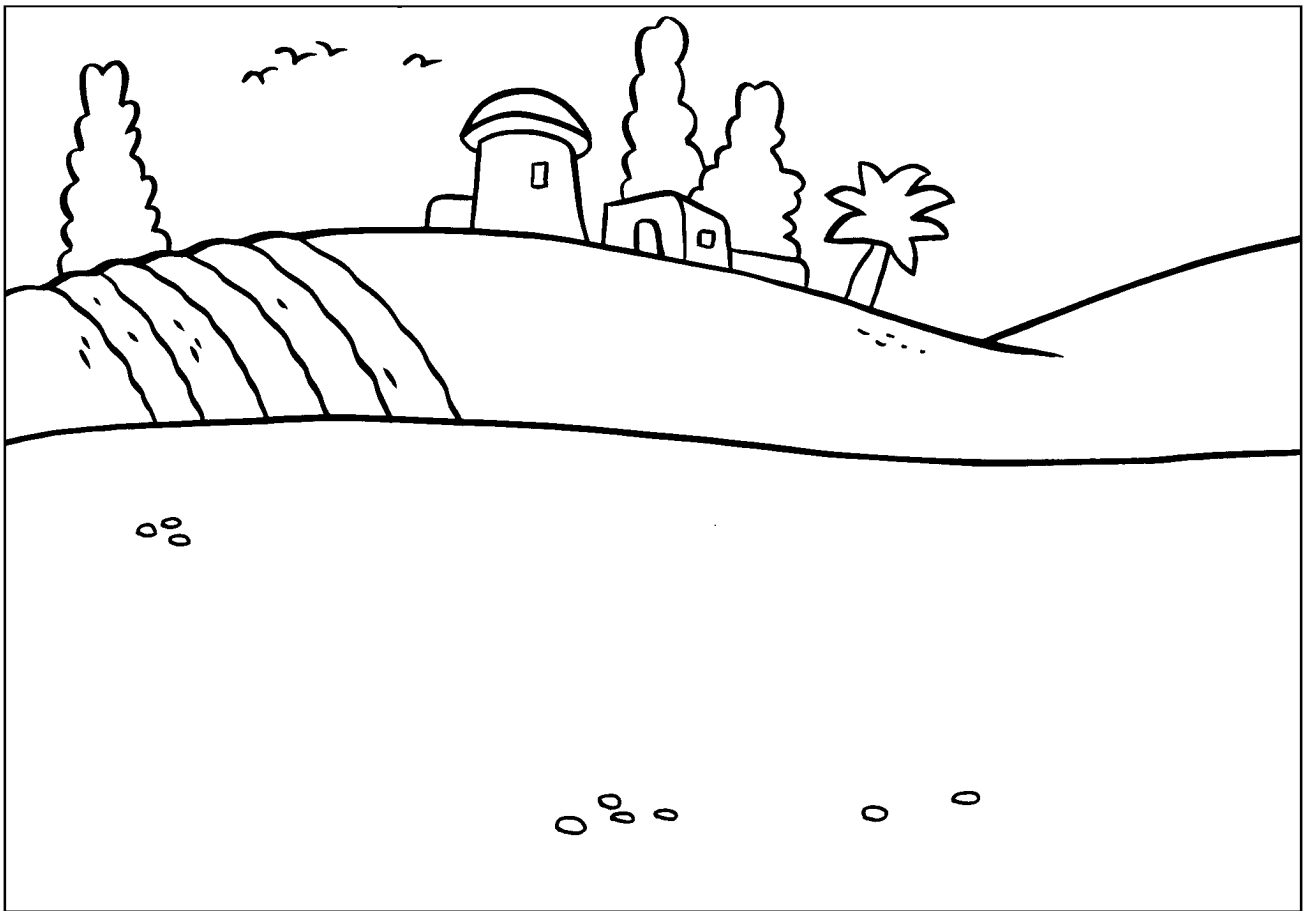

part to glue on the back

corners

parts for the frame

The Parables of Jesus

The Good Seeds and the Weeds

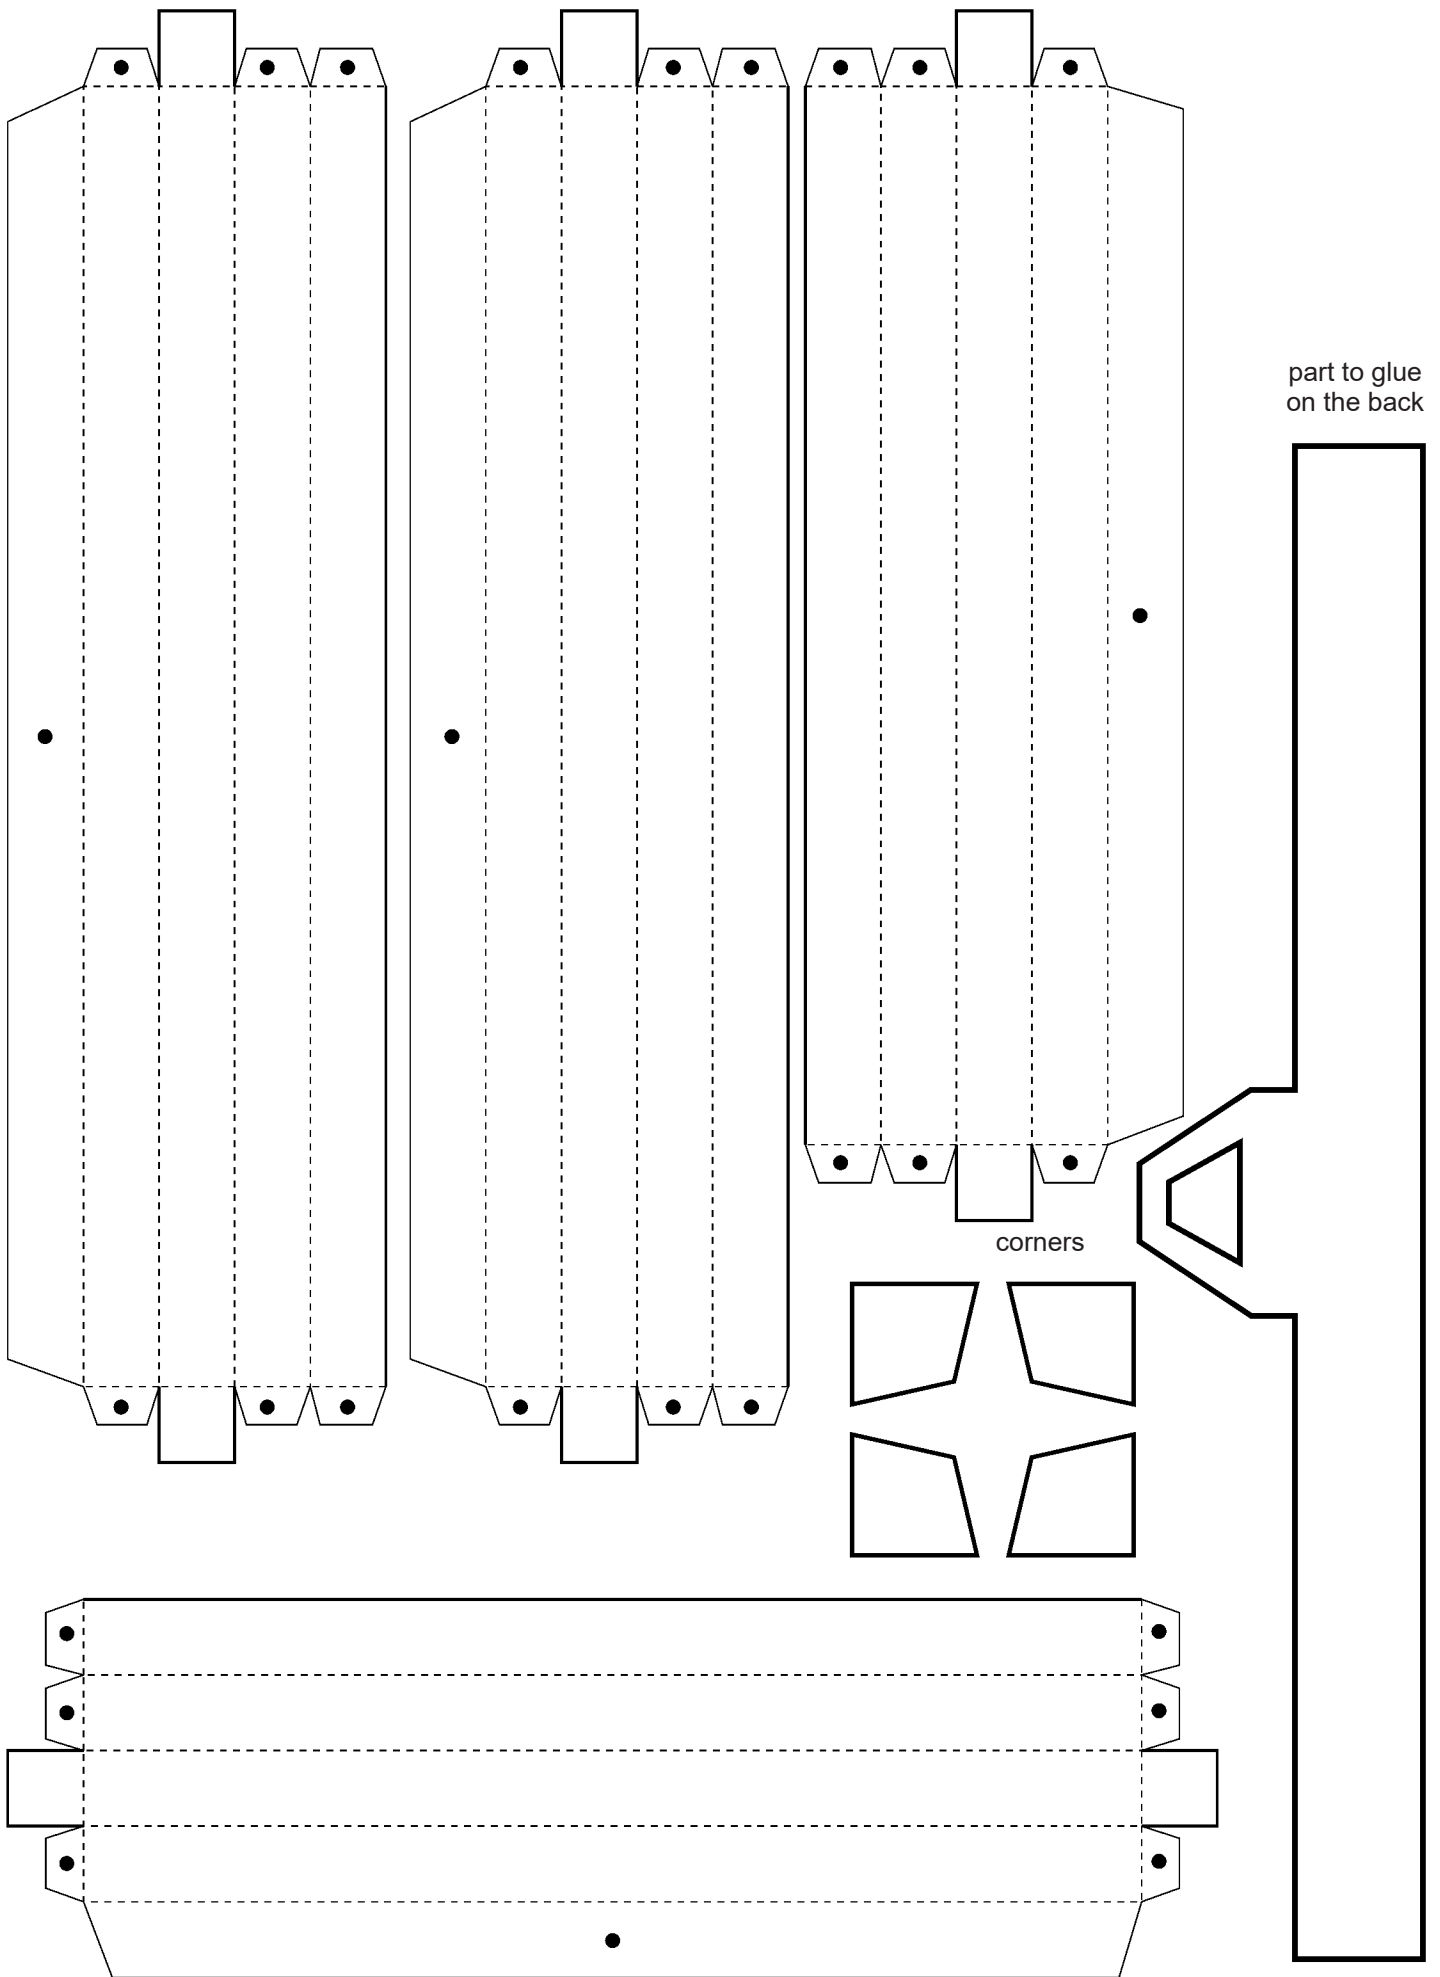

“The kingdom of heaven is like the following”, said Jesus. “A farmer sowed good seed in his wheat field, but that night, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat.

“As the wheat grew, the weeds grew also. The farmer’s servant asked, “Sir, I know you planted good seed in your field. Where did the weeds come from? Do you want us to go and pull out those weeds?”

“No,” said the farmer, “because as you gather the weeds, you might also pull up some of the wheat. Let the wheat and the weeds grow together up