Heroes of Faith – Martha and Mary

Martha and Mary were the sisters of Lazarus, the man Jesus raised from the dead. They lived in a town called Bethany, close to Jerusalem.

One day Jesus and his disciples stayed at the home of Martha and Mary. While Jesus talked to his disciples, Mary sat with them to listen to Jesus' teachings. Meanwhile, Martha was busy preparing the meals, and she was upset that her sister was not helping her.

Jesus gently told her that there is a time to work, but there was also a time to listen. He explained it was better to not worry about preparing the meal but to instead enjoy the time of listening to him, and that later they would have time to prepare the meal.

Martha and Mary are also mentioned in the book of John 11 at the resurrection of Lazarus. Jesus loved Martha and her sister, Mary, and Lazarus (John 11:5).

Read this story in Luke 10:38-42.
