

The Last Supper

Jesus asked Peter and John to prepare the Passover meal for them to eat. Jesus said to the twelve disciples, “I have very much desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. I won’t eat it again, until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.”

Jesus took the cup of wine, and gave thanks, and said, “Take this, and divide it among yourselves. I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.”

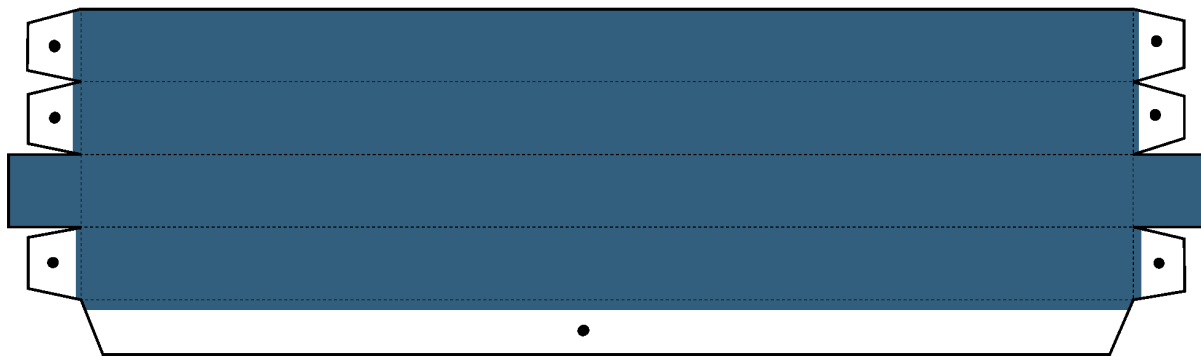

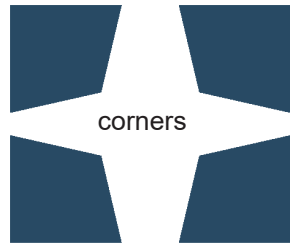

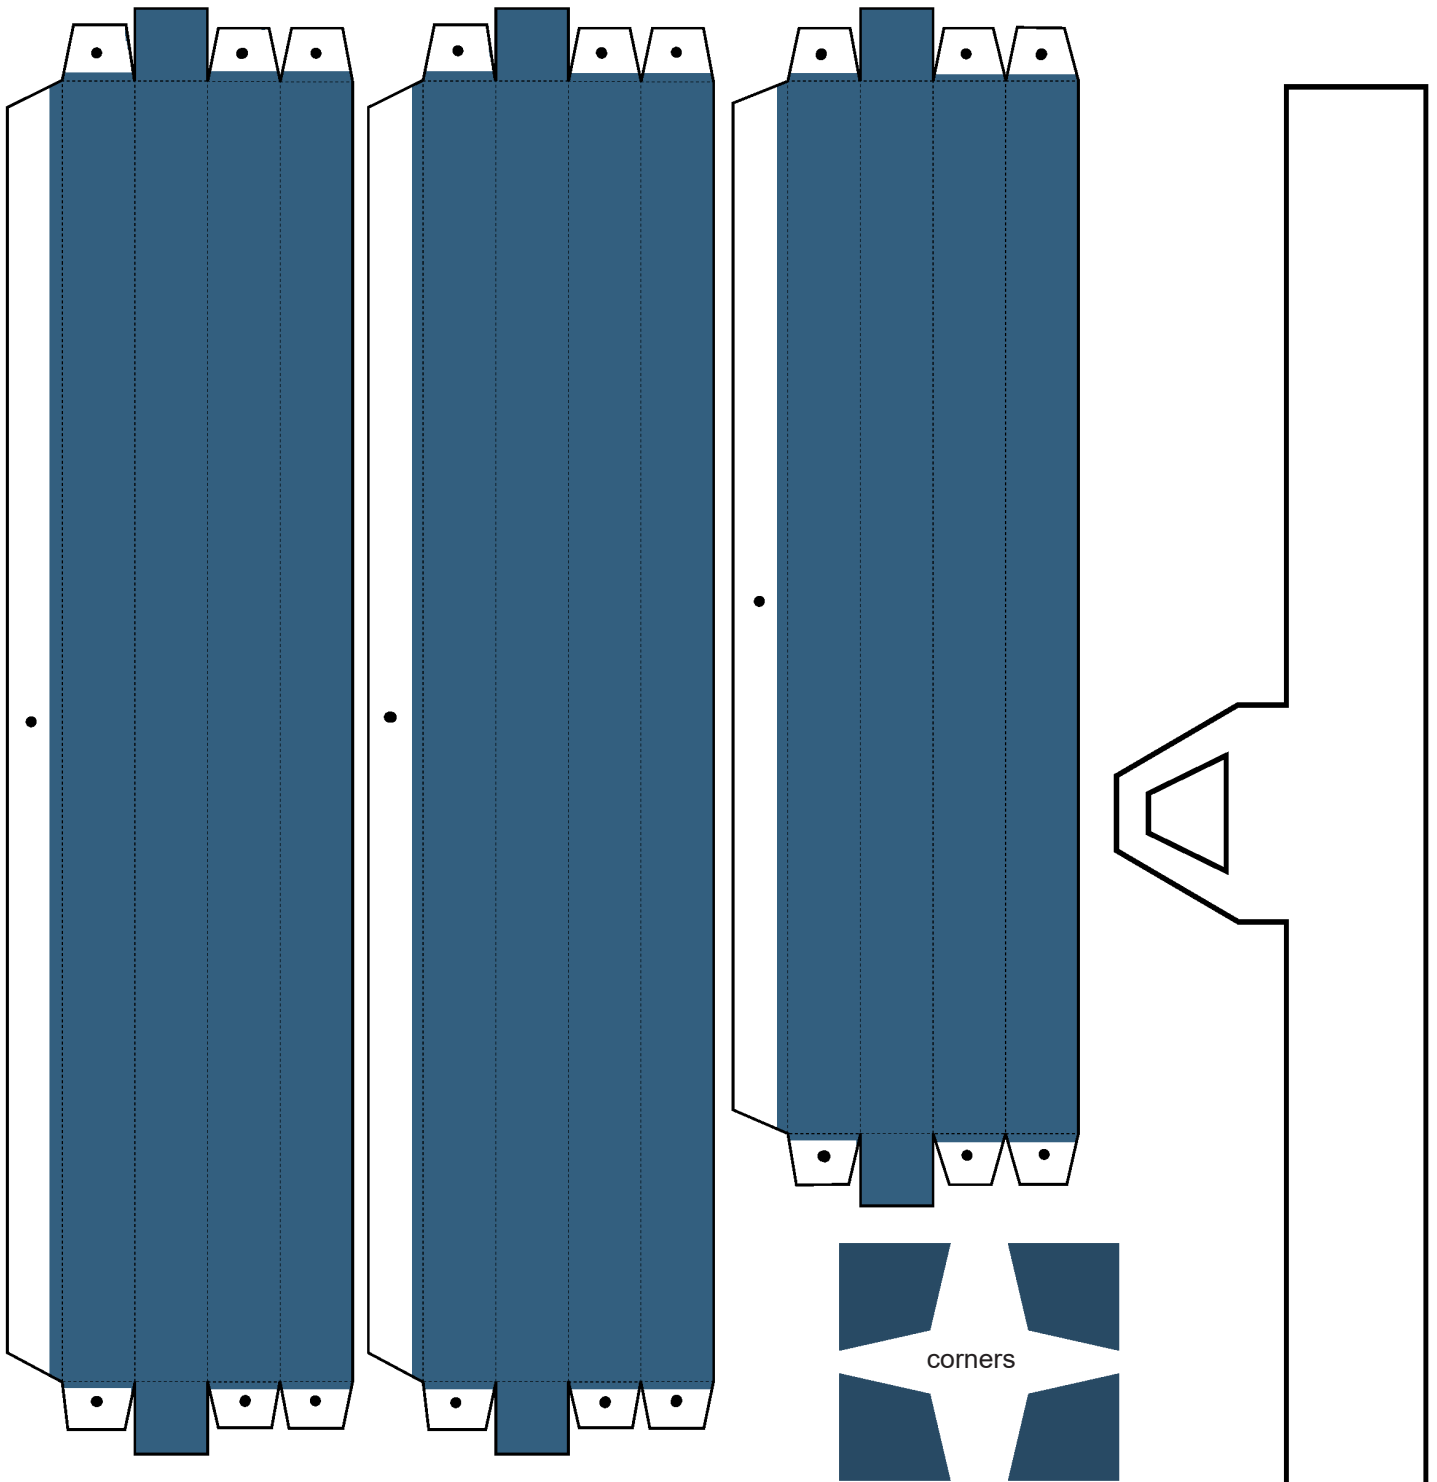

Jesus gave thanks for the bread, and then broke it to give to the disciples. “This is My body which is given for you. I ask that you do this in memory of Me.”