until harvest. At harvest time I will tell the harvest workers to pull the weeds out first and burn them, and then to next gather in the wheat and store it in my barn.”

You can read this parable in Matthew chapter 13, verses 24 to 30, and then read verses 36 to 43 to hear Jesus explain this parable.

part to glue
on the back

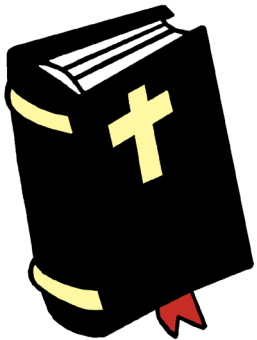

corners

parts for the frame

The Parables of Jesus

The Good Seeds and the Weeds

“The kingdom of heaven is like the following”, said Jesus. “A farmer sowed good seed in his wheat field, but that night, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat.

“As the wheat grew, the weeds grew also. The farmer’s servant asked, “Sir, I know you planted good seed in your field. Where did the weeds come from? Do you want us to go and pull out those weeds?”

“No,” said the farmer, “because as you gather the weeds, you might also pull up some of the wheat. Let the wheat and the weeds grow together up until harvest. At harvest time I will tell the harvest workers to pull the weeds out first and burn them, and then to next gather in the wheat and store it in my barn.”

You can read this parable in Matthew chapter 13, verses 24 to 30, and then read verses 36 to 43 to hear Jesus explain this parable.

The Parables of Jesus

The Good Seeds and the Weeds

“The kingdom of heaven is like the following”, said Jesus. “A farmer sowed good seed in his wheat field, but that night, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat.

“As the wheat grew, the weeds grew also. The farmer’s servant asked, “Sir, I know you planted good seed in your field. Where did the weeds come from? Do you want us to go and pull out those weeds?”

“No,” said the farmer, “because as you gather the weeds, you might also pull up some of the wheat. Let the wheat and the weeds grow together up until harvest. At harvest time I will tell the harvest workers to pull the weeds out first and burn them, and then to next gather in the wheat and store it in my barn.”

You can read this parable in Matthew chapter 13, verses 24 to 30, and then read verses 36 to 43 to hear Jesus explain this parable.