

The Parables of Jesus

The Prodigal Son

One time when many tax collectors and outcasts came to listen to Jesus, the Pharisees started to grumble about Him: "This man is a friend of outcasts!" Jesus responded by telling the following parable.

There was a father who had two sons. One day the younger one asked his father to give him his part of the inheritance. After the father gave him his inheritance, the younger son left home and traveled to a country far away where he wasted his money in reckless living.

When a severe famine spread over the country, the young man returned to his father's home and begged forgiveness. The father welcomed his returning son with great joy. However, the older son, who had stayed and helped his father with the work, became angry and jealous of his father love and mercy toward his younger brother.

The father said to the older son, "You are always with me and everything I have is yours! But now it is time to celebrate because your brother, who was lost, has now been found!"

You can read this parable in Luke chapter 15, verses 11 to 32

part to glue on the back

corners

parts for the frame

The Parables of Jesus

The Prodigal Son

One time when many tax collectors and outcasts came to listen to Jesus, the Pharisees started to grumble about Him: "This man is a friend of outcasts!" Jesus responded by telling the following parable.

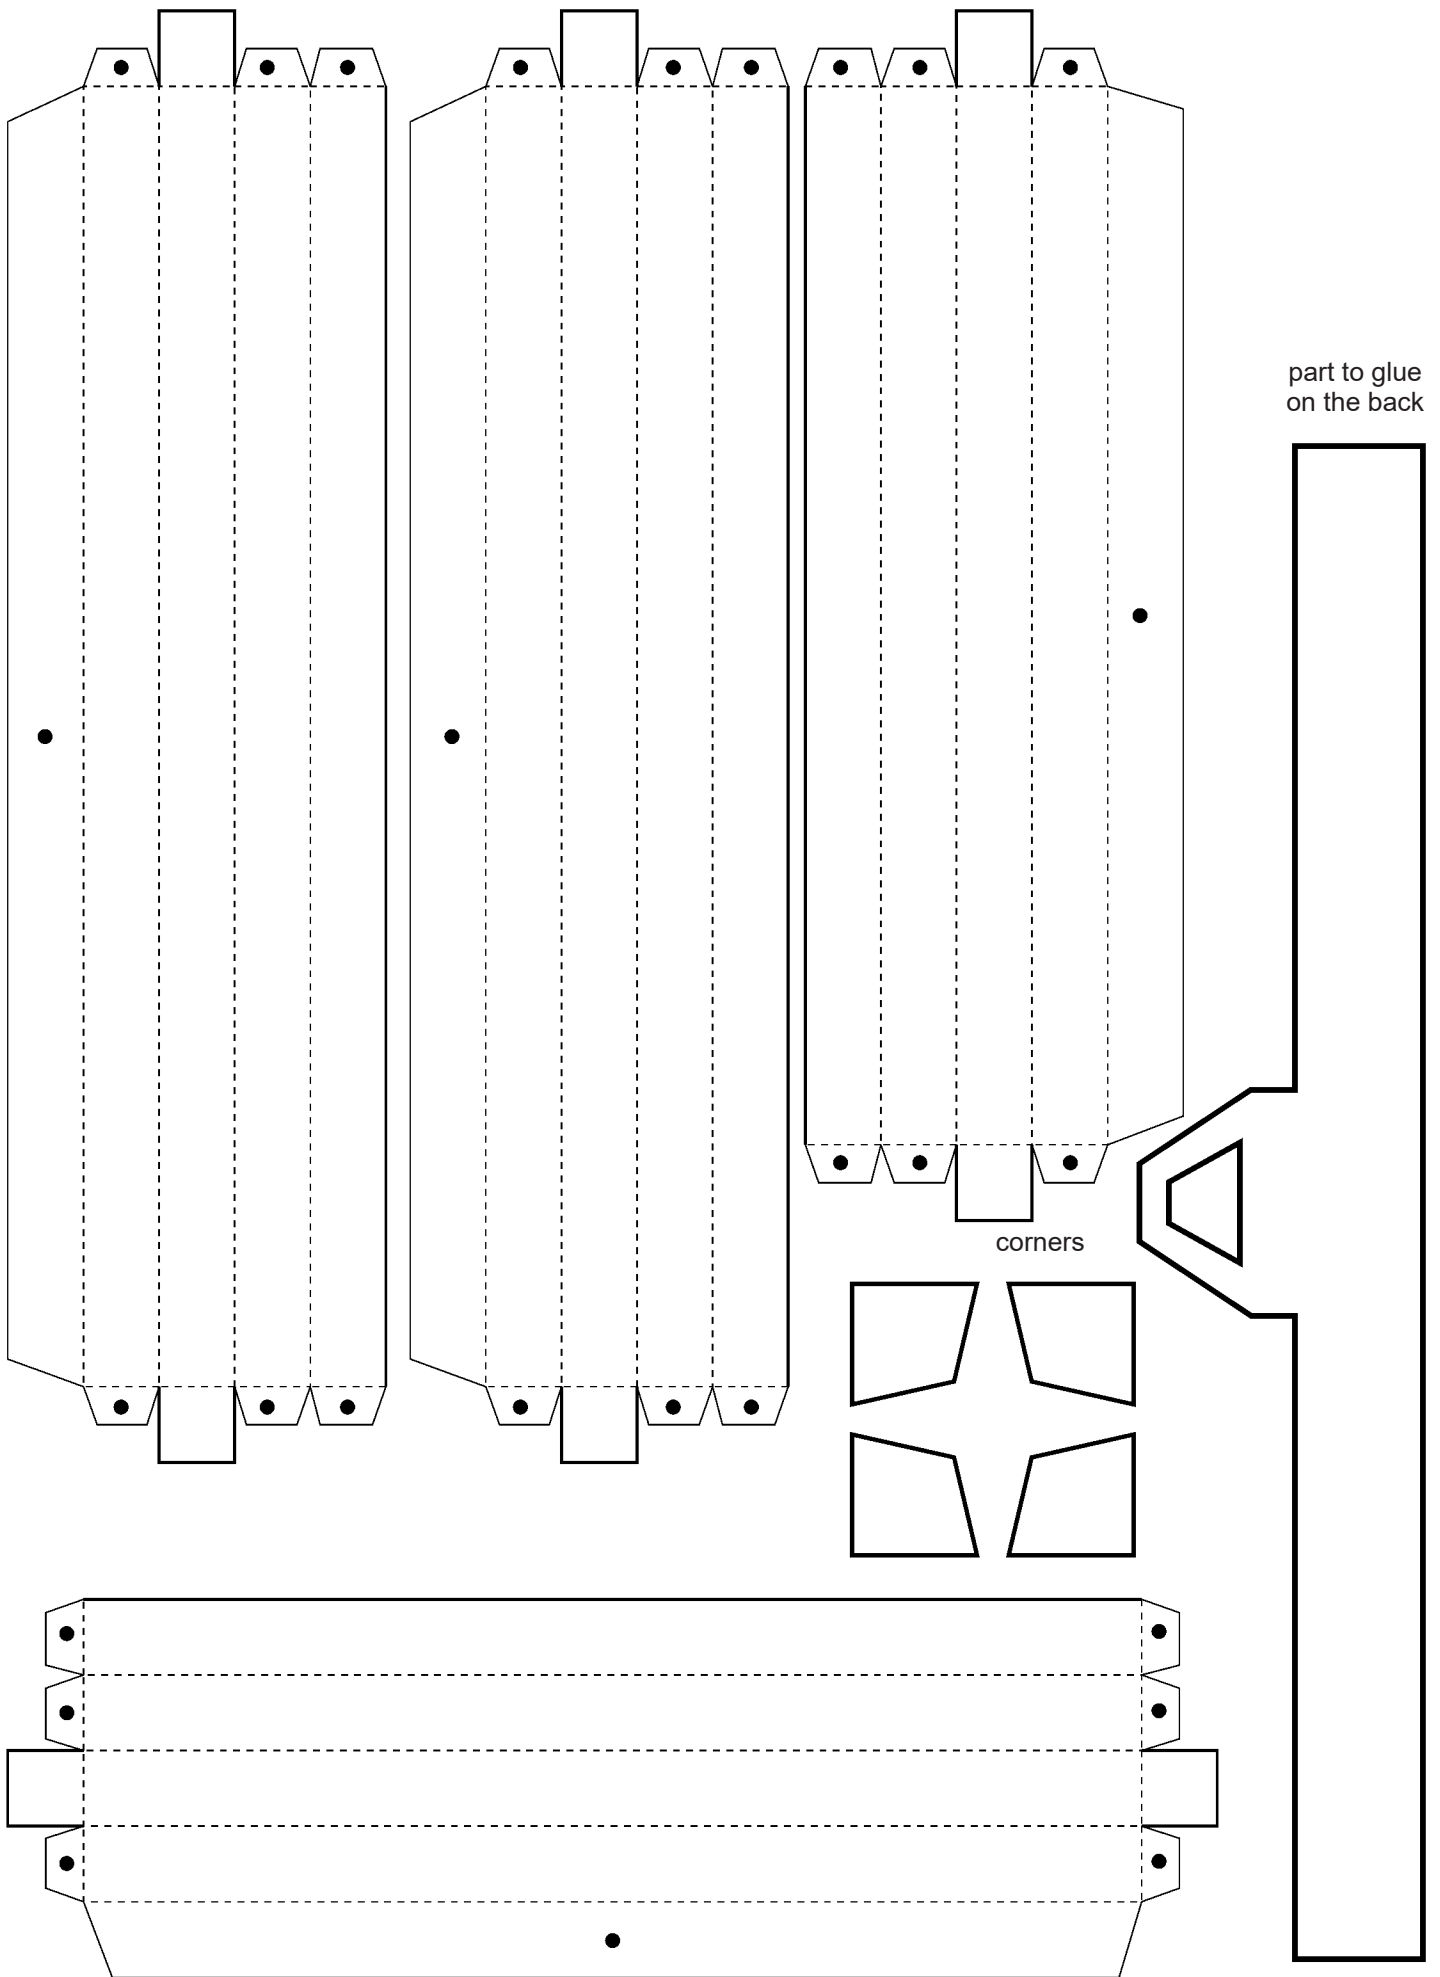

There was a father who had two sons. One day the younger one asked his father to give him his part of the inheritance. After the father gave him his inheritance, the younger son left home and traveled to a country far away where he wasted his money in reckless living.