After supper He took the cup, saying, “This cup is the new testament in My blood, which is shed for you.”

The devil had stirred Judas Iscariot to betray Jesus. However, Jesus knew that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come from God, and was to return to God.

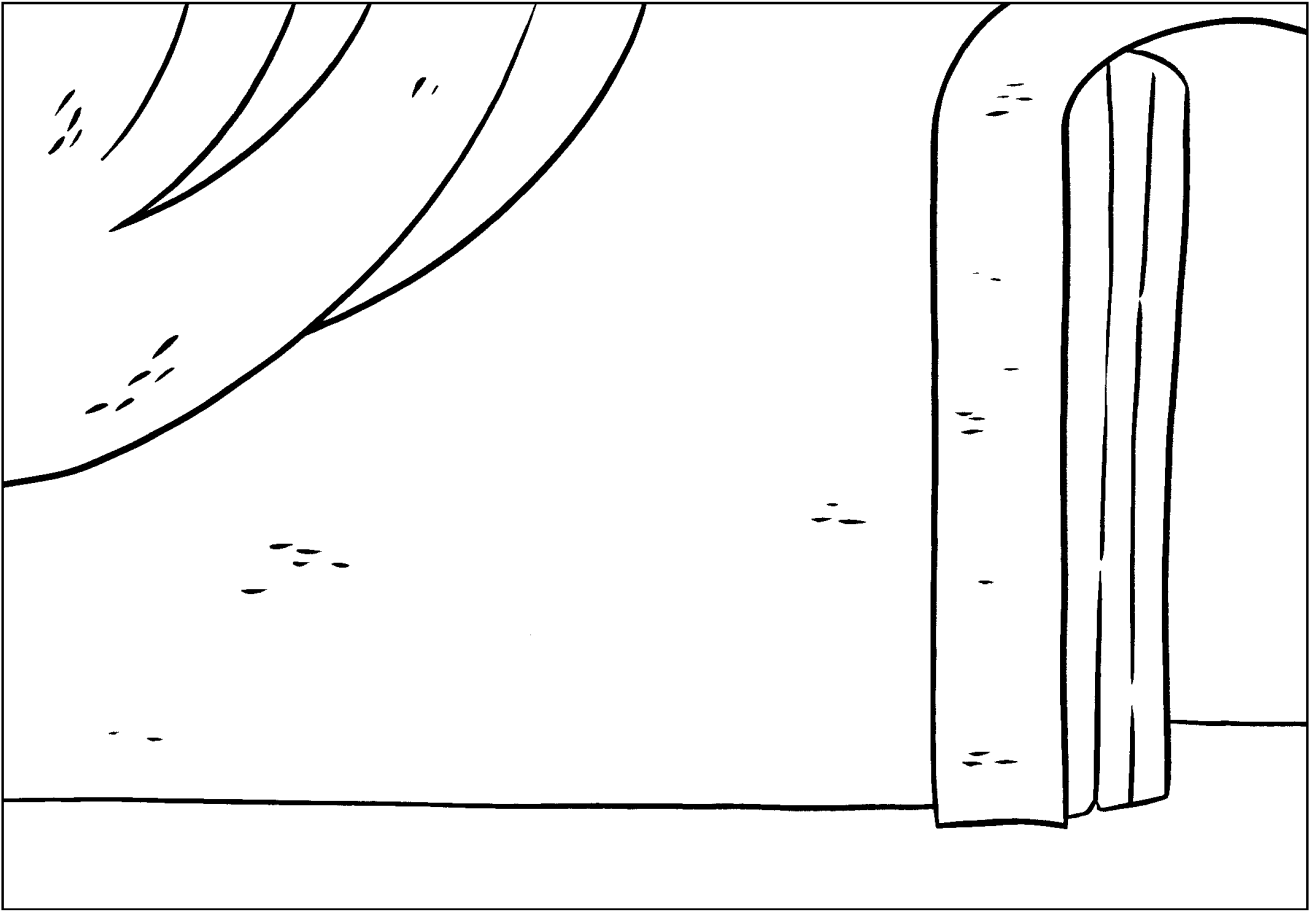

You can read what Jesus did and said to His disciples on this occasion in Luke chapter 22, verses 7 to 38, Mark chapter 14, verses 12 to 26, Matthew chapter 26, verses 17 to 30, and in John chapter 13 and chapter 14.
