Heroes of Faith - Gideon

Heroes of Faith - Gideon

Due to disobeying God's law and worshipping the Idols of the other inhabitants of the land, the people of Israel lost God's protection, which led to the nation of Midianites invading Israel, robbing, and mistreating the people.

After seven years of oppression, the people of Israel repented and sought God's intervention. God answered by giving them another deliverer, Gideon.

An angel appeared to Gideon, commissioning him to fight the Midianites. Because young Gideon was unsure of this special calling, he wanted assurance that God was going to save Israel through him.

He laid out a fleece overnight and asked God to make the fleece wet while keeping the ground around it dry, and that's what happened. He then again laid out a fleece overnight and asked God to make the ground wet but to keep the fleece dry. The Lord did it again.

After all doubts had been cleared away, Gideon was ready for battle.

You can read the story about Gideon in the book of Judges from chapters 6 through 8.
