Heroes of Faith - Peter

Heroes of Faith - Peter

Simon was a fisherman who lived in Capernaum, a small town on the coast of the Sea of Galilee. (Mark 1:29) One day Jesus met Simon (whom He later named Peter), and asked him to follow and be one of His disciples. (Luke 5:2-11)

For the next three years, Peter lived with Jesus, listening to Jesus' teachings, and witnessing the many miracles Jesus performed. He was very enthusiastic, strong-willed, impulsive, and often brash in his comments.

It was Peter who boasted that he would never forsake the Lord, even if everyone else did (Matthew 26:33; 69-75); and yet Peter later denied three times that he even knew the Lord.

But Jesus loved Peter very much, encouraging him to continue on as His disciple and to feed His sheep. (John 21:15-17)

Peter was willing to leave all he had to follow Jesus, and God used him in great ways. As Peter preached, people were amazed at his boldness because he was "unschooled" and "ordinary." But then they took note that Peter "had been with Jesus" (Acts 4:13).