When a severe famine spread over the country, the young man returned to his father's home and begged forgiveness. The father welcomed his returning son with great joy. However, the older son, who had stayed and helped his father with the work, became angry and jealous of his father love and mercy toward his younger brother.

The father said to the older son, "You are always with me and everything I have is yours! But now it is time to celebrate because your brother, who was lost, has now been found!"

You can read this parable in Luke chapter 15, verses 11 to 32

part to glue on the back

corners

parts for the frame

November 2019

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
				1	2	3
4	5	6	7	8	9	10
11	12	13	14	15	16	17
18	19	20	21	22	23	24
25	26	27	28	29	30

November 2019

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
				1	2	3
4	5	6	7	8	9	10
11	12	13	14	15	16	17
18	19	20	21	22	23	24
25	26	27	28	29	30

The Parables of Jesus

The Prodigal Son

One time when many tax collectors and outcasts came to listen to Jesus, the Pharisees started to grumble about Him: "This man is a friend of outcasts!" Jesus responded by telling the following parable.

There was a father who had two sons. One day the younger one asked his father to give him his part of the inheritance. After the father gave him his inheritance, the younger son left home and traveled to a country far away where he wasted his money in reckless living.

When a severe famine spread over the country, the young man returned to his father's home and begged forgiveness. The father welcomed his returning son with great joy. However, the older son, who had stayed and helped his father with the work, became angry and jealous of his father love and mercy toward his younger brother.

The father said to the older son, "You are always with me and everything I have is yours! But now it is time to celebrate because your brother, who was lost, has now been found!"

You can read this parable in Luke chapter 15, verses 11 to 32

The Parables of Jesus

The Prodigal Son

One time when many tax collectors and outcasts came to listen to Jesus, the Pharisees started to grumble about Him: "This man is a friend of outcasts!" Jesus responded by telling the following parable.

There was a father who had two sons. One day the younger one asked his father to give him his part of the inheritance. After the father gave him his inheritance, the younger son left home and traveled to a country far away where he wasted his money in reckless living.

When a severe famine spread over the country, the young man returned to his father's home and begged forgiveness. The father welcomed his returning son with great joy. However, the older son, who had stayed and helped his father with the work, became angry and jealous of his father love and mercy toward his younger brother.

The father said to the older son, "You are always with me and everything I have is yours! But now it is time to celebrate because your brother, who was lost, has now been found!"

You can read this parable in Luke chapter 15, verses 11 to 32