Heroes of Faith - Paul

Paul, born Saul of Tarsus, was one of the leaders of the first generation of Christians. He played an important role in preaching the Gospel to both the Jews and the Gentiles (non-Jewish people) during the first century, and his missionary journeys took him around the known world all throughout the Roman Empire.

Paul started many churches. He also wrote many letters to these churches as well as to individuals he met during his travels. Paul's letters that have been included in the Bible are known as the Epistles.

Before becoming a great witness for Jesus, Paul was known for persecuting Christians. He was present at the death of the first Christian martyr, Stephen. Later on the road to Damascus, on his way to arrest Christians, he had an encounter with Jesus and a total change of heart.

Read the amazing story of Paul in the Book of Acts.
